i By the secret counsell of God, as Act. 4. 28.

Priest house. 60 Peter denieth him selfe, and yet repenteth. 67 Christ is brought before the Council, where he maketh ample confession.

N Dye the feast of unleavened bread. Now we were, which is called the Pasche.

2 And the hie Priests & Scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 Then entered Satan into Judas, who was called Iscariot, and was of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the hie Priests and captaines, how he might betray him to them.

5 So they were glad, & agreed to give him money.

6 And hee consented, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them, when the people were away.

7 ¶ Then came the day of unleavened bread when the Pasche must be sacrificed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Goe, and prepare vs the Pasche, that we may eat it.

9 And they layde to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare it?

10 Then he laide unto them, Beholde, when ye be entered into the citie, there shall a man meete you, bearing a pitcher of water: followe him into the house that hee entereth in.

11 And layd vnto the good man of the house, The master saith unto thee, Where is the lodging where I shal eat the Pasche with my disciples?

12 Then he shall shewe you a great high chamber trimmed: there make it ready.

13 So they went, and founde as hee had said vnto them, and made ready the Pasche.

14 ¶ And when the houre was come, hee sat downe, and the twelve Apostles with him.

15 Then he laide vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eat this Pasche with you before I suffer.

16 For I say vnto you, & verily I say, I will not eat of it any more, untill it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And hee tooke the cuppe, and gaue thanks, and layde, Take this, and drinke it among you.

18 For I say vnto you, I will not drinke of the fruite of the vine, untill the kingdom of God be come.

19 ¶ And hee tooke bread, and when hee had given thanks, hee brake it, and gaue to them, laying, This is my body, which is given for you: do this in the remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also after Supper hee tooke the cup, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ Yet beholde, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the table.

22 And truly the sonne of man goeth as it is appointed: but woe bee to that man, by whom he is betrayed.

23 Then they began to enquire among themselves which of them it should be, that should doe that.

24 ¶ And there arose also a strife among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest.

25 But hee layde vnto them, The Kings of the Gentiles reigne over them, and they that beare rule over them, are called Grauous lords.

26 But ye shall not be so: but let the greatest among you bee as the least: and the chiefeest as he that serueth.

27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or he that serueth? is not he that sitteth at table? And I am among you as hee that serueth.

28 And yee are they which haue continued with me in my tentations.

29 Therefore I appoint vnto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed to me.

30 ¶ That ye may I eate, & drinke at my table in my kingdom, and sit on seates, and iudge the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired you, to know you, as wheate.

32 But I haue prayed for thee, that thy faith faile not: therefore when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 ¶ And hee sayd vnto him, Lord, I am ready to goe with thee into prison, and to death.

34 But he sayd, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shall not crowe this day, before thou hast thrise denied that thou knowest me.

35 ¶ And hee layd vnto them, ¶ When I sent you without bagge, and scrip, & shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they layde, No.

36 ¶ Then hee sayd to them, But now hee that hath a bagge, let him take it, like wise a scrip: and he that hath none, let him sell his coat, and buy a sword.

37 For I say vnto you, that yet the same which is written, must be performed in me, ¶ When with the wicked was hee numbered: for doubtlesse these things which are written of me, haue an ende.

38 And they sayd, Lord, beholde, here are two swords. And hee sayd vnto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went (as hee was wont) to the mount of Olives: and his disciples also followed him.

40 ¶ And when he came to the place, hee sayd to them, Pray, least ye enter into temptation.

41 And hee gate himselfe fro them about a stones cast, & kneeled downe, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this cup from me: neuertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an Angell vnto him from heauen, comforting him.

44 But being in an agonie, hee prayed more earnestly: & his sweate was like drops of blood, trickling downe to the ground.

58 And after a litle while, another man sawe him, and said, Thou art also of them. But Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of an houre after, a certein other affirmed, saying, Verely even this man was with him: for hee is also a Galilean.

60 And Peter saide, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately while he yet spake, the cocke crewe.

68 And it also I aske you, ye will not answer me, nor tell me goe.

1 Iesus is brought before Pilate & Herod. 18 Of Barabbas. 26 Of Simon the Cyrenian. 27 The women make lamentation. 33 Christ crucified. 34 He prayeth for his enemies. 40 He curseth the chiefes and many others at his death. 53 And is buried.

¶ Then * the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, Wee haue founde this man perverting the people, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cesar, saying, That he is Christ a King.

3 ¶ And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And he answered him, and sayd, Thou sayest it.

4 Then sayd Pilate to the hie Priests, and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, We mooueth the people, teaching throughout all Iudea, beginning at Galile, even to this place.

6 Now when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when hee knewe that hee was of Herodes iurisdiction, hee sent him to Herod, which was also at Jerusalem in those dayes.

8 And when Herod sawe Iesus, he was exceedingly glad: for he was a delirious to see him of a long season, because hee had heard many things of him, and trusted to haue seene some signe done by him.

9 Then questioned he with him of many things: but he answered him nothing.

10 The hie Priests also & Scribes stood forth, and accused him vehemently.

11 And Herod with his men of warre despised him, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, and the rulers, and the people, 22 And he said vnto them the third time, But what euill hath he done? I finde no cause of death in him: I will therefore chaunge him, and let him loose.

23 But they were insatiate with loude voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them, and of the chief priests prevailed.

25 And he let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murther was cast into prison, whome they desired, and deliuered Iesus to doe with him what they would.

26 ¶ And as they ledde him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, coming out of the fildes, and on him they layd the crosse, to beare it after Iesus.

27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, which women bewayled and lamented him.

28 But Iesus turned backe vnto them, and sayd, Daughters of Ierusalem, weepe not for me, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.

29 For beholde, the dayes will come, when men shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombes that neuer bare, and the pappes which neuer gaue uicke.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountaines, Fall on vs: and to the hilles, Couer vs.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called Caluarie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

34 Then saide Iesus, Father, forgive them: for they knowe not what they doe. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood, and beheld: and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saued others: let him saue himselfe, if he be the Christ, the Chosen of God.

36 The soldiers also mocked him, and came and offered him vineger, 37 And said, If thou be the King of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.

38 And a superscription was also written ouer him, in Greeke letters, and in Latine, and in Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

41 We are in deede righteously here: for we receiue things worthe of that we haue done: but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And he saide vnto Iesus, Lord, remember me, when thou comest into thy kingdome.

43 Then Iesus saide vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, to day shalt thou bee with me in paradise.

44 ¶ And it was about the first honre: and there was a darkenes ouer all the land, vntill the ninth honre.

45 And the Sunne was darkened, and the baile of the Temple rent though the middes.

46 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and saide, Father, into thine handes I commend my spirit. And when hee thus had said, he gaue up the ghost.

47 ¶ Now when the Centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Verely this man was iust.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the thinges, which were done, moue their breastes & returned.

49 And all his acquaintance stood as far off, and the women that followed him from Galile, beholding these thinges.

50 ¶ And beholde, there was a man named Ioseph, which was a Counsellor, a good man and a iust.

51 He did not consent to the counsell and deede of them, which was of Arunathes, a citie of the Iewes: who also himselfe waited for the kingdome of God.

52 Hee went vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus.

CHAP. I.

1. 14. 17. The diuinitie, humanitie, and office of Iesus Christ. 15 The testimonie of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and that Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by it, & without it was made nothing that was made.

4 In it was life, and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in the darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was Iohn.

7 The same came for a witnesse, to beare witnesse of the light, that all men through him might beleue.

8 He was not that light, but was sent to beare witnesse of the light.

9 That was true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him: and the world knewe him not.

11 He came vnto his owne, and his owne receiued him not.

12 But as many as receiued him, to them hee gaue power to be the sonnes of God, even to them that beleue in his Name.

13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word was made flesh, & dwelt among vs, (as we saw his glory there-of, as the glory of the onely begotten Sonne of the Father) full of grace and trueneth.

15 John bare witnesse of him, & cryeth, saying, This was he of whom I sayd, he that cometh after mee, is preferred before me: for he was before me.

16 And of his fulnesse haue all we receiued, and grace for grace.

17 For Law was giuen by Moses, but grace and trueneth came by Iesus Christ.

18 No man hath seene God at any time: the onely begotten Image, which is in the bosome of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 When this is record of Iohn, when the Jewes sent Pharisies and Leuites from Ierusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed and denied not, and sayd plainly, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And hee sayd, I am not. Art thou the Prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then sayd they vnto him, Who art thou, that we may giue an answer to them that sent vs? what sayest thou of thy selfe?

23 He said, I am the voyce of him y^e crieth in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as sayd the Prophet Elias.

24 Howe they which were sent, were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, & said vnto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?

26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whose ye know not.

27 Hee it is that cometh after mee, which is preferred before mee, whose shoe latcher I am not worthy to vnloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Iordā, where Iohn did baptize.

29 The next day Iohn seeth Iesus coming vnto him, and sayeth, Beholde the Lambe of God, which taketh away the sinne of the world.

30 This is he of whom I sayd, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knewe him not: but because he should be declared to Israel, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.

32 So Iohn bare record, saying, I sawe the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a done, and it abode vpon him.

33 And I knewe him not: but hee that sent me to baptize with water, he sayd vnto me, Vpon whome thou shalt see the Spirit come downe, and tary still on him, that is he which baptizeth with the holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the sonne of God.

35 The next day, Iohn stood againe, and two of his disciples:

36 And hee behelde Iesus walking by, and sayd, Beholde the Lambe of God.

37 And the two disciples heard him speake, and followed Iesus.

38 Then Iesus turned about, and saue them followe, and sayd vnto them, What seeke ye? and they sayde vnto him, Rabbi (which is to say by interpretation, Maister) where dwellest thou?

39 Hee sayd vnto them, Come, and see. They came and sawe where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth houre.

40 And Iesus, Simon Peters brother, was one of the two which heard him say, and that followed him.

CHAP. II.

8 Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 Hee drineth the buyers and sellers out of the Temple.

19 Hee forewarneth his death and resurrection.

23 Hee conuerteth many, and distrusteth man.

And the third day, was there a marriage in Cana a towne of Galile, and the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, & his disciples vnto the marriage.

3 Nowe when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus sayd vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus sayd vnto her, Woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother sayde vnto the seruants,
Whatsoeuer he sayth vnto you, doe it.

6 And there were set there, six water pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Iewes, containing two or three fittins a peece.

7 And Iesus sayd vnto them, Fill the waterpots with water. Then they filled them vp to the brim.

8 Then he sayd vnto them, Draw out nowe and beare vnto the gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Now when the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for he knewe not whence it was: but the seruants, which drew the water, knewe) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegrome.

10 And sayde vnto him, All men at the beginning ser forth good wine, and when men haue well drunke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntill nowe.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana a towne of Galile, and shewed forth his glory: and his disciples beleued on him.

12 After that hee went downe into Capernaum, he and his mother, and his [brothers, and his disciples: but they continued not many dayes there.

13 For the Iewes Passouer was at hand.
Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

14 * And hee found in the Temple those that solde oren, and sheepe, and doles, and changers of money, sitting there.

15 Then he made a scourge of small cordes, and drave them all out of the Temple with the sheepe & oren, and powred out the changers money, and ouerthrew the tables,

16 And sayd vnto them that solde doles, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered, that it was written, * The zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and sayd vnto him, What signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered and sayd vnto them,
* Destroy this Temple, and in three dayes
I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then sayd the Iewes, Fourtie and six yeeres was this Temple in building, and wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

21 But her spake of the Temple of his body.

22 Assoone therefore as he was risen fro the dead, his disciples remembered that hee thus sayd vnto them: and they beleued the Scripture, and the woordes which Iesus had sayde.

23 Nowe when he was at Ierusalem at the Passouer in the feast, many beleued in his Name, when they sawe his miracles which he did.

24 But Iesus did not commit himselfe vnto them, because he knewe them all.

25 And had no neede that any should testifie of man: for he knewe what was in man.

5 Jesus answered, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except that a man bee borne of water and of the Spirit, he can not enter into the kingdom of God.

10 Jesus answered, and saide vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, wee speake that we knowe, and testifie that we haue seene: but ye receiue not our testimelie.

12 If when I tell you earthly things, ye beleue not, howe should ye beleue, if I shall tell you of heavenly things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in heauen.

14 And as Moyses lift vp the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Sonne of man be lifted vp.

15 That whoeuer beleueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternal life.

16 For God so loued the world, that he hath giuen his onely begotten Sonne, that whosoever beleueth in him, should not perish, but haue euermlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Sonne into the world, that hee should condemne the worlde, but that the worlde through him might be saued.

18 We that beleueth in him, shall not be condemned: but he that beleue h not, is condemned already, because he beleueth not in the Name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the worlde, and men loued darkness rather than light, because their deedes were euill.

20 For euery man that euill doeth, hateth the light, neither cometh to light, lest his deedes should be reposed.

21 But he that doeth truth, cometh to the light, that his deedes might bee made manifest, that they are wrought by the accompanie of the wicked condemning them.

22 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the lande of Iudaea, and there taried with them, and baptizeth.

23 And John also baptizeth in Enon, besides Salim, because there was much water there: & they came, and were baptizeth.

24 For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question betweene Johns disciples and the Iewes, about a purifying.

26 And they came vnto John and sayd vnto him, Rabbi, hee that was with thee beyonde Iordan, to whome thou barest witness, beholde, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered, and sayd, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giuen him from heauen.

28 Ye your selues are my witnesses, that I sayde, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride, is the bridegrome: but the friends of the bridegrome which standeth and heareth him, reioyeth greatly, because of the bridegromes voyce. This my toke therefore is fulfilled.

30 Ye must increate, but I must decrease.

31 He that is come from on high, is above all: he that is of the earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: he that is come from heauen, is above all.

32 And what he hath seene & heard, that he testifieth: but no man receiveth his testimonie.

33 Yet that hath receiued his testimonie, hath sealed that God is true.

34 For hee whome God hath sent, speaketh the wordes of God: for God giueth him not the Spirit by measure.

35 The Father loueth the Sonne, and hath giuen all things into his hand.

36 He that beleueth in the Sonne, hath euermlasting life, and he that obeyeth not the Sonne, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him. Chap. 3. 19.

11 The woman said vnto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to drinke with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gaue vs the well, and he him selfe dranke thereof, and his children, and his cattel?

15 The woman said vnto him, Sir, giue mee of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to drinke.

16 Iesus saide vnto her, Goe, call thine husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and sayde, I haue no husband. Iesus sayde vnto her, Thou hast well said, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had five husbands, and hee whom thou nowest hast, is not thine husband: that laidest thou truly.

19 The woman saide vnto him, Sir, I see that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and ye say, that in Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, beleene me, the houre cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountaine, nor at Ierusalem, worship the father.

22 Ye worship that which yee knowe not: we worship that which we knowe: for saluation is of the Iewes.

23 But the houre cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the father in spirit, and truely: for the father requirerth euen such to worship him.

24 God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in Spirit, and truely.

25 The woman said vnto him, I know well that Ihesus shall come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell vs all things.

26 Iesus sayd vnto her, I am hee, that speake vnto thee.

27 And vpon that came his disciples, and maruelled that hee talked with a woman: yet no man said vnto him, What askest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the cite, and sayd to the men, 29 Come, see a man which hath told me all things that euer I did: is not hee the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the cite, and came vnto him.

31 In the meane while, the disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eate.

32 But he sayd vnto them, I haue meate to eat, that ye know not of.

33 Then said y disciples betwene themselves, Hath any man brought him meate?

34 Iesus sayde vnto them, My meate is that I may doe the will of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

37 For heerein is the saying true, that one soweth and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reape that, whereon yee bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 Nowe many of the Samaritanes of that cite beleued in him, for the saying of the woman which testified, We haue to beleue all things that euer I did.

40 Then when the Samaritanes were come vnto him, they besought him, that hee would tary with them: and hee abode there two dayes.

41 And many more beleued because of his owne worde.

42 And they sayde vnto the woman, Nowe wee beleuee, not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selves, and knowe that this is in dede the Christ the Saviour of the world.

43 So two dayes after, hee departed thence, and went into Galile.

44 For Iesus himselfe had testified that a Prophet hath none honour in his owne countrey.

45 Then when he was come into Galile, the Galileans receiued him, which had seene all the things that hee did at Ierusalem at the feast: for they went also vnto the feast.

taine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certaine man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirtie yeeres.

6 When Iesus sawe him lie, and knewe that hee now long time had bene diseased, hee sayde vnto him, Wilt thou bee made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir,
I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put mee into the poole: but while I am comming, another steppeth downe before me.

8 Iesus sayde vnto him, Rise: & take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and tooke vp his bed, and walked:
and the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Jewes therefore saide to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath dayes
* it is not lawfull for thee to cary thy bed.

11 Hee answered them, He that made me whole, hee sayde vnto me, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which sayde vnto thee, take vp thy bed,
and walke?

13 And he that was healed, knewe not who it was: for Iesus had conveyed himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus found him in the Temple, and sayd vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: & sinne no more, least a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 The man departed, and tolde the Jewes that it was Iesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Jewes did persecute Iesus, and sought to slay him, because hee had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered them, My father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Jewes sought the more to kill him: not onely because hee had broken the Sabbath, but saide also that God was his Father, and made himselfe equall with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, and sayd vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can doe nothing of himselfe, save that hee seeth the Father doe: for whatsoe-uer things he doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, and sheweth him all things, whatsoeuer he himselfe doeth, and hee will shewe him greater workes then these, that yee should maruaile.

21 For likewise as the Father rayseth by the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all iudgement vnto the Sonne,

23 Because that all men should honour the Sonne, as they honour the Father: he that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoureth not the Father, which hath sent him.

24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, hee that heareth my word, and beleueth in him that sent me, hath euerlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.

25 Verely, verely I say vnto you, the houre shall come, and now is, when the dead shall heare the voyce of the Sonne of God: and they that heare it, shall liue.

26 For as the Father hath life in himselfe, so likewise hath he giuen to the Sonne to haue life in himselfe.

27 And hath giuen him power also to execute iudgement, in that hee is the Sonne of man.

28 Maruaile not at this: for the houre shall come in the which all that are in the graves, shall heare his voyce.

29 And they shall come forth, * that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of life: but they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of condemnation.

30 I can doe nothing of mine owne selfe: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudge-ment is iust, because I seeke not mine owne will, but the will of the Father who hath sent me.

31 If I should beare witness of my selfe, my witness were not true.

32 There is another that beareth wit-nesse of mee, and I knowe that the witness, which he beareth of me, is true.

33 * Hee sent vnto Iohn, and hee bare witness vnto the truth.

34 But I requeire not the recorde of ye might be faued.

CHAP. VI.

10 Iesus feedeth fife thousand men with fife loaves and two fishes. 15 He departeth away, that they should not make him king. 26 Heresprooeth the fleshly hearers of his word. 41 The carnall are offended at him. 63 The flesh profiteth not.

AFTER these things, Iesus went his way ouer the sea of Galilee, or of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they sawe his miracles, which hee did on them that were diseased.

3 Then Iesus went by into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 Nowe the Passouer, a feast of the Jewes, was neere.

5 Then Iesus lift by his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude came vnto him, he sayde vnto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these might eate?

6 (And this he said to proue him: for he himselfe knewe what he would doe)

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred penworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that euery one of them may take a little.

8 Then saide vnto him one of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother,

9 There is a little boy here, which hath fife barley loaves, and two fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Iesus sayde, Make the people sit downe. (Nowe there was much grasse in that place.) Then the men sat downe in number, about fife thousand.

11 And Iesus tooke the bread, and gaue thanks, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe: and likewise of fishes as much as they would.

12 And when they were satisfied, he sayd vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate which remaineth, that nothing be lost.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue bal kets with the broken meate of the fife barley loaves, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had seene the miracle that Iesus did, sayd, This is of a truer the Propheet that should come into the world.

15 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they would come, and take him to make him a King, he departed againe into a mountain himselfe alone.

16 When euen was nowe come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea,

17 And entred into a shippe, and went ouer the sea towards Capernaum: and nowe it was darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose with a great winde that blew.

19 And when they had rowed about fife and thertie, or thertie furlongs, they sawe Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing neere vnto the ship: so they were afraid.

20 But he sayd vnto them, It is I: be not afraid.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship, and the ship was by and by at the land, whither they went.

22 The day following, people which stood on the other side of the sea, saue that there was none other ship there, saue that one, whereinto his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone alone,

23 And that there came other ships from Tiberias neere vnto the place where they are bread, after Lord had giuen thanks, 24 Nowe when the people sawe that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they sayd vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Iesus answered them, and sayd, Verely, verely I say vnto you, ye seeke me not, because ye sawe the miracles, but because yee ate of the loaves, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meate which perissheth, but for the meate that endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the sonne of man shall giue vnto you: for hun hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they vnto him, What shall we doe, that we might worke the workes of God?

29 Iesus answered, and said vnto them, This is the worke of God, that ye beleue in him, whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore vnto him, What signe shewest thou then, that we may fele it, and beleue thee? What dost thou worke?

desert, as it is * written, We gaue the bread from heauen to eate.

32 Then Iesus sayd vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, * Wholes gaue you not bread from heauen, but my father giueth you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God is hee which commeth downe from heauen, and giueth life vnto the world.

34 Then they said vnto him, Lord, euermore giue vs this bread.

35 And Iesus sayd vnto them, I am the bread of life: hee that commeth to me, shall not hunger, and * hee that beleueth in mee, shall * neuer thirst.

36 But I sayd vnto you, that yee also haue seene me, and beleuee not.

37 All that the father giueth mee, shall come to me: and him that commeth to me,
I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to doe mine owne will, but his will which hath sent me.

39 And this is the fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which hee hath gi-uen me, I should lose nothing, but should raile it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that euery man which seeth the Sonne, and beleueth in him, should haue eueralasting life: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because hee sayde, I am the bread, which is come downe from heauen.

42 And they sayde, * Is not this Iesus the sonne of Ioseph, whose father and mother we knowe? how then saith hee, I came downe from heauen?

43 Iesus then answered, and sayd vnto them, Murmure not among your selues.

44 No man can * come to me, except the father which hath sent mee, * drawe him:
and I will raise him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in the * Prophets, And they shall be all caught of God. Euery man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the father, commeth vnto me,

46 * Not that any man hath seene the father, saue hee which is of God, hee hath seene the father.

47 Verely, verely I say vnto you, Hee
that beleueth in me, hath eueralasting life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 * Your fathers did eate Manna in the wilderness, & are dead.

50 This is the bread, which commeth downe from heauen, that he which eateth of it, should not die.

51 I am the * liuing bread, which came downe from heauen: if any man eate of this bread, hee shall liue for euer: and the bread that I will giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

52 Then the Iewes strone among themselues, saying, Howe can this man giue vs his flesh to eate?

53 Then Iesus sayd vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Except yee eate the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue * no life in you,

54 * Whosoener * eateth my flesh, & drinketh my blood, hath eternall life, and I will raile him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meate in deede, and my blood is drinke in deede.

56 Hee * that eateth my flesh, & drinketh my blood, * dwelleth in mee, and I in him.

57 As the liuing father hath sent me, so liue I by the father, and he that eateth me, euen he shall liue by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe from heauen: not as your fathers haue eaten Manna, and are dead. Ye that eateth of this bread, shall liue for euer.

59 These things spake hee in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples (when they heard this) sayde, This is an hard saying, who can * heare it?

61 But Iesus knowing in himselfe, that his disciples murmured at this, sayde vnto them, Doeth this offend you?

62 What then if ye should see the Sonne of man * ascend vp * where hee was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh * profiteth nothing: the wordes that I spake vnto you, are spirit and life.

64 But there are some of you that beleuee not: for Iesus knewe from the beginning, which they were that beleueed not,
and who should betray him.

65 And he sayde, Therefore sayd I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto him of my father.

66 From that time, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then sayd Iesus to the twelve, Will ye also goe away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master, to whome shall we goe? Thou hast the wordes of * eternall life:

69 And we beleue, and know that thou art * the Christ, the sonne of the liuing God.

70 Iesus answered them, * Haue not I * chosen you twelue, and * one of you is a deuill?

71 Nowe he spake it of Iudas Iscariot the sonne of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, though he was one of the twelve.

for the Iewes sought to kill him.

2 Nowe the Iewes * feast of the Tabervacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore sayd vnto him,

7 The world can not hate you: but me it hateth, because I testifie of it, that the worke thereof are euill.

8 Soe ye vp vnto this feast: I will not goe vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 These things he said vnto them, and abode still in Galile.

10 But as soon as his brethren were gone vp, then went he also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuily.

11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, and sayd, Where is he?

12 And much murmuring was there of him among the people. Some sayd, He is a good man: other sayd, Nay: but hee deceiuethe the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the Iewes.

14 Now when hall the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple & taught.

15 And the Iewes marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man the Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned?

16 Iesus answered them, and sayd, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will doe his will, he shall knowe of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.

18 He that speaketh of himselfe, seeketh his owne glory: but he that seeketh his glorie that sent him, the same is true, and no s brighteoulnesse is in him.

19 Did not Moses giue you a Law, and yet none of you keepeth the Law? Why goe ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered, and sayd, Thou hast a deuill: who goest about to kill thee?

21 Iesus answered, and sayde to them, I haue done one worke, and yet all marvelle.

22 Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers) and ye on the Sabbath day circumsise a man.

23 If a man on the Sabbath receiue circumcision, that the Lawe of Moses shoulde not be broken, be ye angry with me, because I haue made a man euery whit whole on the Sabbath day?

24 Judge not according to the appearance, but iudge righteous iudgement.

25 Then layd some of them of Ierusalem, Is not this he, whome they goe about to kill?

26 And beholde, hee speaketh openly, and they lay nothing to him: doe the rulers knowe in dedde that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no man shall know whence he is.

28 Then cryed Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Ye both knowe mee, k He speaketh and knowe whence I am: yet am I not this, as it were come of my selfe, but hee that sent mee, is scornefully, true, whom ye know not.

29 But I knowe him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they thought to take him, but no man layde his handes on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Nowe many of the people beleueed in him, and sayde, When the Christ cometh, will he doe moe miracles then this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharisees and his Disciples sent officers to take him.

33 Then sayd Iesus vnto them, Yet am I a lile while with you, and then goe I vnto him that sent me.

34 Ye shall seeke me, and shall not finde me, and where I am, can ye not come.

35 Then layde the Iewes among themselves, Whether will hee goe, that we shall not finde him? Will hee goe vnto them that are dispersed among the Grecians, and teach the Grecians?

36 What saying is this that he sayde, Ye shall seeke mee, and shall not finde mee: and where I am, can ye not come?

37 Now in the last and great day of the feast, Iesus stood and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto mee, and drinke.

38 He that beleueth in mee, as sayeth the Scripture, out of his belly shall flowe riuers of water of life.

39 (This spake he of the Spirit which they that beleueed in him, shoulde receiue: for the Holy Ghost was not yet giuen, because that Iesus was not yet glorified.)

40 So many of the people, when they heard this saying, sayde, If a truely this is the Prophet.

41 Other said, This is the Christ: a some sayd, But shall Christ come out of Galile?

42 Saith not the Scripture that the Christ shall come of the seede of Dauid, and out of the towne of Beth-lehem, where Dauid was?

43 So was there dissension among the people for him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man layde hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the high Priests and Pharisees, and they layd vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Fewer man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceiued?

48 Doeth any of the rulers, or of the Pharisees beleue in him?

49 But this people, which knowe not the Law, are curled.

50 Nicodemus sayde vnto them, Wee that came to Iesus by night, and was one of them?

CHAP. VIII.

11 Christ deliuereth her that was taken in adultery, 12 He is the light of the world, 14 He sheweth from whence he is come, wherefore, & whither he goeth, 32 Who are free and who are bond, 34 Of free men and slaves, and their reward, 46 Hee defeth his enemies, 59 And being persecuted, withdraweth himselfe.

And Iesus went vnto the mount of Olives,

2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, & all the people came vnto him, and he fate doune, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes and the Pharisees brought vnto him a woman taken in adultery, and set her in the middes,

4 And laide vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moses in the Law commanded vs, that such should be stoned: what sayest thou therefore?

6 And this they sayde to tempt him, that they might haue whercof to accuse him. But Iesus stouped doune, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

7 And while they continued asking him, he left himselfe vp, and laide vnto them, Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe hee stouped doune, and wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the middes.

10 When Iesus had left vp himselfe againe, and saue no man, but the woman, hee sayd vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She sayd, No man, Lord. And Iesus sayde, Neither doe I condemne thee: goe and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I am the light of the world: hee that followeth me, shall not walke in darkness, but shall haue the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore sayde vnto him, Thou bearest record of thy selfe: thy record is not true.

14 Iesus answered, and laide vnto them, Though I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go: but ye cannot tel whence I come, and whither I goe.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh: I iudge no man.

16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father, that sent me.

17 And it is also written in your Lawe, * that the testimonie of two men is true.

18 I am one that beare witness of my selfe, and the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me.

19 Then laide they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Ye neither know mee, nor my Father. If ye had known mee, ye should haue known my Father also.

20 These wordes spake Iesus in the treasure, as he taught in the Temple, and no man laide handes on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then sayde Iesus againe vnto them, I goe my way, and ye shall seeke mee, and shall die in your sinnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22 Then sayde the Jewes, Will hee kill himselfe, because hee saith, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23 And he laide vnto them, I beare from beneath: I am from above: ye are of this world: I am not of this world.

24 I sayde therefore vnto you, That ye shall die in your sinnes: for except ye beleue, that I am hee, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then sayde they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus layde vnto them, I tell the same thing that I layde vnto you: From the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent mee, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those I speake I to the world.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then layde Iesus vnto them, When ye haue lift vp the Sonne of man, then shall ye knowe that I am hee, and that I do nothing of my selfe, but as my Father hath taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For he that sent mee is with mee: the Father hath not left mee alone, because I doe alwayes those things that please him.

30 As he spake these things, many beleued in him.

31 Then laide Iesus to the Jewes which beleued in him, It yet continue in my word, ye are verely my disciples.

32 And shall knowe the trueth, and the trueth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, We be Abrahams seede, and were neuer bond to any man: why sayest thou then, We shall be made free?

34 Iesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that whosoever committeth sinne, is the seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the house for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If the sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free in deede.

37 I knowe that ye are Abrahams seede, but ye seeke to kill mee, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue seene with my Father: and ye doe that which ye haue seene with your father.

39 They answered, and laide vnto him, Abraham is our father. Iesus sayde vnto them, 40 But now ye goe about to kill me, a man that hath tolde you the trueth, which I haue heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Yee doe the workes of your father. Then sayde they to him, We are not borne of fornication: wee haue one father, which is God.

42 Therefore Iesus sayde vnto them, If God were your Father, then woulde yee loue me: for I proceeded forth, and came from God, neither came I of my selfe, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not vnderstand my talke? because ye cannot heare my word.

44 Ye are of your father the deuil, and the lusts of your father ye will doe: he hath bene a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the trueth, because there is no trueth in him. When he speaketh a lie, then speaketh hee of his owne: for hee is a liar, and the father thereof.

53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham, which is dead? and the Prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy selfe?

54 Iesus answered, If I honour my selfe, mine honour is nothing worth: it is my father that honoureth me, whom ye say, that he is your God.

55 Per ye haue not known him: but I knowe him, and if I shoulde say I knowe him not, I shoulde bee a liar like vnto you: but I know him, and keepe his word.

39 To what

As Iesus passed by, he sawe a man which was blinde from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man, or his parents, that he was borne blinde?

3 Iesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents, but that the workes of God should be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the workes of him that sent me, while it is day: the night commeth, when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 As soone as hee had thus spoken, hee spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anoynted the eyes of the blinde with the clay.

7 And sayde vnto him, Goe wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore and washed, and came againe seeing.

8 Nowe the neighbours and they that had seene him before, when hee was blinde, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some sayde, This is hee: and others sayd, He is like him: but he himselfe sayd, I am he.

10 Therefore they sayde vnto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, and said, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, and anoynted mine eyes, and sayde vnto mee, Goe to the poole of Siloam, and wash. So I went and washed, and receiued sight.

12 Then they sayde vnto him, Where is he? He said, I cannot tell.

13 They brought to the Pharisees him that was once blinde.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the claye, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharisees also asked him, howe hee had receiued sight. And hee sayde vnto them, Hee layde clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Then sayde some of the Pharisees, This mans is not of God, because he keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others sayde, Howe can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? and there was a dissension among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What sayest thou of him, because hee hath opened thine eyes? And he sayde, Hee is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleeue him (that hee had bene blinde, and receiued his sight) untill they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whom ye say was borne blinde? How doeth he now see them?

20 His parents answered them, and said, We knowe that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what means he nowe seeth, wee knowe not: or who hath opened his eyes, we can wee not tell: hee is olde enough, aske him: hee shall answer for himselfe.

e They durst not speake the trueth for feare they should be ex-cause they feared the Jewes: for the Jewes had ordained already, that if any man did confesse that hee was the Christ, hee should be excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore sayd his parents, He is old ynough: alke him.

24 Then againe called they the mā that had bene blinde, and sayde vnto him, One glopy vnto God: wee knowe that this man is a sinner.

25 Then he answered & sayde, Whether hee be a sinner or no, I can not tell: one thing I know, that I was blinde, and now I see.

26 ^b The sayd they to him againe, What did hee to thee? howe opened hee thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I haue tolde you already, and ye haue not heard it: wherefore would ye heare it againe? Will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then checked they him, and sayd, We thou his disciple: wee be Moses disciples.

29 We know that God spake with Moses: but this man wee knowe not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and sayde vnto them, Doubtes this is a maruellous thing, that ye know not whence hee is, and yet he hath opened myne eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him heareth hee.

32 Since the world beganne was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde.

33 If this man were not of God, hee could haue done nothing.

34 They answered and sayde vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinnes, and dost thou teach vs? so they cast him out.

35 Iesus heard that they had cast him out: and when hee had found him, hee sayde vnto him, dost thou beleue in the Sonne of God?

36 He answered, and sayde, Who is hee, Lord, that I might beleue in him?

37 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Both thou hast seene him, and he it is that talketh with thee.

38 Then he sayd, Lord, I beleue, and ^m worshipped him.

39 And Iesus sayde, I am come vnto iudgement into this worlde, that they which see not, might see: and that they which see, might be made blinde.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him, heard these things, and sayd vnto him, Are we blinde also?

41 Iesus sayde vnto them, If ye were blinde, ye should not haue sinne: but now ye say, wee see: therefore your sinne remaineth.

11 Christ is the true shepheard, and she doore.
19 Diuers opinions of Christ. 24 Hee is asked, if he be Christ. 32 His works declare that hee is God. 34 The Princes called gods.

Verely, verely I say vnto you, He that entereth not in by the doore into the sheepefolde, but climeth by another way, hee is a thiefe, and a robber.

2 But hee that goeth in by the doore, is the shepheard of the sheepe.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheepe heare his voyce, and he calleth his owne sheepe by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he hath sent forth his owne sheepe, he goeth before them, and the sheepe followe him: for they know his voyce.

5 And they wil not follow a stranger, but they flee from him: for they knowe not the voyce of strangers.

6 This parable spake Iesus vnto them: but they vnderstoode not what things they were which he spake vnto them.

7 Then sayde Iesus vnto them againe, Verely, verely I say vnto you, I am the doore of the sheepe, 8 All that euer came before mee, are theues and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.

9 I am the doore: by mee if any man enter in, hee shal be laued, and shal goe in and goe out, and finde pasture.

10 The thiefe cometh not, but for to steale, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might haue life, and haue it in abundance.

11 I am the good shepheard: the good shepheard giueth his life for his sheepe.

12 But an hireling, and hee which is not the shepheard, neither the sheepe are his owne, seeth the wolfe coming, and hee leaueh the sheepe, and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and scattereth the sheepe.

13 So the hireling fleeth, becaue he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheepe.

14 I am the good shepheard, and know mine, and am known of mine.

15 As the father knoweth me, so know I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my sheepe.

16 Other sheepe I haue also, which are not of this fold: them also must I bring, and they shall heare my voyce: and there shall be one sheepefold, and one shepheard.

17 Therefore doeth my Father loue me, becaue I lay downe my life, that I might take it againe.

18 No man taketh it from mee, but I lay it downe of my selfe: I haue power to lay it downe, and haue power to take it againe: this commandement haue I receiued of my Father.

19 Then there was a dissension againe among the Jewes for these sayings.

20 And many of them sayd, We hath a deuil, and is mad: why heare ye him?

21 Other sayd, These are not the wordes of him that hath a deuil: can the deuil open the eyes of the blinde?

And a certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the town of Marie, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that * Marie which anoynted the Lord with oymment, and wiped his feete with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whome thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard it, he sayde, This sicknesse is not vnto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 ¶ Now Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after hee had heard that hee was sicke, yet abode he two daies still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, said hee to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iudaea againe.

8 The disciples sayd vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to stone thee, and dost thou go thither againe?

9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the day: if a man walke in the day, he stumbleth not, because hee seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walke in the night, hee stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, & after he laid vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleeperth: but I goe to wake him vp.

12 Then sayde his disciples, Lord, if hee sleepe, he ° shall be safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the naturall sleepe.

35 And Iesus wept.

36 Then layd the Iewes, Beholde, how he loued him.

37 And some of them sayde, Could not hee, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also that this man should not haue died?

38 Iesus therefore againe groined in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was layd vpon it.

39 Iesus sayd, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, layd vnto him, Lord, he stinketh already: for he hath bene dead foure dayes.

40 Iesus layd vnto her, Sayde I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleue, thou shouldst see the glory of God?

41 Then theyooke away the stone from the place where the dead was layde. And Iesus lift up his eyes, and sayde, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I knowe that thou hearest mee alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I sayd it, that they may beleue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As hee had spoken these things, hee cryed with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bound hand and foote with bandes, and his face was bound with a napkin. Iesus layd vnto them, Loole him, and let him goe.

45 Then many of the Iewes which came to Marie, and had seene the things, which Iesus did, beleued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharisees, and tolde them what things Iesus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Priestes, and the Pharisees a counsell, and sayde, What shall wee doe? For this man doeth many miracles.

48 If wee let him thus alone, all men will beleue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.

49 Then one of them named Calaphas, which was the hie Priest, that same yere, layd vnto them, Perceiue nothing at all,

50 For yet doe you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 This spake hee not of himselfe: but being hie Priest that same yere, he prophesied that Iesus should die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation only, but that hee should gather together in one the children of God, which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together, to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a countrey neere to the wilderness, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 And the Iewes Passequer was at hand, and many went out of the countrey vnto Ierusalem before the Passequer, to purifie themselves.

56 Then sought they for Iesus, & spake among themselves, as they stood in the Temple, What thinke ye, that he cometh not to the feast?

57 Nowe both the hie Priestes and the Pharisees had giuen a commandement, that if any man knewe where he were, hee should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAP. XII.

7 Christ excuseth Maries fact. 13 The affliction of some towards him, and the rage of others against him and Lazarus. 25 The commoditie of the crosse. 27 His prayer. 28 The answer of the Father. 32 His death, and the fruits thereof. 36 He exhorteth to faith. 40 The blindness of some, and the infirmities of others.

Then Iesus, five dayes before the Passequer, came to Berthania, where Lazarus was, which was dead, whome hee had raised from the dead. Math. 26.7. Marke 14.3.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that late at the table with him.

3 Then tooke Marie a pound of oynment of spikenard very costly, and anointed Iesus' feete, and wiped his feete with her haire, and the house was filled with the labour of the oynment.

4 Then sayde one of his disciples, euen Iudas Iscariot Simonis sonne, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this oynment solde for three hundred pence, and giuen to the poore?

6 Nowe hee sayd this, not that he cared for the poore, but because hee was a thiefe, and had the bagge, and bare that which was giuen. b Reade Marke 14.5.

7 Then said Iesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying he kept it. Chap. 13.29.

8 For the poore alwayes ye haue with you, but me ye shall not haue alwayes.

9 Then much people of the Iewes knewe that he was there: and they came, not for Iesus sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom hee had raised from the dead.

10 The hie Priestes therefore consulted, that they might put Lazarus to death also.

11 Because that for his sake many of the Iewes went away, and beleued in Iesus.

14 And Iesus found a yong asse, and sate thereon, as it is written,

15 * Feare not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh sitting on an asses colt.

16 But his disciples understood not these things at the first: but when Iesus was glorified, then remembered they, that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things vnto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him, bare witness that hee called Lazarus out of the graue, and raised him from the dead.

18 Therefore met him the people also, because they heard that hee had done this miracle.

19 And the Pharises sayd among themselves, Deceiue yee howe ye pnuale nothing: Beholde, they woulde goeth after him.

20 ¶ Now there were certaine * Greekes among them that came vp to worship at the feast.

21 And they came to Philip, which was of Berhaida in Galile, and desired him, saying, Sir, we woulde see Iesus.

22 Philip came and tolde Andrew: and againe Andrew and Philip tolde Iesus.

23 And Iesus answered them, saying, The houre is come, that the Sonne of man must be glorified.

24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, except the wheate come fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruite.

25 * He that loueth his life, shall lose it, and hee that hateth his life in this world, shall keepe it vnto life eternall.

26 * If any man serue me, let him follow me: for where I am, there shall also my seruant be: and if any man serue me, him will my Father honour.

27 Nowe is my soule troubled: and what shall I say? Father, saue me from this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre.

28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I both haue glorified it, and will glorifie it againe.

29 Then sayd the people that stood by and heard, that it was a thunder: others sayd, An Angel spake to him.

30 Iesus answered, and sayde, This voyce came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the iudgement of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 * And * I, if I were left vp from the earth, will draw all men vnto me.

33 Now this sayd hee, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We haue heard out of the * Lawe, that the Christ biueth for euer: and how sayest thou, that the Sonne of man must bee lift vp? who is that Sonne of man?

35 Then Iesus sayde vnto them, Yet a litle while is * the light with you: walke while ye haue light, lest the darkenesse come vpon you: for he that walketh in the darke, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye haue light, beleue in the light, that ye may be y children of the light. These things spake Iesus, and departed, and hid himselfe from them.

37 ¶ And though hee had done so many miracles before them, yet beleueed they not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the Prophet might be fulfilled, that he sayd, * Lord, who beleueed our report? and to whom is the * arme of the Lord reuelled? Isa. 53. 1. rom. 10. 16.

39 Therefore could they not beleue, because that Esaias sayth againe, 40 * He hath blinded their eyes, & hardened their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and should be conuerted, and I should * heale them.

41 These things sayd Esaias when hee saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 Neuertheless euen among the chiefe rulers many beleueed in him: but because of the Pharises, they did not confesse him, lest they should be cast out of the Synagogue.

43 * For they loued the * praye of men, more then the praye of God.

44 And Iesus cried, and sayd, Hee that beleueth in me, beleueth not in me, but in him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 I * am come a light into the world, Chap. 3. 19, and 9. 39.

47 * And if any man heare my wordes, and beleue not, I iudge him not: for I came not to iudge the world, but to saue the world. Chap. 3. 17.

5 Christ walketh the disciples feete, 14 Exhorting them to humilitie & charitie, 21 Telleth them of Iudas the traitour, 34 And commandeth them earnestly to loue one another. 38 Hee forewarneth of Peters deniall.

Now * before the feast of the Passouer, Mat. 26. 2. marke 14. 1. luke 22. 1.

When Iesus knewe that his houre was come, that hee should depart out of this world vnto the Father, for as much as hee loued his owne which were in the world, a Because hee sawe the danger great which was toward them, therefore hee tooke the greater care for them.

b Which was the eating of the Pasche.

2 And when supper was done, (and that the deuill had now put in the heart of Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne, to betray him)

3 Iesus knowing that the Father had gi-uen all things into his hands, and that hee was come from God, and went to God,

4 He riseth from supper, and layeth aside his vpper garments, and tooke a towell, and girded himselfe.

5 After that, hee poured water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples feete, and to wipe them with the towell, wherewith he was girded.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, dost thou wash my feete?

7 Iesus answered and sayde vnto him,
What I doe thou knowest not now: but thou shalt knowe it hereafter.

8 Peter sayde vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feete. Iesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with me.

9 Simon Peter sayde vnto him, Lord, not my feete onely, but also the hands, and the head.

10 Iesus sayde to him, Hee that is washed, needeth not, saue to ^d wash his feete, but is cleane euery whit: and ye are ^e cleane, but not all.

11 For he knewe who should betray him:
therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 (So after he had washed their feete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he sayde vnto them, Knowe ye what I haue done to you?)

13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and ye say well: for so am I.

14 If I then your Lord, and Master, haue washed your feete, yee also ought to wash ^e one anothers feete.

15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye should doe, euen as I haue done to you.

16 Verely, verely I say vnto you, ^f The seruant is not greater than his master, neither the ambassadour greater then hee that sent him.

17 If ye knowe these things, blessed are ye if ye doe them.

18 (I speake not of you all: I knowe whome I haue choien: but it is that the Scripture might be fulfilled, *He that eat-eth bread with me, shall lift up his heele against me.)

19 From henceforth tell I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, yee might beleeue that I am he.

20 * Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send any, hee that receiueth him, receiueth me, and he that receiueth me, receiueth him that sent me.

21 When Iesus had said these things, he was ^g troubled in the spirit, and i testified, and sayde, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 * Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whome he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, which leaned on Iesus ^h bolome, whome Iesus loued.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, that hee should aske who it was of whome he spake.

25 We then, as he leaned on Iesus brest, sayd vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Iesus answered, He it is, to whome I shal giue a soppe, to he I haue dipped it: and he wera soppe, and gaue it to Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the soppe, ⁱ Satan entred into him. Then said Iesus vnto him, That thou doest, doe quickly.

28 But none of them that were at table, knewe for what cause hee spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thought because Iudas had the bagge, that Iesus had sayd vnto him, Buy those things which we haue neede of against the feast: or that hee should giue some thing to the poore.

30 Aloue then as hee had receiued the soppe, he went immediately out, and it was night.

31 When he was gone out, Iesus sayd, ^m Nowe is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himselfe, & shal straightway glorifie him.

33 Little children, yet a little while am I with you: yee shall seeke me, but as I sayd vnto the * Iewes, Whither I goe, can ye not come: also to you say I now,

34 * A new commandement giue I vnto you, that ye loue one another: as I haue loued you, that ye also loue one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if yee haue loue one to another.

36 Simon Peter sayd vnto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Iesus answered him, Whither I goe, thou canst not follow mee now: but thou shalt follow me afterward.

37 Peter sayd vnto him, Lord, why can I not follow thee now? I will lay downe my life for thy sake.

38 Iesus answered him, Wilt thou lay downe thy life for my sake? Verely, verely
I say vnto thee, The cocke shall not crowe, till thou haue denied me thrise.

and keepeth them, is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, shall be loued of my Fa-

22 Iudas sayd vnto him (not of Iscariot) Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shewe thy selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the worlde?

23 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him,
If any man loue mee, hee will keepe my worde, and my Father will loue him, and wee will come vnto him, and will dwell

24 He that loueth me not, keepeth not

Christ & his members vnder the parable of the vine.

18 Of their common afflictions and persecutions.

26 The office of the holy Ghost, and the Apostles.

I Am the true vine, and my Father is an husbandman.

2 Every branch that beareth not fruite in me, hee taketh away: and euery one that beareth fruite, hee purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruite.

3 * Nowe are ye cleane through the worde, which I haue spoken vnto you.

4 Abide in mee, and I in you: as the branch cannot beare fruite of it selfe, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye: except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine: ye are the branches: hee that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruite: for without mee can ye doe nothing.

6 If a man abide not in mee, hee is cast forth as a branch, and withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in me, and my wordes abide in you, aske what ye will, and it shall be done to you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare much fruite, and he made my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loued me, so haue
I loued you: continue in my loue.

10 If ye shall keepe my commandements, ye shall abide in my loue, as I haue

11 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that my joy might remaine in you, and that your joy might be full.

chosen you, and ordeined you, * that yee goe and bring forth fruite, and that your fruite remaine, that whatsoeuer yee shall aske of the Father in my Name, hee may giue it you.

17 These things commaund I you, that ye loue one another.

18 If the world hate you, ye knowe that it hated me before you.

19 If ye were of the worlde, the worlde would loue his owne: but because yee are not of the worlde, but I haue chosen you out of the worlde, therefore the worlde hateth you.

20 Remember the worde that I sayde vnto you, * The seruant is not greater then his master. * If they haue persecuted mee, they will persecute you also: if they haue kept my worde, they will also keepe my words.

21 But all these things will they doe vnto you for my Names sake, because they haue not known him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken vnto them, they should not haue had sinne: but now haue they no cloke for their sinne.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done workes among them which none other man did, they had not had sinne: but now haue they both seene, and haue hated both me and my Father.

25 But it is that the worde might be fulfilled, that is written in their Law, * They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the comforter shall come, * whome I will send vnto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth of the Father, he shall testifie of me.

27 And ye shall witness also, because yee haue bene with me from the beginning.

C H A P. X V I.

2 He putteth them in remembrance of the crosse, and of their owne infirmities to come, 7 And therefore doeth comfort them with the promise of the holy Ghost. 16 Of the coming againe of Christ. 17 Of his ascension. 23 To aske in the Name of Christ. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

These things haue I sayd vnto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall excommunicate you: yea, the time shall come, that whosoener killeth you, will thinke that hee doeth God seruice.

3 And these things will they doe vnto you, because they haue not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things haue I tolde you, that when the houre shall come, yee might remember, that I tolde you them. And these things I sayde I not vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I goe my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, * Whither goest thou?

6 But because I haue sayd these things vnto you, your hearts are full of sorrow.

7 Yet I tell you the truth, it is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will send him vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sinne, and of righteousness, and of iudgement.

9 Of sinne, because they beleue not in mee:

10 Of righteousness, because I goe to my Father, and ye shall see me no more:

11 Of iudgement, because the prince of this world is iudged.

12 I haue yet many things to say vnto you, but ye cannot beare them now.

13 Howbeit, when hee is come which is the Spirit of truth, hee will leade you into all truth: for hee shall not speake of himselfe, but whatsoeuer he shall heare, shall he speake, and he will shew you the things I to come.

14 Hee shall glorifie mee: for he shall receiue of mine, and shall shewe it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore sayd I, that he shall take of mine, and shewe it vnto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and againe a little while, and ye shall see me: for I goe to my Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith vnto vs, A little while, and ye shall not see me, and againe, a little while, and ye shall see me, and for I goe to my Father?

18 They sayde therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? wee knowe not what he saith.

19 Nowe Iesus knew that they would aske him, and sayd vnto them, Doe yee enquire among your selues, of that I sayd, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and againe, a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily I say vnto you, that ye shall weepe and lament, and the worlde shall reioyce: and ye shall sorrowe, but your sorrowe shall be turned to ioy.

21 A woman when she travaileth, hath sorrowe, because her houre is come: but as soone as she is deliuered of the childe, she remembereth no more the anguish, for ioy that a man is borne into the worlde.

22 And ye now therefore are in sorrow: but I will see you againe, & your hearts shall reioyce, and your ioy shall be no man take from you.

23 And in that day shall ye aske me no thing. * Verily, verily I say vnto you, whatsoeuer yee shall aske the Father in my Name, he will giue it you.

24 Witherto haue ye alked? nothing in my Name: aske, and ye shall receiue, that your ioy may be full.

30 Nowe knowe wee that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should aske thee. By this we beleue, that thou art come out from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Doe you beleue now?

32 Beholde, the houre cometh, and is already come, that ye shalbe scattered euery man into his owne, and shal leaue me alone: but I am not alone; for the Father is with mee.

33 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that in mee ye might haue peace: in the world ye shall haue affliction, but be of good comfort: I haue overcome the world.

These things spake Iesus, and left vp his eyes to heauen, and sayde, Father, the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee.

2 As thou hast giuen him power ouer all flesh, that he should giue eternall life to all them that thou hast giuen him.

3 And this is life eternall, that they knowe thee to be the onely very God, and whome thou hast sent, Iesus Christ.

4 I haue glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to doe.

5 And nowe glorifie mee, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the world: & thine they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy word.

7 Now they know that all things whatsoever thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them thy words, which thou gauest me; and they haue receiued them: and haue knowne surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleueed that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keepe them in thy Name, euen them whome thou hast giuen me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy Name: those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the child of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things speake I in the world, that they might haue my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I haue giuen them thy worde, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepest them from euill.

16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctifie them with thy truth: thy worde is truth.

18 As thou diddest send mee into the world, so haue I sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may bee sanctified through the truth.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shal beleue in me, through their worde.

21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in me, and I in thee: euen that they may be also one in vs, that the world may beleue that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory that thou gauest me, I haue giuen them, that they may be one, as we are one.

23 I in them, and thou in mee, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may knowe that thou hast sent mee, and hast loued them, as thou hast loued me.

24 Father, I wil that they which thou hast giuen me, be with mee euen where I am, that they may beholde my glory, which thou hast giuen me: for thou lovedst mee before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world also hath not knownen thee, but I haue knownen thee, and these haue knownen, that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued mee, may be in them, and I in them.

b The which he had obtained of the gouernour of the temple.

3 * Judas then after hee had receiued a bande of men and officers of the high Priestes, and of the Pharisees, came thither with lanternes, and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Iesus, knowing all things that shoulde come vnto him, went forth and laid vnto them, Whom seeke ye?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret. Iesus said vnto them, I am he. Nowe Judas also which betrayed him, stooode with them.

6 Alsoone then as hee had sayde vnto them, I am he, they went backwards, and fell to the ground.

7 Then he asked them againe, Whome seeke ye? And they said, Iesus of Nazaret.

8 Iesus answered, I said vnto you, that I am he: therefore if ye seeke me, let these goe their way.

9 This was that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, * Of them which thou gauest mee, haue I lost none.

10 Then Simon I Peter hauing a sword, drew it, and smote the hie Priestes servant, and cut off his right eare. Nowe the seruants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put by thy sword into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath giuen me?

12 Then the bande and the capitaine, and the officers of the Iewes tooke Iesus, and bound him.

13 And led him away to * Annas first (for hee was farther in lawe to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest: that same yeere)

14 * And Caiaphas was hee, that gave counsell to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man shoulde die for the people.

15 * Nowe Simon I Peter followed Iesus, and another discipule, and that discipule was knowne of the hie Priest: therefore hee went in with Iesus into the hall of the hie Priest.

16 But Peter stooode at the doore without. Then went out y other discipule, which was knowne vnto the high Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, & brought in Peter.

17 Then sayd the maid that kept y doore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? he sayd, I am not.

18 And the seruants and officers stooode there, which had made a fire of coales: for it was colde, and they warmed themselves. And Peter also stooode among them, and warmed himselfe.

19 ¶ The high Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake openly to the worlde: I euer taught in the Synagogue and in the Temple, whither the Iewes resort continually, and in secret haue I sayd nothing.

21 Altho askest thou me? aske the which heard me what I sayd vnto them: behold, they knowe what I sayd.

22 When hee had spoken these thinges, one of the officers which stood by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the hie Priest?

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euill spoken, beare witness of the euill: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me?

24 ¶ Now Annas had sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest.

25 * And Simon I Peter stooode and warmed himselfe, and they sayde vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? he denied it, and sayd, I am not.

26 One of the seruants of the hie Priest, his cousin whose eare Peter smote off, sayde, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immedially the cocke crewe.

28 ¶ Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the common hall. Nowe it was morning, and they themselves went not into the common hall, lest they shoulde bee defiled, but that they might eate the Pasche.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and sayde, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and sayd vnto him, If he were nor an euill doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then sayde Pilate vnto them, Take ye him, and iudge him after your owne lawe. Then the Iewes sayd vnto him, It is not lawfull for vs to put any man to death.

32 It was that the * worde of Iesus might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he shoulde die.

33 * So Pilate entred into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, and said vnto him, Art thou the King of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Sayest thou that of thy selfe, or did other tel it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iewe? Thyne owne nation, and the high Priestes haue deliuered thee vnto mee. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this world: if my kingdome were of this world, my seruants would surely fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Iewes: But nowe is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then sayd vnto him, Art thou a King then? Iesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a King: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare witness vnto the truth: euerie one that is of the truth, heareth my voyce.

38 Pilate sayde vnto him, What is truth? And when he had sayd that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, and sayd vnto them, I finde in him no cause at all.

39 * But you haue a custome, that I should deliuer you one loofe at the Pasche: will ye then that I loose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

40 * Then cryed they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: nowe this Barabbas was a murderer.

2 And the souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

3 And sayde, Haile, King of the Iewes. And they smote him with their rodde.

4 Then Pilate went forth againe, and said vnto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may knowe, that I finde no fault in him at all.

5 Then came Iesus forth wearing a crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate sayde vnto them, b Beholde the man.

6 Then when the hie Priestes and officers sawe him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe hee ought to die, because hee made himselfe the c Sonne of God.

8 c When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afraid,

9 And went againe into the common hall, and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answer.

10 Then saide Pilate vnto him, Speake thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no d power at all against mee, except it were giuen thee from above: therefore hee that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

12 f From thenceforth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cried, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cæsars friende: for whosoener maketh himselfe a King, speakeeth against Cæsar.

13 g When Pilate heard that worde, he hought Iesus forth, and late downe in the iudgement seate in a place called the e Pauenment, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the Preparation of the Passouer, and about the sixth houre: and hee sayde vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

15 But they cryed, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate sayde vnto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The hie Priestes answered, We haue no King but Cæsar.

16 Then deliuered he him vnto them, to be crucified. * And they tooke Iesus, and led him away.

17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens skulles, which is called in Hebrew, a Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the middes.

19 i And Pilate wrote also a title, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was nere to the cite: and it was written in i Hebrew, Greeke, and Latine.

21 Then layde the hie Priestes of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, the King of the Iewes, but that he sayde, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 k When the souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garments, and made foure partes, to euery souldier a part, and his coate: and the coate was without seam, women from the toppe throught out.

24 Therefore they sayde one to another, Let vs not deuide it, but cast lottes for it, whose it shalbe. This was that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my garments among them, and on my coate did cast lottes. So the Souldiers did these things in deede.

25 l Then stood by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister, Marie the wife of i Cleopas, and Marie Magdalene.

26 And when Iesus sawe his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loued, he sayd vnto his mother, Woman, beholde thy soune.

27 Then sayd he to the disciple, Beholde thy mother: and from that houre, the disciple tooke her home vnto him.

28 m After, when Iesus knewe that all things were performed, that the n Scripture might be fulfilled, he sayd, I thirst.

29 And there was set a vessel full of vinegar, and k put it about i an hylope stalke, and put it to his mouth.

30 Nowe when Iesus had receiued of the vinegar, hee sayd, o It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue vp the Ghost.

31 The Iewes then (because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an hie day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the souldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and sawe that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the souldiers with a spear p Pearce his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And he that saue it, bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he sayth true, that ye might beleue it.

36 For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled, * Not a bone of him shalbe broken.

37 And againe another Scripture saith, They shall see him whome they haue crucified.

h Because all nations might vnderstand it.

38 * And after these things, Joseph of Armathea, (who was a discipule of Iesus, but secretly for feare of the Jewes) besought Pilate that hee might take downe odours, as the manner of the Jewes is to 41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden of the Jewes Preparation day, for the se-

CHAP. XX.

1 Marie Magdalene cometh to the sepulchre.
3 So do Peter and John. 12 The two Angels ap-peare. 17 Christ appeareth to Marie Magdalene.
19 And to all his disciples. 25 The incredulitie of Thomas. 28 His confession.

NOWE * the first day of the weeke came Marie Magdalene, early when it was yet darke, vnto the sepulchre, and sawe the stone taken away from the tombe.

2 Then she ranne, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other discipule, whom Ie-sus loved, and saide vnto them, They haue taken away the Lorde out of the sepulchre, and wee knowe not where they haue laide
him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and the other discipule, and they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together, but the other discipule did outrunne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooped downe, and sawe the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and sawe
the linnen clothes lie.

7 And the kerchiefe that was vpon his head, not lying with the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selfe.

8 Then went in also the other discipule, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw it, and beleueed:

9 For as yet they knelwe not the Scripture, that he must rise againe from the dead.

10 And the disciples went away againe vnto their owne home.

11 ¶ But Mary stoode without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she bowed her selfe into the sepulchre,

12 And sawe two Angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, & the other at the feete, where the body of Iesus had layen.

13 And they said vnto her, Woman, why weepst thou? She sayde vnto them, They haue taken away my Lorde, and I knowe not where they haue laide him.

14 When shee had thus said, she turned her selfe backe, and sawe Iesus standing, and knewe not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus sayth vnto her, Woman, why weepst thou? Whom seekest thou? Shee supposing that he had bene the gardiner, said vnto him, Sir, if thou hast bozne him hence, tell me where thou hast layde him, and I will take him away.

16 Iesus sayth vnto her, Marie. She turned her selfe, and said vnto him, Rabbi-oni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus sayth vnto her, Touch me not:
for I am not yet ascended to my Father,
but go to my brethren, and say vnto them,
I ascend vnto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that shee had seene the Lord, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 ¶ The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the doores were shut where the disciples were assembled for feare of the Jewes, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and said to them,
Peace be vnto you.

20 And when he had so sayd, he shewed vnto them his handes, and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they had sene the Lord.

21 Then sayde Iesus to them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent me,
so send I you.

22 And when he had said that, he brea-ked on them, and said vnto them, Receiue the holy Ghost.

23 Whosoever sinnes ye remit, they are remitted vnto them: and whosoever sinnes ye retaine, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelue, called Didymus, was not with them when Iesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said vnto him, We haue seene the Lord: but he sayd vnto them, Except I see in his handes the print of the nailes, and put my finger into the print of the nailes, and put mine hand into his side, I will not beleue it.

26 ¶ And eight dayes after againe his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iesus when the doores were shut, and stood in the midst, and sayd,
Peace be vnto you.

27 After, sayd he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see mine handes, & put forth thine hand, and put it into my side, and bee not faithlesse, but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and sayde vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iesus sayd vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene me, thou beleuest:
blessed are they that haue * not seene, and haue beleueed.

30 ¶ And many other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this booke.

31 But these things are written, that ye might beleue, that Iesus is the Christ

C H A P. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 15 He commaundeth Peter earnestly to feede his sheepe. 18 Hee sweareth him of his death. 25 Of Christs manifold miracles.

For, lake of Genesareth.

After these things, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the lake of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himselfe.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Dydymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saide vnto them, I go a fishing. They laide vnto him, Woe also wilt thou go with thee. They went their way, and entred into a shippe straightway, and that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stood on the shore: neuertheless the disciples knew not that it was Iesus.

For children.

5 Iesus the laide vnto them, Sirs, haue ye any meate? They answered him, No.

6 Then he laide vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the shippe, and yee shall finde. So they cast out, and they were not able at all to drawe it, for the multitude of fishes.

a Albeit they knewe him not, yet they followed because they had all night taken paines in vaine.

7 Therefore saide the disciple whom Iesus loued, vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his coat to him (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.

b It was some sinnen garment, which fishers vse to weare, which being trussed vnto him, couered his nether parts, and also letted not his swimming,

8 But the other disciples came by ship (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubites) and they drew the net with fishes.

9 As soone then as they were come to land, they sawe hote coales, and fish laide thereon, and bread.

10 Iesus laide vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which yee haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred, fiftie and three: and albeit they were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus laide vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the disciples durst aske him, What art thou, seeing they knewe that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himselfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 So when they had dined, Iesus saide to Simon Peter, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me more then these? He laide vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. Hee laide vnto him, Feede my lambs.

16 Hee laide to him againe the second time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou mee? Hee laide vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He laide vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

17 Hee laide vnto him the third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou mee? Peter was foy because hee laide to him the third time, Louest thou me: and laide vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus laide vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

18 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, What thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy selfe and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be olde, thou shalt stretch forth thine hands, and another shall gird thee, and leade thee whither thou wouldest not. 19 And this spake he, signifying by what death hee should glorifie God. And when he had sayde this, he laide to him, Followe me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which had also leane on his breast at supper, and had sayde, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 When Peter therefore saw him, he saide to Iesus, Lord, what shall this man doe?

22 Iesus laide vnto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is it to thee? followe thou me.

23 Then went this word abroad among the brethren, that this disciple should not die. Yet Iesus sayd not to him, He shall not die: but if I will that hee tarry till I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that disciple, which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we knowe that his testimony is true.

25 Nowe there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, I suppose the world could not containe the bookes that should be written, Amen.

c The Minister cannot wel teach his congregation, except hee loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in them that feede not the flocke. d Because Peter should be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ caused him by these three times confessing, to wipe away the shame of his three times denying. e In stead of a girdle, thou shalt be tied with bands and cordes: and whereas now thou goest at liberty, then thou shalt be drawn to punishment, when thy flesh shall after afore resist.

The Actes of the holy Apostles, written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGUMENT.

Christ, after his ascension, performed his promise to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby, that he was not only mindful of his Church, but would bee the heade and maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein also his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the worlde resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a few simple men of no reputation, replenished all the world with the sounde of his Gospel. And here, in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, wee may plainly perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppress and overthrow the Gospel: he raisech conspiracies, tumults, commotions, persecutions, slanders, and all kinde of crueltie. Again we shall here behold the providence of God, who overthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth and encourageth his most valiantly and constantly to follow their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this historie a perpetual memorie to the Church, that the crosse is to ioynd with the Gospel, that they are fellows inseparable, and that the ende of one affliction, is but the beginning of another. Yet neuertheless God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisonings and tentations of his, to a good issue, giuing them as it were, in forrow, ioy in bonds, freedom: in prison, deliuerance: in trouble, quietnesse: in death, life. Finally, this booke conteyneth many excellent sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ, The mercie of God. Of the grace, and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortallitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christes flocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall pointes of our faith: so that this onely historie in a manner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

CHAP. I.

7 The wordes of Christ and his Angels to the Apostles. 9 His ascension. 14 Whereto the Apostles are occupied till the holy Ghost be sent. 26 And of the election of Matthias.

Have we the former treatise, O Theophilus, of all that Iesus beganne to doe, and teach.

2 Untill the day, that hee was taken vp, after that hee through the holy Ghost, had giuen o commandements vnto the Apostles, whome he had chosen:

3 To whome also hee presented himselfe alue after that hee had suffered, by many infallible tokens, being seene of them by the space of fourety dayes, and speaking of those things which appertaine to the kingdome of God.

4 And when hee had gathered them together, hee commaunded them, that they should not depart from Ierusalem, but to waite for the promise of the father, * which said he, ye haue heard of me.

5 For Iohn in dede baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost within these fewe dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lorde, wilt thou at this time restore the kingdome to Israel?

7 And hee said vnto them, It is not for you to knowe the times, or the seasons, which the father hath put in his owne power,

8 But ye shall receive power of the holy Ghost, when hee shall come on you: and ye shall be witnesses vnto me both in Ierusalem, and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And whē he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken vp: for a cloude tooke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked steadfastly toward heauen, as hee went, beholde, two men stood by them in white apparell, 11 Which also said, Men of Galile, why stand yee gazing into heauen? This Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shal come, as ye haue seene him goe into heauen.

12 Then returned they vnto Ierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of Olives, which is nere to Ierusalem, coneyning a Sabbath dayes iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an vpper chamber, where abode both Peter, & James, and Iohn, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartolomew, and Matthewe, James the sonne of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas James brother.

14 These also continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women, and Marie the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

15 And in those dayes Peter stood vp in the middes of the disciples, and saide, (rowe the number of names that were in one place, were about an hundred and twentie).

16 Men and brethren, this Scripture must needs haue bene fulfilled, which the holy Ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was guide to them that tooke Iesus.

17 For he was numbered with vs, and had obtained fellowship with us in this ministration.

18 He therefore hath purchased a feld with the rewarde of iniquitie: and when hee had thowen downe himselfe headlong, he hath alinder in the middes, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it is knowne vnto all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, in so much that that feld is called in their owne language, Accedana, that is, The feld of blood.

20 For it is written in the Booke of Psalmes, Let his habitacion be voyde, and let no man dwell therein: also, Let another take his charge.

21 Wherefore, of these men which haue continued with vs, all the time that the Lord Iesus was conversant among vs, 22 Beginning from the Baptisme of Iohn, vnto the day that hee was taken vp from be, must one of them bee made a witness with vs of his resurrection.

23 And they presented two, Ioseph called Barsabas, whose surname was Iustus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, saying, Thou Lord which knowest the hearts of all men, shewe whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 And to the intent that hee that should take in hand that excellent office of an Apostle, might be chosen by the authoritie of God.

o As the true redeemer to gather vs vnto him.

CHAP. II.

3 The Apostles having received the holy Ghost, make their hearers astonished. 14 When Peter had stopped the mouths of the mockers, he shewed by the visible graces of the holy Spirit that Christ is come. 41 He baptizeth a great many that were converted. 42 The goodly exercise, charitie, and diuers vertues of the faithfull.

And when the day of Pentecost was come, they were all with one accorde in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing & mightie winde, and it filled all the house where they late.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like fire, and it sat vpon eache of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and begane to speake with other tongues, as by spirite gaue them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Ierusalem Iewes, men that feared God, of euery nation vnder heaven.

6 Now when this was noised, multitude came together, & were astonished, because that euery man heard them speake his owne language.

7 And they wondered all, and marvelled, saying among themselves, Behold, are not all these which speake, of Galile?

8 How then heare wee euery man our owne language, wherein we were borne?

9 Parthians, and Medes, & Elamites, and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, and of Iudea, and of Cappadocia, of Pontus, and Asia,

10 And of Ithygia, and Pamphilia, of Egypt, and of the partes of Libya, which is beside Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, and Iewes, and Proselytes, 11 Cretes, & Arabians: we heard them speake in our owne tongues the wonderfull workes of God.

12 They were all then amazed, & doubted, saying one to another, What may this be?

13 And others mocked, and said, They are full of new wine.

14 But Peter standing with the eleuen, lift vp his voyce, and saide vnto them, Ye men of Iudea, and yee all that inhabit Ierusalem, be this knowen vnto you, and hearken vnto my wordes.

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, since it is but the third houre of the day.

16 But this is that, which was spoken

by the Prophet * Joel,

17 And it shall be in the last dayes, saith God, I will powre out of my spirit vpon all flesh, and your sonnes, and your daughters shall prophete, and your yong men shall see visions, and your * olde men shall dreame dreames.

18 And on my seruantes, and on mine handmaides I will powre out of my Spirit in those dayes, and they shall prophete.

19 And I will shewe wonders in heauen above, and tokens in the earth beneath, blood, and fire, and the vapour of smoke.

20 * The * Sunne shall bee turned into darkenesse, and the Moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 And it shall be, that * whosoener shall call on the * Name of the Lord, shall be saued.

22 Ye men of Israel, heare these wordes, Iesus of Nazaret, a man appoyued of God among you with great workes, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as yee your selues also knowe:

23 Him, I say, haue ye taken by the hands of * the wicked, being deliuered by the * determine counsell, and of foreknowledge of God, and haue crucified and slaine:

24 Whome God hath raised vp, & loosed the * bondes of death, because it was impossible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David saith concerning him, * I beheld the Lord alwayes before mee: for hee is at my * right hand, that I should not be shaken.

26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, & my tongue was glad, and moreover also my flesh shall rest in * hope, 27 Because I will not leaue my * soule in graue, neither will I suffer thine holy one to * see corruption.

28 Thou hast shewed mee the * wayes of life, and shalt make mee full of ioy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, I may boldly speake vnto you of the Patriarke David, * that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre remaineth with vs vnto this day.

30 Therefore, seeing he was a * Prophet, and knew that God had * swoone with an othe to him, that of the fruite of his loynes hee would raise vp Christ concerning the flesh to set him vpon his throne,

31 He knowing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that * his * soule should not be left in * graue, neither his flesh should * see corruption.

32 This Iesus hath God raised vp, whereof we all are witnesses.

22 * For Moses said vnto the Fathers, The Lord your God shall raise vp vnto you a Prophet, even of your brethren like vnto mee: yee shall heare him in all things, wharsoeuer he shall say vnto you.

23 For it shall bee, that every person, which shall not heare that Prophet, shall bee destroyed out of the people.

24 A llo all the Prophets from Samuel, and thenceforth as many as haue spoken, haue likewise forgett of these dayes.

25 We are the children of the Prophets, and of the covenant, which God hath made vnto our fathers, saying to Abraham, * Cuen in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth bee blessed.

26 First vnto you hath God rayled by his Sonne Iesus, and him hee hath lent to blesse you, in turning every one of you from your iniquities.

27 None are blessed but in Christ. r So that our regeneration and newnesse of life is inclosed vnder this blessing.

CHAP. III.

3 Peter and Iohn deliuered out of prison preach the Gospel boldly. 10 They confesse plainly the Name of Christ. 16 They are commanded to preach no more in that Name. 24 They pray for the good success of the Gospel. 32 The increase, visit, and charitie of the Church.

As as they spake vnto the people, the Priests and the Captaine of the temple, and the Sadduces came vpon them,

2 Taking it grievously that they taught the people, and preached in Iesus Name the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they layde handes on them, and put them in holde, vntill the next day: for it was now euentide.

4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the word, beleued, and the number of the men was aboute fine thousand.

5 And it came to passe on the morow, that their rulers, and Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ierusalem,

6 And Annas the chiefe Priest, & Caiaphas, & Iohn, & Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the hie Priests.

7 And when they had set them before them, they asked, By what power, or in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter full of the holy Ghost, said vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel,

9 Forasmuch as wee this day are examined of the good deede done to the impotent man, to wit, by what means he is made whole,

10 We it knowen vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, whome yee haue crucified, whome God raised againe from the dead, euen by him doeth this man stand here before you, whole.

11 * This is the stone cast aside of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name vnder heauen, whereby wee must bee saved.

13 Now when they saw the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and understood that they were vblearned men, and without knowledge, they maruelled, and knewe them, that they had bene with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commaunded them to goe aside out of the Councill, and conferred among themselues, 16 Saying, What shall wee do to these men? For firstly a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly knowen to al them that dwell in Ierusalem: and wee can not denie it.

17 But that it bee noyed no farther among the people, let vs threaten & charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 So they called them, and commaunded them, that in no wise they shoulde speake or teach in the name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and sayde, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

20 For we cannot but speake the things which we haue seene and heard.

21 So they threatened them, and let them go, and found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done.

22 For the man was aboue fouerty yeere old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then alsoone as they were let goe, they came to their fellowes, and shewed all that the high Priestes and Elders had said vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voyces to God with one accord, and sayde, D Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them.

25 Which by the mouth of thy seruant Dauid hast sayd, * Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

26 The kings of the earth assembled, and the rulers came together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For doublelesse, against thine holy Sonne Iesus, whom thou hast anoynted, both Herode & Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel gathered themselues together, 28 To doe whatsoeuer thine hand, and thy counsel had determined before to be done.

29 And now, D Lord, beholde their threatening, and graunt vnto thy seruants with all boldnes to speake thy word, 30 So that thou stretch forth thine hand, that healing, and signes, and wonders may bee done by the name of thine holy Sonne Iesus.

CHAP. V.

5 The hypocrite of Ananias and Saphira is punished, 12 Miracles are done by the Apostles, 17 They are taken, but the Angel of God bringeth them out of prison, 29 Their bolde confession before the Council, 34 The counsel of Gamaliel, 40 The Apostles are beat, and reioyce in trouble.

At a certaine man named Ananias, with Saphira his wife, solde a possession,

2 And kept alway part of the price, his wife also being of counsell, and brought a certaine part, and layde it downe at the Apostles feete.

3 Then said Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou shouldst lie vnto the holy Ghost, and keepe a way part of the price of the possession?

4 Whiles it remained, appertained it not vnto thee: and after it was sold, was it not in thine owne power? how is it that thou hast deceiued this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied vnto men, but vnto God.

5 Nowe when Ananias heard these wordes, he fel downe, & gaue vp the Ghost. When great feare came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the yong men rose vp, and tooke him vp, and caried him out, and buried him.

7 And it came to passe about the space of thre houres after, that his wife came ignorant of that which was done.

8 And Peter said vnto her, Tell me, for ye sold the lande for so much? And she saide, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said vnto her, Why haue ye agreed together, to tempt the Spirit which declareth that when men doe any thing of an euill conscience, they doe not onely pronounce the sentence of damnation vpon themselves, but also prouoke the wrath of God, because they doe proue, as it were purposely, whether God be righteous and almightie.

of the Lords? behold, the feete of them which haue buried thine husband, are at the doore, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then she fell downe straightway at his feete, & yeelded vp the ghost: & the yong men came in, and found her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and on as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the handes of the Apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among the people (and they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

13 And of the others durst no man ioyne himselfe to them: neuertheless the people magnified them.

14 Also the number of them that belieued in the Lord, both of men and women, grew more and more.

15 In so much that they brought sickes into the streetes, and laide them on bedes, and couches, that at the least way the shadowe of Peter, when he came by, might shadowe some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the citie rounde about vnto Ierusalem, bringing sickes folkes, and them which were vexed with vncleane spirits, who were all healed.

17 Then the chiefe Priest rose vp, and all they that were with him (which was the sect of the Sadduces) and were full of indignation,

18 And laid hands on the Apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the Angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doores, & brought them forth, and said, 20 Goe your way, and stand in the Temple, and speake to the people all the words of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entred into the Temple early in the morning, and taught. And the chiefe Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Council together, and al the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned and tolde it.

23 Saying, Certainly wee founde the prison shut as iure as was possible, and the keepers standing without before the doores; but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Then when the chiefe Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the hie Priests heard these things, they doubted of them, wherunto this would growe.

25 Then came one and shewed them, saying, Beholde, the men that wee put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teach the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence (for they feared the people, least they should haue bene stoned).

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the Council, and the chiefe Priest asked them, 28 Saying, Did not wee straitly command you, that ye should not teach in this Name? and behold, ye haue filled ^{the} Ierusalem with your doctrine, and yee would bring this mans blood vpon vs.

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and saide, We ought rather to obey God then men.

30 The ^{God} of our Fathers hath raised vp Iesus, whome yee slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right hand, to bee a prince and a ^{Sauour}, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sinnes.

32 And wee are his witnesses concerning these things which we say: yea, & the holy Ghost, whom God hath giuen to them that obey ^{him}.

33 Now when they heard it, they brast forth anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stood there vp in the Council a certaine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, honoured of all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forth a little space.

35 And said vnto them, Men of Israel, take heede to your selues, what yee intend to doe touching these men.

36 For before these times, rose vp ^a Theudas boasting himselfe, to whom resorted a number of men, about a foure hundred, who was slaine: and they all which obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man, rose vp ^a Judas of Galilee, in the dayes of the tribute, & drew away much people after him: he also perished, and all that obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

38 And now I say vnto you, Refraine your selues from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsell, or this worke bee of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of ^a God, ye cannot destroy it, lest ye bee found euill fighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: and when they had beaten them, they commanded that they should not speake in the Name of Iesus, and let them goe.

41 So they departed from the Council, reioycing that they were counted worthy to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And daily in the Temple, and from house to house they ceased not to teach, and preach Iesus Christ.

3 Wherefore brethren, looke yee out among you seven men of honest report, and full of the holy Ghost, and of wisdom, which we may appoint to this businesse.

4 And we will giue oure selues continually to prayer, and to the ministracion of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Steuen a man full of faith and of the holy Ghost, and ^a Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas ^a proselyte of Antiochia,

6 Which they set before the Apostles: & they prayed, & laid their hands on them.

7 And the worde of God increased, and the number of the disciples was multiplied in Ierusalem greatly, and a great company of the Priests were obedient to the ^a faith.

8 Now Steuen full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certaine of the ^a Synagogue, which are called Libertines, and Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, and disputed with Steuen.

10 But they were not able to resist the wisdom, and the Spirit by the which hee spake.

11 Then they suborned men, which said, Wee haue heard him speake blasphemous wordes against Moles, and God.

12 Thus they moued the people and the Elders, and the Scribes: and running vpon him, caught him, and brought him to the Council,

13 And set forth false witnesses, which said, This man teacheth not to speake blasphemous wordes against this holy place, and the Lawe.

14 For wee haue heard him say, that ^a this Iesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the ordinances, which Moles gaue vs.

3 * And sayde vnto him, Come out of thy country, and from thy kindred, & come into the land, which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the lande of the Chaldeans, & dwelt in Charran. And after that his father was dead, God brought him from thence into this lande, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And hee gaue him none inheritance in it, no, not the breadth of a foot: yet he promised that hee woulde giue it to him for a possession, and to his seede after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 But God spake thus, that his * seede should be a sojourner in a strange land, and that they should keepe it in bondage, and entreated euill & foure hundred yerres.

7 But the nation to whome they shalbe in bondage toll I * iudge, saith God: and after that, they shall come forth and serue me in this place.

8 * He gaue him also the couenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begate * Isaac, and circumcised him the eight day: and Isaac begate * Jacob, and Jacob the twelue * Patriarchs.

9 And the Patriarchs moued with enue, solde * Ioseph into Egypt: but God was * with him, 11 * Then came there a famine ouer all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, that our fathers found no succour.

12 But when * Jacob heard that there was come in Egypt, hee sent our fathers first.

13 * And at the second time, Ioseph was known of his brethren, and Iosephs kindred was made known vnto Pharaos.

14 Then sent Ioseph and caused his father to be brought, and all his kindred, euens threescore and fiftene soules.

15 So * Jacob went downe into Egypt, and he * died, and our fathers, 16 And were remooued into * Sychem, and were put in the sepulchre, that * Abraham had bought * for money of the sonnes of Hinoz, sonne of Sychem.

17 But when the tyme of the promise drew neere, which God had sware to * Abraham, the people * grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Ioseph.

19 The same dealt * subtilly with our kindred, and euill entreated our fathers, and made them to cast out their yong children, that * they should not remaine aliue.

20 * The same time was Moles borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished up in his fathers house thre moneths.

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaos daughter tooke him vp, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

22 And Moles was learned in all the wisdomes of the Egyptians, and was mightie in wordes and in deedes.

23 Now when he was full fourtie yeres olde, it came into his heart to visite his brethren the children of Israel.

24 * And when he sawe one of them suffer wrong, hee defended him, and auenged his quarrel that had the harme done to him, and knote the Egyptian.

25 For hee supposed his brethren woulde haue understoode, that God by his hand should giue them deliuerance: but they understood it not.

26 * And the next day, he shewed himselfe vnto them as they stroue, and woulde haue set them at one againe, saying, Sisters, ye are brethren: why doe ye wrong one to another?

27 But hee that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a pynce, and a iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kill mee, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moles at that saying, and was a stranger in the lande of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.

30 And when fourtie yeres were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lorde in a flame * of fire, in a bush.

31 And when Moles saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew neere to consider it, the voyce of the Lorde came vnto him, saying,

32 I am the * God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moles trembled, and durst not behold it.

33 Then the Lorde said to him, * Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest, is holy ground.

34 I haue seene, I haue seene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groaning, and am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I will send thee into Egypt.

42 Then God turned himself away, and gave them vp to serue the host of heauen, phets, * O house of Israel, haue ye offered to me flaine beastes & sacrifices by the space of fortie yeres in the wilderness?

ceiued, and brought in with * Iesus into the possession of the Gentiles, which God draue out before our fathers, vnto the dayes

2 Steuen is limoned and buried. 3 The rage of the Iewes & of Saul against them. 4 The faith-seduced by Simon the forcerer, but was conuerted by Philip, and confirmed by the Apostles. 19 The crueltie of the synchris of Simon, 26 And conuersion of the Eunuch.

AND Saul consented to his death, and at that time there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Jerusalem, and they were all scattered abroad through the regions of Iudea and of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, * carried Steuen among them, to be buried, and made great b lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauocke of the Church, and entred vnto euery house, and drew out both men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went to and fro preaching the word.

5 ¶ Then came Philippe into the citie of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto those things which Philipe spake, with one accord, hearing, and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For vncleane spirits crying with a loude voyce, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, and that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that citie.

9 And there was before in the citie a certaine man called Simon, which sold witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, That hee himselfe was some great man.

10 To whome they d gaue heede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great * power of God.

11 And they gaue heede vnto him, because that of long time hee had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But assoone as they beleueed Philippe, which preached the things that concerned the kingdom of God, and the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himselfe beleueed also and was baptized, and continued with Philip, and wondered, when hee sawe the signes & great miracles which were done.

14 ¶ Nowe when the Apostles, which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had receiued the word of God, they sent vnto them Peter and John.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the * holy Ghost.

none of them, but they were baptized * one-ly in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

 ces with Christ their head, as Ephel. 2. 6. l And he now reigneth in heauen, t He declared at length this matter of io great importance.

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they receiued the holy Ghost.
 18 And when Simon saw, that through laying on of the Apostles handes the holy Ghost was giuen, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Giue mee also this power, that on whomsoever I lay the handes, hee may receiue the holy Ghost.
 20 Then said Peter vnto him, Thy money perisht with thee, because thou thinkest that the gift of God may be obtained with money.
 21 Thou hast neither part nor fellowship in this businesse: for thine heart is not right in the sight of God.
 22 Repent therefore of this thy wickednesse, and pray God, that if it be possible, the thought of thine heart may be forgiuen thee.
 23 For I see that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquitie.
 24 Then answered Simon, & said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, for none of these things which ye haue spoken, come vpon me.
 25 So they, when they had testified, and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Gospel in many towncs of the Samaritanes.
 26 Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Phillippe, saying, Arise and goe toward the South vnto the way that goeth downe from Jerusalem vnto Gaza, which is a waste.
 27 And he arose, & went on and behold, a certain Eunuch of Ethiopia, Comendace the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe Go-uernour, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Jerusalem to worship.
 28 And as hee returned sitting in his charret, he read Elias the Prophet.
 29 Then the Spirit layde vnto Phillip,
 Go neere & toyne the selfe to yonder charret.
 30 And Phillip raine thither, and heard him reade the Prophet Elias, & sayd, But understandest thou what thou readest?
 31 And he sayde, Howe can I, except I had a guide? And he desired Phillip, that he would come vp and sit with him.
 32 Nowe the place of the Scripture which he read, was this, * He was led as a sheepe to the slaughter: and like a lambe dumme before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth.
 33 In his humilitie his iudgement hath bene exalted: but who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.
 34 Then the Eunuch answered Phillip, and sayde, I pray thee of whome speaketh the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?
 35 Then Phillippe opened his mouth, and beganne at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, and the Eu-nuch said, See, here is water: what doeth let me to be baptized?
 37 And Phillip said vnto him, If thou beleuest with all thine heart, thou mayest.
 Then he answered, and said, I beleue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.
 38 Then he commanded the charret to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Phillip and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.
 39 And asdane as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Phillip, that the Eunuch saw him no more: so he went on his way reioyng.
 40 But Phillip was found at Azotus, and hee walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

 any that were of that way (either men or women) hee might bring them bound vnto Jerusalem.
 3 Now as he iourneyed, it came to passe, that as he was come neere to Damascus, suddenly there shined rounde about him a light from heauen.
 4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voyce, saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecurest thou me?
 5 And he saide, Who art thou, Lord?
 And the Lord sayd, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kicke against prickes.
 6 He then both trembling and astonished, said, Lord, what wilt thou that I doe? And the Lord said vnto him, Arise and goe into shalt doe.

 7 The men also which iourneyed with him, stood amazed, hearing his voyce, but seeing no man.

 opened his eyes: but saw no man. Then led they him by the hande, and brought him into Damascus.
 9 Where hee was three dayes without sight, and neither ate nor drinke.
 10 And there was a certaine discipule at Damascus named Ananias, and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And hee sayd, Behold, I am here, Lord.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I haue heard by many of this man, howe much euill hee hath done to the Saints at Ierusalem.

14 Moreover here he hath authoritie of the hie Priests, to binde all that call on thy Name.

15 Then the Lord said vnto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel vnto me, to heare my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shewe him, howe many things he must suffer for my Names sake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entered into the house, and put his handes on him, and said, Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent me (euen Iesus that appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest) that thou mightest receiue thy sight, and bee filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had bene scales, and suddenly hee receiued sight, and arose, and was baptised.

19 And receiued meate, and was strengthened. So was Saul certaine dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the Synagogues, that hee was the Sonne of God.

21 So that all that heard him, were amazed, and sayde, is not this hee, that destroyed them which called on this Name in Ierusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he should bring them bound vnto the hie Priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jewes which dwelt at Damascus, confirming that this was the Christ.

23 And after that many dayes were fulfilled, the Jewes tooke counsell together to kill him.

24 But their laying awaite was knowne of Saul: now they watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples tooke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a baskett.

26 And when Saul was come to Ierusalem, hee asayed to ioyne himselfe with the disciples: but they were all afraine of him, and beleueed not that hee was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, & brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how he had seene the Lord in the way, and that hee had spoken vnto him, and how hee had spoken boldly at Damascus in the Name of Iesus.

28 And he was conuersant with them at Ierusalem.

29 And spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and spake and disputed with the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knew it, they brought him to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest through all Iudea, and Galile, and Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, he came also to the Saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there hee found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeeres, and was sicke of the palsey.

34 Then said Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and make vp thy bed. And hee arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda, and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppy, a certaine woman a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called Dorcas) shee was full of good workes and almes which shee did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that shee was sicke and died: and when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 Nowe for as much as Lydda was neere to Ioppy, & the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that he would not delay to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose & came with them: and when hee was come, they brought him into the upper chamber, where all the widowes stode by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments, which Dorcas made, while shee was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the body, and said, Tabitha, arise. And shee opened her eyes, and when shee sawe Peter, shee sayd vp.

41 Then hee gaue her the hand and lift her vp, and called the Saintes and widowes, and restored her alme.

42 And it was knowne throughout all Ioppy, and many beleueed in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe that hee tarried many dayes in Ioppy with one Simon a Tanner.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: & he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to doe.

7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, hee called two of his seruants, and a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,

8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Ioppa.

9 On the morrow as they went on theirourney, and drew neere vnto the citie, Peter went vpon the house to pray, about the sixth houre.

10 Then wared he an hungred, & would haue eaten: but while they made some thing ready, he fell into a trance.

11 And he sawe heauen opened, & a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheete, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were all manner of foure footed beasts of the earth, & wilde beasts, & creeping things, and fowles of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: kill, and eate.

14 But Peter sayd, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is polluted, or vnclane.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the second time. The things that God hath purified, & pollute thou not.

16 This was so done thise: and the vessel was drawen vp againe into heauen.

17 ¶ Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which hee had scene, meant, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had inquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the spirit layd vnto him, Behold, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and goe with them, and doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 ¶ Then Peter went down to the men, which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayd, Behold, I am he whom ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they sayde, Cornelius the capitaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jewes, was warned from heauen by an holy Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy words.

23 Then called hee them in, and lodged them, and the next day, Peter went forth with them, and certaine brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius wared for them, and had called together his kinsmen, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe, as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feete, and two: shipped him.

26 But Peter rooke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euery my selfe am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, hee came in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, We knowe that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Jewe, to company or come vnto one of an other nation: but God hath shewed mee, that I should not call any man polluted, or vnclane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, when I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intent haue ye sent for mee?

30 Then Cornelius sayde, Foure dayes agoe about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and beholde, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And sayde, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (hee is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the sea side) who when he cometh, shall speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediately, and thou hast well done to come. Nowe therefore are wee all here present before God, to heare all things that are commaunded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and sayd, Of a truth I perceiue, that God is no acceptor of persons.

35 But in euery nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 Wee knowe the worde which God hath sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Iesus Christ, which is Lord of all,

39 And wee are witnesses of all things which hee did both in the land of the Jewes, and in Ierusalem: whom they slew, hanging him on a tree.

40 ¶ Vpon God raised by the third day, and caused that he was shewed openly:

41 Not to all the people, but vnto the witnesses chosen before of God, euen to vs which did eate and drinke with him, after he arose from the dead.

42 And hee commaunded vs to preach vnto the people, and to testifie, that it is hee that is ordeined of God a iudge of quicke and dead.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 So they of the circumcision which believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speake with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the holy Ghost, as well as we?

48 So he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then prayed they him to tary certaine dayes.

CHAP. XI.

4 Peter sheweth the cause wherefore he went to the Gentiles. 18 The Church increaseth. 22 Barnabas and Paul preach at Antiochia. 28 Agabus prophesieth dearth to come. 29 and the remedie.

Now the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudaea, heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come vnto Ierusalem, they of the circumcision contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to them, saying,

5 I was in the cite of Ioppa, praying, and in a trance I saw this vision. A certaine vessel coming downe as it had bene a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and came to me.

6 Toward the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw foure footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eat.

8 And I sayd, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purfied, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done three times, and all were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 Then beholds, immediately there were three men already come vnto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit saide vnto me, that I should goe with them, in that dubting: inproceur these three brethren came with me, and we entred into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs, how he had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14 Vee shall speake wordes vnto thee, whereby both thou and all thine house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, *euen as vpon vs at the beginning.

16 Then I remembered the word of the Lord, howe hee saide, * Iohn baptized with water, but yee shall bee baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 For as much then as God gaue them a like gift, as he did vnto vs, when wee beleuen in the Lord Iesus Christ, who was I, that I could let God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance vnto life.

19 And they which were * scattered abroad because of the affliction that arose about Steuen, walked throughout till they came vnto Idenice and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the word to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

20 Now some of them were men of Cyprus and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the Grecians, and preached the Lord Iesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, so that a great number beleued and turned vnto the Lord.

22 Then thinges of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Ierusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go vnto Antiochia.

23 Who when he was come & had seene the grace of God, was gladd, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would cleane vnto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people toyed them: ues vnto the Lord.

25 ¶ Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to ieeke Saul:

26 And when hee had found him, hee brought him into Antiochia, and it came to passe, that a whole yeere they were conueriant with the Church, and taught much people, in so much, that the disciples were first called: Christians in Antiochia.

27 In thoe dayes also came Prophets from Ierusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stood by one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit, that there should be great famine throughout all the world, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, purposed to send succour vnto brethren which dwelt in Iudaea.

30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders, by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

4 And when he had caught him, hee put him in prison, and deliuered him to foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passouer to bring him forth to the people.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

6 And when Herod would haue brought him out vnto the people, the same night slepe Peter betwene two souldiers, bound with two chaines, and the keepers before the doore, kept the prison.

7 And beholde, the Angell of the Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fell off from his hands.

8 And the Angell sayde vnto him, Gird thy selfe, and binde on thy sandals. And so hee did. Then he layde vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and followe me.

9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knew not that it was true, which was done by the Angell, but thought hee had seene a vision.

10 Nowe when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the yron gate, that leadeth vnto y^e citie, which opened to them by it owne accord, and they went out, and passed through one streete, and by and by the Angell departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himselfe, he sayde, Nowe I knowe for a trueth, that the Lord hath sent his Angell, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herode, and from all the waiting for of the people of the Jewes.

12 And as hee considered the thing, hee came to the house of Mary, the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together, and played.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entrie doore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But when the knoeue Peters voyce, she opened not the entrie doore for gladnes, but ran in, and tolde howe Peter stood before the entrie.

15 But they saide vnto her, Thou art mad. Yet shee affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then said they, It is his Angell.

16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and saw him, they were astonied.

17 And he beckoned vnto them with the hande, to holde their peace, and tolde them howe the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And hee saide, See shewe these things vnto James and to the brethren: and hee departed and went into another place.

18 Now as soone as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herode had sought for him, & found him not, he examined the keepers, and commaunded them to be led to be punished. And he went downe from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herode intended to make war against them of Tyus and Sidon, but they came all with one accord vnto him, and perswaded Blastsus the kings chamberlaine, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the kings land.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herode araid himselfe in royall apparell, and sate on the iudgement seate, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shout, saying, The voyce of God, and not of man.

23 But immediately the Angell of the Lord smote him, because he gaue not glory vnto God, so that he was eaten of worms, and gaue vp the ghost.

There were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certaine Prophets & teachers, as Barnabas, & Symeon called Nigger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaden (which had bene brought vp with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.

2 Now as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost sayde, Separate mee Barnabas and Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

3 Then fasted they and prayed, and layd their hands on them, and let them goe.

4 And they after they were sent forth of the holy Ghost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they layed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the worde of God in the Synagogues of the Jewes: and they had also Iohn to their minister.

6 So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphus, they found a certaine sorcerer, a false prophet, being a Jewe, named Bartheus,

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, let his eyes on him,

10 And said, I full of all subtiltie and all mischief, the childe of the daul, and enemye of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the straight wayes of the Lorde?

11 Now therefore beholde, the hand of the Lorde is vpon thee, and thou shalt bee blind, and not see the tyme for a season. And immediately there fell on him a myste and a darkenesse, and he went about, seeking some to leade him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputie when he saw what was done, beleeued, and was astonied at the doctrine of the Lorde.

13 Nowe when Paul and they that were with him were departed by shippe from Daphus, they came to Perga a cite of Pamphylia: then John departed from them, and returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antiochia a cite of Isildia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and late downe.

15 And after the lecture of the lawe and Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men & bretheren, if ye haue any word of exhortation for the people, lay on.

16 Then Paul stood vp and beckened with the hand, and said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the land of Egypt, and with an high arme brought them out thereof.

18 And about the tyme of forty yeres, suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And he destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, and deuided their lande to them by lot.

20 Then afterward he gaue vnto them Iudges about foure hundred and fiftie yeres, vnto the tyme of Samuel the Prophet.

21 So after that they desired a king, and God gaue vnto them Saul, the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Beniamin, by the space of fourette yeres.

22 And after he had caken him away, he raised vp Dauid to be their king, of whome he witnesseth, saying, I haue founde Dauid the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which will doe all things that I will.

23 Of this mans seede hath God according to his promise raised vp to Israel, the Saviour Iesus:

24 When Iohn had first preached before his coming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when Iohn had fulfilled his course, he said, Whome ye thinke that I am, I am not he: but beholde, there cometh one after me, whose shoe of his feete I am not worthy to looke.

26 Ye men and bretheren, chilsen of the generation of Abrahams, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this saluation sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Jerusalem, & their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the wordes of the Prophets, which are read euery Sabbath day, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they founde no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they tooke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him vp from the dead.

31 And hee was seene many dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Jerusalem, which are his witnessess vnto the people.

32 And we declare vnto you, that touching the promise made vnto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that he raised vp Iesus, euen as it is written in the seconde Psalm, Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Nowe as concerning that hee raised him vp from the dead, no more to returne to the graue, he hath sayd thus, I will giue you the holy things of Dauid, which are faithfull.

35 Therefore hee sayeth also in another place, Thou wilt not suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

36 Nowbeit, Dauid after he had serued his tyme by the counsell of God, hee slept, and was layde with his fathers, and sawe corruption.

37 But he whome God raised vp, sawe no corruption.

38 Bee it knowen vnto you therefore, men and bretheren, that though this man is preached vnto you the forgiveness of sinnes, 39 And from all things from which ye could not bee iustificd by the lawe of Moses, by him euery one that beleueth, is iustified.

40 Beware therefore, least that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophets,

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and dancie away: for I worke a worke in your dayes, a worke which ye shall not beleue, if a man would declare it vnto you.

42 And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought, they would preach these words to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the Congregation was dissolved, many of the Iewes, and Proselytes that feared God, followed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

 45 But when the Jewes sawe the people, they were full of enuie, & spake against those things, which were spoken of Paul, contrariety them, and rayling on them.
 46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldly, and said, * It was necessarie that the worde of God should first haue bene spoken vnto you: but seeing yee put it from you, and iudge your felues unworthie of eternall life, loe, we turne to the Gentiles.
 47 For so hath the Lorde comanded vs, saying, * I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be the saluation vnto the end of the world.
 48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, and glorified the worde of the Lorde: and as many as were ordeyned vnto eternall life, beleeued.
 49 Thus the word of the Lorde was published throughout the whole countrey.
 50 But the Jewes stirred ceraine deuout and honourable women, and the chiefe men of the cite, and rayled persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coastes.
 51 But they * shooke off the dust of their feete against them, and came vnto Iconnum.
 52 And the disciples were filled with ioy, and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIII.

3 God giueth successe to his word. 6 Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium & are persecuted. 13 At Lystra they would do sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul, which I refuse it, and exhort the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul stoned. 22 They confirm the disciples in faith and patience. 23 Appoint ministers. 26 And passing through many places, make report of their diligence at Antiochia.
 And it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Jewes, and to spake, that a great multitude both of the Jewes and of the Grecians beleeued.

2 But the vnbeleuing Jewes stirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time, and spake boldly in the Lorde, which gaue testimonie vnto the word of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to bee done by their hands.

4 But the people of the cite were diuided: and some were with the Jewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and of the Jewes with their rulers, to doe them violence, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region round about.

7 And there were preaching the Gospell.
 8 And soe there late a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his feete, which was a creeple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

9 We heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Sayde with a loude voyce, + Stand vpon thy feete. And he leaped vp, and walked.

11 Then when the people saw what Paul had done, they lift vp their voyces, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Iupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chiefe speaker.

13 Then Iupiters Priest, which was before their cite, brought bulles with garlands vnto the gates, and woulde haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles Barnabas and Paul heard it, they rent their clothes, and ranne in among the people, crying,

15 And saying, Men, why doe yee these things? Wee are euen men * subiect to the like passions that yee be, and preach vnto you, that yee shoulde turne from these vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, * which made heauen and earth, and the sea, and all things that in them are.

16 Who in times past * suffered all the Gentiles to walke in their owne wayes.

17 Neuerthelesse, he left not him selfe without witness, in that he did good, and gaue be rayne from heauen, and fruitfull seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladnesse.

18 And speaking these things, scarce refrained they the people, that they had not sacrificed vnto them.

19 Then there came certaine Jewes from Antiochia & Iconium, which when they had persecuted the people, * stoned Paul, and dyed him out of the cite, supposing he had bene dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he arose vp, and came into the cite, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And after they had preached to that cite, and had caught many, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antiochia, 22 Confirming the disciples hearts, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, asuming that wee must through many afflictions enter into the kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordeyned them Elders by election in every Church, and prayed, and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whom they beleeued.

24 Thus they went throughout Paphlagonia, and came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached a word in Perga, they came downe to Attalia.

26 And thence sayled to Antiochia, * from whence they had bene commended vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they had fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all the things that God had done * by them, and how he had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

1 Variance about circumcision, 22 The Apostles send their determination to the Churches, 35 Paul and Barnabas preach at Antiochia, 39 And separate company because of John Marke.

Then came downe certaine from Iudaea, and taught the brethren, saying, * Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 And when there was great dissention and disputation by Paul and Barnabas against them, they ordeined that Paul and Barnabas, and certaine other of their shoulde goe up to Ierusalem unto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Iphenie, and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Ierusalem, they were receiued of the church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But said they, certaine of the sect of the Pharisees, which did beleene, rose up, saying, that it was needefull to circumcise them, and to commaund them to keepe the Lawe of Moses.

6 Then the Apostles and Elders came together to looke to this matter.

7 And when there had bin great disputation, Peter rose up, and saide vnto them, * Ye men and brethren, yee knowe that a good while agoe, among vs God chose out mee, that the Gentiles by my mouth shoulde heare the worde of the Gospell, and beleene.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them to witnes, in giuing vnto them the holy Ghost, euen as he did vnto vs.

9 And hee put no difference betweene vs, and them, after that by faith wee had purified their hearts.

10 Now therefore, why tempt ye God, to lay a yoke on the disciples neckes, which neither our fathers, nor wee were able to beare?

11 But wee beleene, through the grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to be saved, euen as they doe.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which told what signes and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they helde their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken vnto me.

17 That the residue of men might seeke after the Lord, and all the Gentiles vpon whom my Name is called, sayth the Lord which doeth all these things.

18 From the beginning of the world, God knoweth all his workes.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that wee trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God,

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church, to sende chosen men of their owne company to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas: to wit, Judas whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren,

23 And wrote letters by them after this manner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, send greeting.

24 For as much as we haue heard, that certaine which departed from vs, haue troubled you with wordes, and conuertyd your mindes, saying, Ye must bee circumcised and keepe the Law: to whom we gaue no such commandement, 27 We haue therefore sent Judas and Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to vs, to lay no more burden vpon you, then these necessary things, 29 That is, that ye absteyne from things offered to idoles, and blood, and that, that is strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keepe your selues, yee shall doe well. Fare ye well.

30 Nowe when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, and after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the Epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they reioyced for the consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas being Prophets, exhorted the brethren with many wordes, and strengthened them.

1 When Paul had circumcised Timothee, hee tooke him with him. 7 The spirit calleth them from one country to another. 14 Lydia is conuered. 28 Paul and Silas imprisoned, conuert the layler, 37 And are deliuered as Romanes.

Then came hee to Derbe and to Lystra: and beholde, a certaine discipule was there, named * Timotheus, a womans sonne, which was a Jewesse and beleued, but his father was a Grecian.

2 Of whome the brethren which were at Lystra and Iconium, reported well.

3 Therefore Paul would that hee should go forth with him, and tooke and * circumcised him, because of the Jewes, which were in those quarters: for they knewe all, that his father was a Grecian.

4 And as they went through the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to keepe ordayned of the Apostles & Elders, which were at Ierusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, & increased in number daily.

6 ¶ Now when they had gone through-out Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, they were * forbidden of the holy Ghost, to preach the word in Asia.

7 Then came they to Mysia, and sought to goe into Bithynia: but the Spirit * suffered them not.

8 Therefore they passed through Bithynia, and came downe to * Troas, 9 Where a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come into Macedonia, and helpe vs.

10 And after hee had seene the vision, immediately hee prepared to goe into Macedonia, being * assured that the Lorde had called vs to preach the Gospell vnto them.

11 Then went wee forth from Troas, and with a straight course came to Samothracia, and the next day to * Neapolis.

12 ¶ And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe cite in the partes of Macedonia, and whose inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there, and we were in that cite abiding certaine dayes.

13 And on the Sabbath day, we went out of the cite, besides a riuer where they were wont to pray: and wee sat downe, and spake vnto the women, which were come together.

14 And a certaine woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the cite of the Thyatirians, which worshipped God, heard vs: whose heart the Lord opened, that shee attended vnto the things which Paul spake.

15 And when shee was baptized and her household, she besought vs, saying, If ye haue iudged me to be faithfull to the Lorde, come into mine house and abide there: and she constrained vs.

16 And it came to passe, that as we went to prayer, a certaine maide hauing * a spirit of divination, met vs, which gate her masters much bannage with diuining.

17 Shee followed Paul & vs, and cried, saying, These men are the seruants of the most high God, which shewe vnto vs the way of saluation.

18 And this did she many dayes: but Paul being grieved, turned about, & saide to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Iesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

19 Now when her masters saw that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and dretue them into the market place vnto the Magistrates,

20 And brought them to the Gouernours, saying, These men which are Iewes, trouble our cite,

21 And preach ordinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receive, neither to observe, seeing we are Romanes.

22 The people also rose vp together against them, and the Gouernours rent * their clothes, and * commanded them to be beaten with rods.

23 And when they had beaten them sore, they call them into prison, commanding the layler to keepe them surely.

24 Altho hauing received such commandement, cast them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 Nowe at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang a Psalm vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by and by all the doores opened, & euery mans bandes were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and when hee saw the prison doores open, hee drew out his sword, and would haue killed himselfe, supposing the prisoners had bene fled.

28 But Paul cryed with a loud voyce, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme: for wee are all here.

29 Then hee called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas, CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul commeth to Thessalonica, 4 Where some receiue him, and others persecute him, 11 To search the Scriptures, 17 He disputeth at Athens, and the fruit of his doctrine.

NOW as they passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in vnto them, and three Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures.

3 Opening & alleging that Christ must haue suffered, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whom I haue told you.

4 And some of them beleued, and turned in companie with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe.

5 But the Iewes which beleued not, moued with enuy, tooke vnto them certaine vagabonds and wicked fellows, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the cite, and made assault against the house of Iason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they deteue Iason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of the cite, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and here they are.

7 Whom Iason hath receiued, and these all doe against the decrees of Celsar, saying, that there is an other King, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, and the heades of the cite, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entered into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the word with all readinesse, and searched the Scriptures dayly, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleued, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

13 ¶ But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knew, that the word of God was also preached at Berea, they came thither also, and moued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the Sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he sawe the cite so full of idolatrie.

17 Therefore hee disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market dayly with whomsoever he met.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of the Epicures, and of the Stoicks, disputed with him, and some saide, What wilt this babler say? Others saide, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods (because hee preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into Mars streete, saying, May wee not knowe, what this newe doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certaine strange things vnto our eares: wee would know therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians and strangers which dwelt there, gaue themselves to nothing els, but either to tell or to heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stood in the middes of Mars streete, and saide, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things ye are too superstitious.

AFTER these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth,

2 And found a certaine Iewe, named Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italie, and his wife Priscilla (because that Claudius had commanded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and hee came vnto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, hee abode with them and wrought (for their craft was to make tents.)

4 And he disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes, and the Grecians.

5 Nowe when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul begun in spirit, testifying to the Iewes that Iesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphemed, hee spooke his raiment, and said vnto them, Your blood bee vpon your owne head: I am cleane: from henceforth will I goe vnto the Gentiles.

7 So he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Titus, a worshipper of God, whose house he sought hard to the Synagogue.

8 And Crispus the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, beleued in the Lord with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleued and were baptized.

9 Then sayde the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, and hold not thy peace.

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall lay hands on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this cite.

11 So he continued there a yere and sixe moneths, and taught the word of God among them.

12 Now when Gallio was deputie of Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seate, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the Law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio saide vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill deede, we Iewes, I would according to reason mainteine you.

15 But if it be a question of words, and names, and of your Lawe, looke yee to it your selues: for I will be no iudge of those things.

16 And hee draue them from the iudgement seate.

17 Then tooke all the Grecians Sosthenes, the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, and beat him before the iudgement seate: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he tooke leave of the brethren, and sailed vnto Syria (with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that he had shorne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vowe.

19 Then he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but hee entered into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes.

21 But badde them farewell, saying, I must needs keepe this feast that cometh, in Ierusalem: but I will returne againe vnto you, if God will. So he sayled from Ephesus.

22 And when he came downe to Celsarea, he went vp to Ierusalem: and when he had saluted the Church, hee went downe vnto Antiochia.

4 Then said Paul, * John verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they should beleene in him, which should come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.
5 So when they heard it, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.
6 And Paul laid his hands vpon them, and the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake the tongues and propheticed.
7 And all the men were about twelue.
8 Moreover, hee went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of thre moneths, disputing, and exhorting to the things that appertaine to the kingdome of God.
9 But when certaine were hardened, and disoebred, speaking euill of the way of God before the multitude, hee departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed daily in the schoole of one Tyranus.
10 And this was done by the space of two yeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Iesus.

11 And God wrought no small miracles by the hands of Paul,
12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sicke, kerchiefs, or handkerchiefs, and the diseales departed from them, and the euill spirits went out of them.
13 Then certaine of the vagabond Iewes, exorcists, tooke in hand to name ouer them which had euill spirits, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We aduise you by Iesus, whom Paul preacheth.
14 (And there were certaine somes of Scena a Jew, the Priest, about Ieuon which did this)
15 And the euill spirit answered, and said, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I knowe: but who are ye?
16 And the man in whose the euill spirit was, rane on them, and ouercame them, and preuailed against them, so that they fledde out of that house, naked, and wounded.
17 And this was knowne to all the Iewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified.
18 And many that beleened, came and confessed, and shewed their workes.
19 Many also of them which vied curious artes, brought their bookes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, and found it fiftie thousand pieces of silver.

28 Now when they heard it, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole cite was full of confusion, and they rushed into the common place with one assent, and caught * Gaius, and * Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, and Pauls companions of his Iourney.

30 And when Paul would haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 Certaine also of the chiefe of Asia which were his friends, sent vnto him desiring him that he would not present himselfe in the common place.

32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assembly was out of order, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And some of the companie, q diuine footst Alexander, the Jewes thrusting him forwardes, Alexander then bekened with the hand, and would haue opened the matter to the people.

34 But when they knewe that he was a Jewe, there arose a shoute almost for the space of two houres, of all men, crying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 Then the towne Clarke, when he had stayed the people, sayd, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is it that knoweth not, howe that the cite of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddesse Diana, and of the image, which came downe from Iupiter?

36 Seeing then that no man can speake against these things, ye ought to bee appeased, and to doe nothing rashly.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he let the assembly depart.

CHAP. XX.

1 Paul geth into Macedonia and into Grecia, 2 He celebrateth the Lords Supper and preacheth, 3 At Troas berayeth vp Eutychus, 27 At Ephesus hee calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, & departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

NOW after y^e tumult was ceased, Paul called the Disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone through those partes, and had exhorted them with many wordes, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing taried there three moneths, because the Jewes layd waite for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, hee purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gains of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These went before, and taried vs at Troas.

6 And we sailed forth from * Philippi, after the dayes of vneaneued bread, and came vnto them to Troas in fve dayes, where we abode seven dayes.

7 And the first day of the weeke, the disciples being come together to e breake bread, Paul preached vnto them, ready to depart on the morowe, and continued the preaching vntil midnight.

8 And there were many lightes in an upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there late in a window a certaine yong man named Eutychus, fallen into a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was long preaching, hee overcome with sleepe fell downe from the third loft, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went downe, and layed himselfe vpon him, and embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, and eaten, hee continued a loken while till the dawning of the day, and so he departed.

12 And they brought the boy aliue, and they were not a litle comforted.

13 Then we went forth to ship, and sailed vnto the cite * Alos, where we might receiue Paul there: for so had hee appointed, and would himselfe goe afoote.

14 Nowe when he was come vnto vs to Alos, and wee had receiued him, wee came to Mitylene.

15 And we layed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next day wee arrived at Samos, and taried at Trogyllum: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because he would not spende the time in Asia: for he halted to be, if he could possiblie, at Ierusalem, at the day of Pentecost.

17 Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, & called the elders of y^e Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, he sayd vnto them, Ye knowe from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I haue bene with you at all season,

19 Seruing the Lord with all modestie, and with many teares, and tentations, which came vnto me by the layings abaide of the Jewes,

22 And now behold, I go bound in the spirit vnto Ierusalem, and know not what things shall come vnto me there,

23 Saue that the holy Ghost witnesseth in euery citie, saying, that bands and afflictions abide me.

24 But I passe not at all, neither is my life deare vnto my selfe, so that I may fulfil my course with joy, and the minist'ation which I haue receiued of the Lord Jesus, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, beholde, I knowe that henceforth yee all, though whome I haue gone preaching the kingdome of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Therefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue shewed you all the counsell of God.

28 Take heede therefore vnto your selues, and to all the flocke, wherof the holy Ghost hath made you ouersheers, to feede the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his owne blood.

29 For I knowe this, that after my departing shall grieuous woundes enter in among you, not sparing the flocke.

30 Whereouer, of your owne selues shall men arise speaking peruerse things, to drawe disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch & remember, that by the space of thre yeres I ceased not to warne euery one, both night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to builde further, and to giue you an inheritance, among all them which are sanctified.

36 And when hee had thus spoken, hee kneeled downe, and prayed with them all.

37 Then they wept all abundantly, and fell on Pauls necke, and kissed him, 38 Bruing cheefly for the wordes which he spake, That they shoulde see his face no more. And they accompanied him vnto the ship.

CHAP. XXI.

5 The common prayers of the faithful. 9 Phileps four daughters prophesies. 13 Pauls constancy to breake the crosse, as Agabus and others foresake, although he was otherwise comforted by the brethren. 28 The great danger that he was in, and how he escaped.

As as wee launched forth, and were departed from them, we came with a streight course vnto Coos, and the day following vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara.

2 And wee found a ship that went ouer vnto Phenice, and went aboard, & set forth.

3 And when wee had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed toward Syria, and arrived at Tyus: for there the ship vnladde the burden.

4 And when wee had found disciples, we tarried there seven dayes. And they tolde Paul through the spirit, that he should not goe vp to Ierusalem.

5 But when the dayes were ended, wee departed and went our way, and they all accompanied vs with their wives and children, even out of the citie: and we kneeling downe on the shor, prayed.

6 Then when wee had embraced one another, weooke shyppe, and they returned home.

7 And when wee had ended the tollie from Tyus, wee arrived at Ptolemais, & saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day Paul and they that were with him, departed, and came vnto Cesarea: and wee entered into the house of Philip the Euangelist, which was one of the seven Deacons, and abode with him.

9 Now he had foure daughters virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as we tarried there many dayes, there came a certaine Prophet from Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, hee tooke Pauls girdle, and bounde his owne hands and feete, and sayde, Thus sayeth the holy Ghost, So shall the Iewes at Ierusalem binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliuer him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when wee had heard these things, both we and other of y same place besought him that he would not goe vp to Ierusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, & said, What doe yee weeping and breaking mine heart? For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Ierusalem for the Name of the Lord Jesus.

14 So when hee would not be perswaded, wee ceased, saying, The will of y Lord be done.

15 And after those dayes we trusted by our faroules, and went vp to Ierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certaine of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Naason of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whom we shoulde lodge.

17 And when wee were come to Ierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto James: and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced them, he tolde by order all things, that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his minist'ation.

20 So when they heard it, they glorified

b The holy Spirit reuelled vnto them the persecutions that Paul should haue made against him, and the same Spirit also strengthened Paul to silence them.

c This office of Deaconship was but for a time, according as the congregation had neede, or otherwise.

d God would haue his seruants bands knowne, to the intent that no man shoulde thinke that he cast himselfe into wilfull danger.

e This was not to make Paul afraid, but to encourage him against the brunt.

f Who was the chiefe or superintendent of the Church of Ierusalem.

hied the Lord, & sayd vnto him, Thou seest, brother, howe many thousand Iewes there are which beleuee, and they are all zealous of the Lawe.

21 Nowe they are inſourmed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moles, and sayest, that they ought not to circuncise their children, neither to liue after the customes.

22 What is then to be done? the multitude must needs come together: for they shall heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that wee say to thee. Wee haue foure men, which haue made a vowe.

24 Them take, and i purifie thy selfe with them, and contribute with them, that they may haue their heads: and all shall know, that those things, wherof they haue bene inſourmed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest and keepest the Law.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which beleuee, wee haue writen, and determined, that they obserue no such thing, but that they keepe themselves from things offered to idoles, and from blood, and from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entered into the Temple, declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven dayes were almost ended, the Iewes which were of Asia (when they sawe him in the Temple) moued all the people, and layed hands on him,

28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the Lawe, and this place: moreover, hee hath brought Grecians into the Temple, & hath polluted this holy place.

29 For they had seene before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in the citie, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was moued, and the people ran together: and they tooke Paul, and drew him out of the Temple, and forth with the doores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tidings came vnto the chiefe Capitaine of the band, that all Ierusalem was on an uprore.

32 Who immediately tooke souldiers, and Centurions, and came downe vnto them: and when they sawe the chiefe Capitaine and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe Capitaine came neere, and tooke him, and commanded him to be bound with two chaines, and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cryed this, another that, among the people. So when hee could not know the certaintie for the tumult, he commanded him to be led into the castle.

35 And when he came vnto the grieses, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul should haue bene led into the castle, he sayd vnto the chiefe Capitaine, Day I speake vnto thee: What sayd, Canst thou speake Greeke?

38 Art not thou the Egyptian, who before these dayes raised a sedition, and led out into the wilderness foure thousand men that were murderers?

39 Then Paul sayd, Doublesse I am a man which am a Iewe, and citizen of * Tarhis, a famous citie in Cilicia, and I beleech thee, suffer me to speake vnto the people.

40 And when he had giuen him licence, Paul stood in the grieses, and beckened with the hand vnto the people: and when there was made great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

Y Men, brethren, and fathers, heare my defence now towards you.

2 (And when they heard that hee spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence, and he sayd)

3 I am verily a man, which am a Iewe, borne in * Tarhis in Cilicia, but brought vp in this citie at the feet of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect manner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 * And I persecuted this way vnto the death, binding and deliuering into prison both men and women,

5 As also the chiefe Priest doeth beare me witness, and all the state of the Elders: of * whom also I receiued letters vnto the brethren, and went to Damascus to bring them which were there, bound vnto Ierusalem, that they might be punished.

6 And so it was, as Iourneyed and was come neere vnto Damascus about noone, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light round about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voyce saying vnto mee, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, What art thou, Lord? And hee sayd to mee, I am Iesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 Whereof they that were with mee, sawe in dede a light, and were afraid: but they heard not the voyce of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I said, What shal I do, Lord? And the Lord sayd vnto me, Arise, and goe into Damascus: and there it shal be tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 So when I could not see for the glory of that light, I was ledde by the hand of them that were with mee, and came into Damascus.

C H A P. XXIII.

12 And one Ananias, a gobby man, as pertaining to the Law, hauing good report of all the Jewes which dwelt there, 13 Came vnto me, and stood, and sayd vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy light: and that same houre I looked vpon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath appointed thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and shouldest see that a Just one, and shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witness vnto all men, of the things which thou hast scene and heard.

16 Now therefore why tarrest thou? Arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy finnes, in calling on the Name of y^e Lord.

17 And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance, 18 And saw him saying vnto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Ierusalem: for they will not receiue thy witness concerning me.

19 Then I sayd, Lord, they knowe that I am prisioned, and beat in euery Synagogue them that beleue in thee.

20 And when the blood of thy martyrs Stuen was shed, I also stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.

21 Then he sayd vnto me, Depart, for I will send thee far hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 And they heard him vnto this word, but then they lift vp their voyces, and sayd, Away with such a fellowe from the earth: for it is not meete that he should tene.

23 And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and threwe dust into the ayre,

24 The chiefe Captaine commaunded him to be led into the Castle, and bade that he should be scourged, and examined, that he might knowe wherefore they cryed so on him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul sayd vnto the Centurion that stood by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is a Romane, and not condemned?

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went and tolde the chiefe captaine, saying, Take heede what thou doest: for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chiefe captaine came, and sayd to him, Tell me, Art thou a Romane? And he sayd, Yea.

28 Then the chiefe captaine answered, With a great summe obtained I this burgeship. Then Paul sayd, But I was a so borne.

29 Then straightway they departed from him, which should haue examined him: and the chiefe captaine also was afrayde, after hee knewe that hee was a Romane, and that he had bound him.

30 On the next day, because hee would haue knowne the certaintie wherefore hee was accused of the Jewes, hee looked him from his bonds, and commaunded the hie Priestes and all their Councill to come together: and hee brought Paul, and set him before them.

1 The answer of Paul being smitten, and the overthrowe of his enemies, 11 The Lord encourageth him. 23 And because the Iewes laide waite for him, he is sent to Cesarea.

And Paul behelde earnestly the Councill, and sayd, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conscience serued God vnto this day.

2 Then the hie Priest Ananias commaunded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then sayd Paul to him, God will smite thee, thou whited wall: for thou stitest to iudge me according to the Lawe, & commaundest thou me to be smitten contrary to the Lawe?

4 And they that stood by, sayd, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then sayd Paul, I knowe not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, * Thou shalt not speake euill of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one part were of the Sadduces, and the other of the Pharisees, he cryed in the Councill, Men and brethren, * I am a Pharisee, the sonne of Pharisee: I am accused of the hope and resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had sayd this, there was a dissension betwene the Pharisees and the Sadduces, so y^e multitude was diuided.

8 * For the Sadduces say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confesse both.

9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharisees part rose vp, and stroue, saying, We finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissension, the chiefe captaine, fearing least Paul should haue bene pulled in pieces of them, commaunded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the Castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of mee in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witness also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Jewes made an assemblie, and bound themselves with an othe, saying, that they would neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fouentie, which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priestes and Elders, and sayd, We haue bound our selves with a solemn othe, that we will eate nothing, until we haue slaine Paul.

15 Nowe therefore, yee and the Councill signifie to the chiefe captaine, that hee bring him forth vnto you to morowe, as though ye would knowe something more perfectly of him, and we, or euer he come neere, will be ready to kill him.

16 But when Pauls sisters kinsmen heard them, but he hath infinite meanes to defeat them, a Paul doeth not curse the hie Priest, but denounceth sharply the punishment of God which should light vpon him, who vnder pretence of maintaining the Law, doth transgreesse it. b He made this excuse as it were in mockerie, as if he would say, I know nothing in this man worthy the office of the hie Priest.

18 So he tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine, and sayd, I Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this young man vnto thee, which hath some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hand, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And he sayde, the Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morrow into the Council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not persuade thee: for there lie in waite for him of them moe then forty men, which haue bound themselves vpon an othe, that they will neither eate nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and now are they ready, and waye for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the young man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had shewed him these things.

23 And he called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers, that they may goe to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and two hundred with barres, at the third houre of the night,

24 And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being let on, may bee brought safe vnto Felix the Governour.

25 And he wrote an epistle in this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias vnto the most noble Governour Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of y^e Iewes, and should haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garrison, and rescued him, perceiving that he was a Roman.

28 And when I woulde haue knowne the cause, wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council.

29 There I perceived that hee was accused of questions of their Lawe, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed mee, howe that the Iewes layd wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things y^e they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the foundiers as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day, they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the Castle.

33 Nowe when they came into Cesarea, they deliuered the Epistle to the Governour, and presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the governour had read it, he asked of what p^rouince he was: and when he vnderstoode that hee was of Cilicia, 35 I will heare thee, sayd he, when thine accusers also are come, & commaunded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

30 Paul being accused answered for his life, & doctrine against his accusers. 25 Felix propeth him, thinking to haue a bribe. 28 And after leaueh him in prison.

Now after five dayes, Ananias the high Priest came downe with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certaine Oratour, which appeared before the Governour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus beganne to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee haue obtained great quietnesse through thee, & that many wealthy things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thanks.

4 But that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of thy courteisie a few wordes.

5 Certainly we haue found this man a pestilent fellowe, and a moouer of sedition among all the Iewes throughout the world, and a chiefe maintainer of the sect of the Nazarites:

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we tooke him, and would haue iudged him according to our Lawe:

7 But the chiefe captaine Lysias came vpon vs, & with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayest (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Iewes likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governour had beckened vnto him that hee should speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answer for my selfe, soasmuch as I knowe that thou hast bene of many yeeres a iudge vnto this nation,

11 Seeing that thou mayest knowe, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vnto worship in Jerusalem.

12 And they neither found mee in the Temple disputing with any man, neither making vppare among the people, neither in the Synagogue, nor in the cite.

13 Neither can they proue the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way (which they call a hereticke) so worship I the God of my fathers, beleeuing all things which are written in the Lawe and the Prophets,

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they themselves looke for also, shalbe both of iust and vniust.

16 And herein I endeuor my selfe to haue

24 Then he commaunded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that he shoulde haue

25 And after certaine dayes, came Fe-heard him of the faith in Christ.

the iudgement seat, and commaunded Paul to be brought.

7 And when hee was come, the Iewes which were come from Ierusalem stode about him, and layd many, and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not proue,

8 Forasmuch as hee answered: that he had neyther offended any thing against the lawe of Iewes, neyther against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

9 But Festus willing to get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul, and sayd, Wilt thou goe vp to Ierusalem, and there bee iudged of these things before me?

10 Then layd Paul, I stand at Cesar iudgement seate, where I ought to bee iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or conmitted any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there bee none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken to the Councill, he answered, Wilt thou appeale vnto Cesar: vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 And after certaine dayes, king Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there many dayes, Festus proposed Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whome when I came to Ierusalem, the hie Priestes and Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whome I answered that it is not the maner of the Romanes for fauour to deliuer any man to the death, before that he which is accused haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe, concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay, the day following I sate on the iudgement seate, and commaunded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whome when the accusers stode vp, they demanded no crime of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne superstition, and of one Ielus which was dead, whome Paul assermed to be aloue.

20 And because I doubted of such maner of question, I asked him whether hee would goe to Ierusalem, and there bee iudged of these things.

21 But because hee appealed to be referred to the examination of Augustus, I commaunded him to be kept, till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. Co-

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, perseeve this man, about whome all the multitude of the Jewes haue called upon me, both at Ierusalem, and here, crying, that he ought not to live any longer.

25 Yet haue I found nothing worthy of death, that hee hath committed: neither lesse, seeing that he hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.

26 Of whome I haue no certeine thing to write vnto my lord: wherefore I haue brought him forth vnto you, and specially vnto thee, King Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue somewhat to write.

27 For mee thinke it unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not to breake the causes which are layed against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The innocencie of Paul is approved by rehearsing his conversation. 25 His modest answer against the iniurie of Festus.

Then Agrippa sayde vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thyselfe. So Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answer this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Jewes:

3 Chiefly, because thou hast knowledge of all customs, and questions which are among the Jewes: wherefore, I beseech thee to heare me patiently.

4 As touching my life from my childhood, & what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, know all the Jewes,

5 Which knew mee heretofore (if they woulde testifie) that after the most strait sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee.

6 And nowe I stand and am accused for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelve tribes instantly iuruing God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, D king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verily thought in my selfe, that I ought to doe many contrary things against the Name of Iesus of Nazareth.

10 * Which thing I also did in Ierusalem: for many of the Saintes I shut up in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the hie Priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my sentence.

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being more madde against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to * Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the hie Priests,

13 At midday, D King, I saw in the way a light from heauen, passing the brightest of the sunne, shine round about mee, and them which went with me.

14 So when wee were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto mee, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, * Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke against prickes.

15 Then I sayde, What art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy feete: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witness, both of the things which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I wil appeare vnto thee.

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom nowe I send thee.

18 To open their eyes, that they may turne from darkenesse to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiveness of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heavenly vision.

20 * But I returned first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coastes of Iudea, & then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and doe workes worthy amendment of life.

21 For this cause the Jewes caught mee in the Temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Wherefore I obtained helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Moyses did say should come,

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that hee should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shewe light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as hee thus answered for himselfe, Festus sayd with a loude voyce, Paul, thou art besides thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee madde.

25 But he sayd, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of truely and verities.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whome also I speake boldly: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 D king Agrippa, beleuest thou the Prophets? I knowe that thou beleuest.

28 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Almost thou perswadest mee to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul sayde, I woult to God, that not onely thou, but also all that heare mee to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when hee had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that late with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betwene themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, nor

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage, and his companie toward Rome. 44 How, and where they arrive.

Nowe when it was concluded, that wee should faile into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certaine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And * wee entred into a ship of Adramyttum, purposing to saile by the coastes of Asia, and launched forth, and had Aristarchus of Thacedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arrived at Sidon; and Julius courteously intreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched, & layed hard by Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a ciue in Lysia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sayling into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many dayes, and scarce were come against Onidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we layed hard by Candie, neere to Salomone.

8 And with much adoe sailed beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the faire hauens, neere vnto the which was the cite Lasea.

9 So when much time was spent, and sayling was nowe tedious, because alio the fast was nowe passed, Paul exhorted them,

10 And said vnto them, Syrs, I feele that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheles the Centurion beleened rather the gouernour and the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the haue was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any meanes they might attaine to Ithence, there to winter, which is an haue of Candie, and lieth toward the South-west and by West, and North-west and by West.

13 And when the Southerne winde blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed anchor, and saild by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arole by it a storme to be called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the winde, we let her goe, and were caried away.

16 And we came vnder a little Ile named Claudia, and had much adoe to get the boate.

17 Which they took by a board all helpe, undergirding the shippe, fearing least they should haue fallen into Syrtes, and they let doone the shewell, and so were caried.

18 The next day when wee were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lightened the ship.

19 And the third day wee cast out with our owne handes the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither linne nor staires in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that wee should be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the middes of them, and said, Syrs, yee should haue hearkened to mee, and not haue looled from Candie: so should yee haue gained this hurt and losse.

22 But nowe I exhort you to be of good courage: for there shall be no losse of any mans life among you, saue of the shippe onely.

23 For there stood by me this night the Angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serue, 24 Saying, I feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar; and loe, God hath giuen vnto thee all that saile with thee.

25 Wherefore, syrs, be of good courage; for I beleue God, that it shall be so as it hath bene tolde me.

26 Howbeit, we must be cast into a certain Iland.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as we were caried to and fro in the Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey approached vnto them,

28 And sounded, and found it twentie fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded againe, and found fifteene fathoms.

29 Then fearing least they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure anchors out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

30 For as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, and had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast anchors out of the fore-shippe, 31 Paul said vnto the Centurion, & the soldiers, Except these abide in the shippe, we cannot be safe.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boate, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that yee haue fasted, and continued fasting, receliuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meate: for this is for your iategard: for there shall not an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thanks to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eate.

d That is, the Northeast winde or every East winde that is furious and stormie.

e This yle was West and by South from Candie straight toward the goulfe Syrtis, which were certaine boyling sandes that swallowed vp all that they caught.

36 Then were they all of good courage, and they also tooke meate.

37 Now we were in the ship in all two hundredth threescore and sixteene soules.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the shippe, and cast out the wheate into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knewe not the countrey, but they spied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the shippe.

40 So when they had taken by the anchors, they committed the shippe vnto the sea, and loosed the rudder bondes, and horyed by the maine saile to the winde, and drew to the shore.

41 And when they felinto a place, where two seas meete, they thrust in the shippe: and the fore-part sticke fast, and could not be moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the souldiers counsell was to kill the prisoners: least any of them, when he had swomme out, should flee away.

43 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, stayed them from this counsell, and commanded that they that coule swimme, should cast themselves first into the sea, and goe out to land:

44 And the other, some on boardes, and some on certaine pieces of the shippe: and so it came to passe, that they came all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Paul with his company are gently intreated of the barbarous people. 5 The viper bitteth him not. 8 He healeth Publius father and others, and being furnished by them of things necessary, hee fa-
 15 Where being received of the brethren, he declareth his busynesse. 30 And there preacheth two yeeres.

And when they were come safe, then they knewe, that the yle was called Melita.

2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no little kinnesse: for they kindled a fire, and re- ceined vs euery one, because of the present shoure, and because of the colde.

3 And when Paul had gathered a num- ber of stickes, and laide them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and lept on his hand.

4 Nowe when the Barbarians sawe the wyrm hang on his hand, they said among themselves, This man surely is a mur-
 5 therer, whome though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance hath not suffered to liue.

5 But hee shooke off the wyrm into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they waited when he should haue swollen, or fallen downe dead sudden- ly: but after they had looked a great while, and sawe no inconuenience come to him, they changed their mindes, and said, That he was a God.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefe man of the Ile (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receiued vs, & lodged vs three dayes courteously.

8 And so it was, that the father of Pub-
 9 lius lay sicke of the feuer, and of a bloodie fluxe: to whome Paul entred in, and when he prayed, he laide his handes on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the yle, which had diseases, came to him and were healed.

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when wee departed, they laden vs with things necessarie.

11 Nowe after three monthes we de-12 parted in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the yle, whose badge was Cas-13 stor and Pollux.

12 And when wee arrived at Syracuse, we taried there three dayes.

13 And from thence wee fet a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day, the South winde blew, and wee came the second day to Dureoli.

14 Where wee found brethren, and were desired to tary with them seven dayes, and so we went towarde Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at the Market of Appius, and at the Tiber sta-16 tuernes, whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and waied bold.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was suffer-17 ed to dwell by himselfe with a souldier that kept him.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he laid vnto them, Men and brethren, though I haue committed nothing against the people, or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusa-18 lem into the handes of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined mee, would haue let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contra-20 ry, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I cal-
 21 led you: to see you, and to speake with you: for the hope of Israels sake, I am bound with this chaine.

21 Then they sayd vnto him, We neither receined letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewed or spake any euill of thee.

22 But we will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, wee knowe that euery where it is spoken a-23 gainst.

23 And when they had appoynted him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and testi-
 24 fied the kingdom of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus, both out of the Lawe of Moses, and out of the Prophets, from morning to night.

24 And some were perswaded with the things, which were spoken, and some be-25 lieued not.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romanes.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe great mercie of God is declared toward man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousness is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his owne corruption could not fulfil the Law, yea, committed most abominably, both against the lawe of God, and nature, the infinit bountie of God, mindful of his promise made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleeuers, ordained that mans saluation should only stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not only the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles should be saved by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iust onely through faith, and yet afterward receiued circumcision, as a seale or badge of the same righteousness by faith. And to the intent that none should thinke that the covenant with God made to him, & his posteritie was not performed: either because the Iewes receiued not Christ, (which was the blessed seed) or els beleued not that he was the true redeemer, because he did not onely, or at least more notably preferue the Iewes: the examples of Ismael and Isaac declare, that all are Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the very strangers and Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heires of the promises. The cause whereof is the only wil of God: forasmuch as of his free mercie he electeth some to be saved, and of his iust iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes should not be too much bearene downe, nor the Gentiles too much puffed vp, the example of Elias proueth, that God hath yet his elect euen of the naturall posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberal mercie of God, which he at length wil stretch toward the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. This ground worke of faith and doctrine laid, instructions of Christian maners follow: teaching every man to walke in roundnesse of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenesse, reuerencing and obeying the magistrates, exercising charitie, putting off the old man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, and louing one another according to Christs example. Finally, S. Paul after his commendations to the brethren, exhorteth them to vniue, and to flee false preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

14 I am better both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise men and to the vniuers.

15 Therefore as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you also that are at Rome.

16 For I am not = ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the * = power of God vnto saluation to every one that beleeueth, to the Jewe first, and also to the = Grecian.

17 For by it the = righteousness of = God is reueiled, from faith to faith: as it is written, * The iust shall liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is reueiled from heauen against all = vngodlinesse, and vnrighteousnesse of men, which withhold the truth: in vnrighteousnesse, 19 Forasmuch as that, which may bee knowne of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the inuisible things of him, that is, his eternall power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the worlde, being considered in his workes, to the intent that they should be without excuse:

21 * Because that when they knew God, they = glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darkenesse.

22 When they possessed themselves to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glorie of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birdes, and foure footed beastes, and of creeping things.

24 Therefore also God = = gaue them vp to their hearts lusts, vnto uncleannesse, to desile their owne bodies betwene themselves:

25 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, || forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for ever, Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did change the naturall vse into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the naturall vse of the woman, and burned in their lust one towarde another, and man with man wrought filthinesse, and receiued in themselves such recompence of their error, as was meete.

28 For as they regarded not to knowe God, euen so God deliuered them vp vnto a = reprobate minde, to do those things which are not conuenient,

29 Being full of all vnrighteousnesse, fornication, wickednesse, couetousnesse, malice, of deceit, full of enuie, of murder, of debate, of deceit, taking all things in the euill part, whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, doers of wrong, proud, boasters, inuentors of euill things, disobedient to parents, without understanding, covenant breakers, without naturall affection, such as can neuer bee appeased, mercilesse.

31 Which men, though they knewe = the = Lawe of God, howe that they which commit such things, are worthy of death, yet not onely doe the same, but also = fauour them that doe them.

CHAP. II.

1 He searcheth the hypocrites with Gods iudgement, 7 And comforteth the faithfull, 12 To beat downe all vaine pretence of ignorance, holinesse, and of aliances with God, he proueth all men to be sinners, 15 The Gentiles by their conscience, 17 The Jewes by the Lawe written.

Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that || = iudget: * For in that that thou iudget another, thou condemnest = thy selfe: for thou that iudget, doest the same things.

2 But we knowe that the iudgement of God is according to = truth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O thou man, that iudget them which doe such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

4 O despisest thou the riches of his bountifullnesse, and = patience, and long sufferance, not knowing that the bountifullnesse of God leadeeth thee to repentance?

5 But thou, after thine hardness, and heart that cannot repent, = heapest vnto thy selfe wrath against the day of = wrath, and of the declaration of the iust iudgement of God.

6 * Who will reward euery man according to his = workes:

7 That is, to them which by continuance in well doing seeke glorie, and honour, and immortallitie, eternall life:

if thou doe the Lawe: but if thou be a tran-gressour of the Lawe, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.
26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the Lawe, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?
27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it keepe the Lawe,) iudge thee which by the letter and circumcision are a transgressour of the Lawe?
28 For hee is not a Iewe, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:
29 But he is a Iewe which is one with-the spirit, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

7 For if the veritie of God hath more abounded through my lye vnto his glorie, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?
8 And (as we are blamed, and as some ascribe that wee say) why doe we not curse that good may come thereof? whose damna-tion is iust.
9 What then? are wee more excellent?
No, in no wise: for we haue already pro-uoued, that all, both Iewes and Gentiles are
* vnder sinne.
10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no not one.
11 There is none that vnderstandeth:
there is none that seeketh God.
12 They are all gone out of the way: they haue bene made altogether vnprofitable:
there is none that doeth good, no not one.
13 * Their throte is an open sepulcher:
they haue used their tongues to deceipt: * the poyson of aspes is vnder their lippes.
14 * Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitternesse.
15 * Their feete are swift to shed blood.
16 Destruction and calamitie are in their wayes.
17 And the way of peace haue they not knowne.
18 * The feare of God is not before their eyes.
19 Nowe we knowe that whatsoever the Lawe saith, it saith it to them which are vnder the Lawe, that euery man may bee stopped, and all the world be culpable before God.
20 * Therefore by the workes of the Lawe shall no flesh be iustified in his sight:
by the Lawe cometh the knowledge of sinne.

Chap. 1. 17.

i The word signifies that which are left behind in the race, and are not able to runne to the marke, that is, to everlasting life, which here is called the glory of God.

k Or, fidelitie in performing his promises.

l The law of faith is y Gospel which offereth saluation with conditio (if thou beleeuest) which condition also Christ freely giueth to vs, so the condition of the Lawe is (if thou dost all these things) the which only Christ hath fulfilled for vs, m Meaning, that they are all iustified by one means, and if they will haue any difference, it onely standeth in wordes: for in effect there is none. n The doctrine of faith is the ornament of the Lawe: for it embraceth Christ, who by his death hath satisfied the Law: so that the Law which could not bring vs to saluation by reason of our owne corruption, is now made effectiual to vs by Christ Iesus.

o By a spiritual gift, which is the grace of God, whereby he becometh a partaker of the inheritance of life.

a That is, by workes.

b He might pretend some meritorie workes worthy to be recompensed.

c Meriteth by his workes.

d That dependeth not on his workes, neither thinketh to merit by them.

e Which maketh him that is wicked in himself, iust in Christ.

f Psal. 32. 1.

g Vnder this excellent sacrament he comprehendeth the whole Law.

21 But now is the* righteousness of God made manifest without the Lawe, hauing witnes of the Law and of the Prophets.

22 To wit, the righteousness of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleeue.

23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and are deppined of the glory of God.

24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus.

25 Whome God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness, by the forgiveness of the sinnes that are past, through the patience of God.

26 To shewe at this time his righteousness, that he might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.

27 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Law, of workes? Nay: but by the Law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.

29 God, is hee the God of the Iewes onely, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision of faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Doe we then make the Lawe of no effect through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the Lawe.

CHAP. III.

1. 17 Hee declareth that iustification is a free gift, euen by them themselves of whom the Iewes most boasted, as of Abraham and of Dauid, 15 And also by the office of the Law and faith.

What shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath founde a concerning the flesh?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, he hath wherein to reioyce, but not with God.

3 For whatsaith the Scripture? Abraham beleued God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.

4 Nowe to him, that worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but beleeueth in him that iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Euen as Dauid declareth the blessednesse of the man, vnto whom God imputeth righteousness without workes, saying,

7 Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sinnes are covered.

8 Blessed is the man, to whome the Lord imputeth not sinne.

9 Came this blessednesse then vpon the circumcision onely, or vpon the uncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or uncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was uncircumcised.

11 After hee receiued the signe of circumcision, as the scale of the righteousness of the faith which he had, when he was uncircumcised, that hee should be the father of all them that beleeue, not being circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also.

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was uncircumcised.

13 For the promise that hee should be the heire of the worlde, was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seede, through the Lawe, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the Law, be heires, faith is made voyd, and the promise is made of none effect.

15 For the Lawe tendereth wrath: for where no lawe is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might be sure to all the seede, not to that onely which is of the Lawe: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all.

17 (As it is written, I haue made thee a father of many nations) euen before God, whome hee beleued, who quickeneth the dead, & calleth those things which be not, as though they were.

18 Altho Abraham aboue hope, beleued vnder hope, that hee should be the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken to him, So shall thy seede be.

19 And he's not weak in the faith, considering not his owne body, which was now dead, being almost an hundred yere old, neither the deadnesse of Saras wombe.

20 Neither did hee doubt of the promise of God through unbeliefe, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue glory to God.

21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was able to doe it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Nowe it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteousness.

24 But also for vs, to whome it shall be imputed for righteousness which beleeue in him that raised up Iesus our Lord from the dead.

25 Who was delivered to death for our sinnes, and is risen againe, for our iustification.

CHAP. V.

1 He declareth the fruites of faith. 7 And by comparison setteth forth the law of God and obedience of Christ, which is the foundation and ground of the same.

g This may be vnderstood of the fruits of faith: (for thereof y Apostle doth hereafter expressly increate) but of the faith it selfe.

h In fulfilling the workes thereof.

i And thinke to performe y same by workes.

k If thee require to fulfil the lawe for him that shall be of Abrahams inheritance, then it is in vaine to beleeue the promise: for it serueth to no v.

e That is, for such one of whome he hath received good.

f Because of sinne: yet friends by the grace of God.

g From Adam to Moses.

h He meaneth young babes, which neither had the knowledge of the lawe of nature, nor any motion of concupiscence, much lesse committed any actual sinne: and this may also comprehend the Gentiles.

i Yet all mankind, as it were, sinned, when they were as yet inclosed in Adams loynes.

k Which was Christ.

l For by Christ we are not onely deliuered from the finnes of Adam, but also from all such as we haue added thereunto.

m The iustice of Iesus Christ which is imputed to the faithfull.

n Which beleeue to be faued in Iesus Christ.

When being iustified by faith, wee haue a peace toward God through our Lord Iesus Christ.

2 * By whome also wee haue accessethrough faith vnto this grace, wherein wee stande, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glory of God.

3 Neither do we so only, but also we * reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience,

4 And patience experience, & experience hope,

5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the * loue of God is shedde abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For Christ, when wee were yet of no strength, at his time, died for the * vngodly.

7 Doubtes one wil scarce die for a righteous man: but yet for a * good man it may be that one dare die.

8 But God iusteth out his loue toward vs, seeing that while wee were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then, being now iustified by his blood, we shall bee faued from wrath through him.

10 For if when wee were * enemies wee were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, wee shall be faued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whome wee haue now receiued the atonement.

12 Therefore, as by one man sinne entered into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went ouer all men: for as much as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the * time of the Lawe was sinne in the world, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Law.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses, euen ouer them also that sinned not after the like manner of the transgression of Adam, which was the figure of * him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, & the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entered in by one that sinned: for the faulte came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shall they which receive the abundance of grace, and of the gift of * righteousness, reigne in life through one, that is, Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then, as by the offence of one the faulte came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefit aboundeth toward * all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many also bee made righteous.

20 Moreover the * Law entered thereupon, that the offence should * abound: neuertheless, where sinne abounded, there grace abounded much more:

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousness vnto eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man should glorie in the flesh, but rather seeke to subdue it to the spirit, 3 He sheweth by the vertue and ende of Baptisme, 5 That regeneration is ioyned with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godly life, 7 Setting before mens eyes the reward of sinne and righteousness.

What shall wee say then? Shall wee continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shall wee, that are * dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that * all we which haue bene baptized into * Iesus Christ, haue bin baptized into his death?

4 * Wee are buried then with him by baptism into his death, that like as Christ was rayled vp from the dead by the glory of the Father, so wee also should * walke in newnesse of life.

5 * For if we bee * grafted with him into the similitude of his death, euen so shall wee be to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the * body of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth wee should not serue sinne.

7 For yee that is dead, is * freed from sinne.

8 Therefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall also liue with him.

9 Knowing that Christ being rayled from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he died, he died once * to sinne: but in that hee liueth, hee liueth to God.

11 Likewise thinke yee also, that yee are * dead to sinne, but are alieue * to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortall body, that yee should obey it in the lustes thereof.

13 Neither giue yee your members as weapons of inrighteousnesse vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are alieue from the dead, and giue your members as weapons of righteousness vnto God.

g That he might destroy sinne in our flesh. h And siteth at the right hand of the Father. i Wee may gather that we are dead to sinne, when sinne beginneth to die in vs: which is by the participation of Christs death, by whom also being quickned, we liue to God, that is, to righteousness. k In that yee are led with the Spirit of God. l The minde first misleth euill motions, whereby mans will is entised: thence burst forth the lustes, by them the body is prouoked, and the body by his actions doeth sollicite the minde: therefore he commaundeth, at the least that we rule our bodies, for, t Sinne is compared to a tyrant which reigneth by force, who giueth death as an allowance to them that were preferred by the Lawe.

14 For sinne shall not haue dominion ouer you: for ye are not vnder the Lawe, but vnder grace.

15 What then? shall we sinne, because wee are not vnder the Lawe, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 Knowe ye not that to whomsoever yee giue your selues as seruants to obey, his seruantes ye are, to whome yee obey, whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of obedience vnto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that yee haue bin the seruants of sinne, but yee haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, whereunto ye were delivered.

18 Being then made free from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousness.

19 I speake after the manner of man, because of the infirmities of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to uncleannesse and to iniquitie, to commit iniquitie, so nowe giue your members seruants vnto righteousness in holinesse.

20 For when yee were the seruants of sinne, ye were freed from righteousness.

21 What fruit haue yee then in those things, whereof yee are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

22 But nowe being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, yee haue your fruit in holinesse, and the ende euertlasting life.

23 For the wages of sinne is death: but the gift of God is eternall life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1. 7. 12 The use of the Lawe, 6. 24 And how Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmities of the fleshfull. 23 The dangerous fight betwene the flesh and the Spirit.

K Nowe ye not, brethren, (for I speake to them that knowe the Lawe) that the Lawe hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 For the woman which is in subiection to a man, is bound by the Lawe to the man, while hee liueth: but if the man be dead, she is deliuered from the Lawe of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, wee take another man, hee shall be called an adulteresse: but if the man be dead, he is free from the Lawe, so that he is not an adulteresse, though he take another man.

4 So yee, my brethren, are dead also to the Lawe by the body of Christ, that yee shoulde beey vnto another, euen vnto him that is rayed vp from the dead, that wee shoulde bring forth fruit vnto God.

5 For when wee were in the flesh, the ymportions of sinnes, which were by the Lawe, had force in our members, to bring forth fruit vnto death.

6 When we were deliuite of the Spirit of God, Galat. 5. 22. Mat. 5. 32. c Which is the Spirit of God, || Or, affections.

6 But now wee are deliuered from the Lawe, being dead vnto it, wherein wee were holden, that we shoulde serue in newnesse of spirit, and not in the oldenesse of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the Lawe: for I had not knowne a lust, except the Law had said, Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne tooke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in mee all manner of concupiscence: for without the lawe sinne is dead.

9 For I once was aloue, without the law: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued,

10 But I died: and the same commandement which was ordained vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceiued me, and thereby slewe me.

12 Wherefore the Law is holy, and the commandement is holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might appeare sinne, wrought death in mee by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinfull by the commandement.

14 For we know that the Lawe is spiritual, but I am carnall, sold vnder sinne.

15 For I allowe not that which I doe: for what I would, that doe I not: but what I hate, that doe I.

16 If I doe then that which I would not, I consent to the Lawe, that it is good.

17 Nowe then, it is no more I, that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I knowe that in me, that is, in my flesh dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I doe not the good thing, which I would, but the euill, which I would not, that doe I.

20 Nowe if I doe that I would not, it is no more I that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Lawe, that when I would doe good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delight in the Lawe of God, concerning the inner man:

23 But I see another Lawe in my members, rebelling against the Lawe of my minde, and leading mee captiue vnto the lawe of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer mee from the body of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Loyde. Then I myselfe in my minde serue the Lawe of God, but in my flesh the Lawe of sinne.

e Meaning, to sinne our first husband.

f There is nothing more enemie to sinne, then the Lawe: if so be therefore that sinne rage more by reason thereof, then before, why should it be imputed to the lawe, which discloseth the sleights of sinne her enemy?

CHAP. VIII.

1 The assurance of the faithfull, and of the fruites of the holy Ghost in them. 3 The weaknesse of the Lawe, and who accomplished it. 4 And wherefore. 5 Of what sort the faithfull ought to be. 6 The fruites of the spirit in them. 17 Of hope. 18 Of patience vnder the crosse. 28 Of the mutuall loue betwixt God and his children. 29 Of his foreknowledge.

Now then there is no condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the Lawe of the Spirit of life, which is in Christ Iesus, hath freed mee from the lawe of sinne and of death,

3 For that that was impossible to the law, in as much as it was weak, because of the flesh, God sending his owne Sonne, in the similitude of feshull flesh, and for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the righteousness of the Lawe might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh saunoe the things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wisdom of the flesh is death, but the wisdom of the spirit is life and peace.

7 Because the wisdom of the flesh is enmity against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, neither in dede can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 Now ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead, because of sinne: but the Spirit is life for righteousness sake.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, hee that rayzed vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, wee are Debtors not to the flesh, to liue after the flesh:

13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the body by the Spirit, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not receiued the spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye haue receiued the Spirit of adoption, whereby we crye Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirit beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

in the meane time call to God through patience. i But to liue after the Spirit, k So hee nameth the holy Ghost of the effect, which hee causeth in vs, when he propoeth vs saluation by the law with an impossible condition, who also doeth seale our saluation in our heartes by Chrilles free adoption, that we consider not God now as a rigorous Lord, but as a most mercifull Father. Gal. 4. 5. 6. 1 So that we haue two witnesses, Gods spirit, and ours, who is crucified by the Spirit of God.

17 If we be children, we are also heires, even the heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ, it is to be that we suffer with him, that wee may also bee glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time, are not worthy of the glory, which shall be shewed vnto vs.

19 For the feruent desire of the creature waiteth when the sonnes of God shall bee reuelled.

20 Because the creature is subiect to vanitie, not of it owne will, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it vnder hope,

21 Because the creature also shall be deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

22 For we knowe that euery creature groweth with vs also, and travaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely the creature, but wee also which haue the first fruites of the Spirit, euery wee doe fight in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saued by hope: but hope that is seene, is not hope: for howe can a man hope for that which hee seeth?

25 But if we hope for that wee see not, we doe with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what to pray as we ought: but the spirit it selfe maketh request for vs with sighes, which cannot be expressed.

27 But hee that searcheth the heartes, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for he maketh request for the Saints, according to the will of God.

28 Also we knowe that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, eue to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he knowe before, he also predestinated to bee made like to the image of his sonne, that he might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreover, whome he predestinated, them also he called, and whome hee called, them also he iustified, and whome hee iustified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall wee then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, howe shall he not with him giue vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? it is God that iustificeth, 34 Who shall condemne? it is Christ, which is dead, yea, or rather, which is risen againe, who is also at the right hande of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

CHAP. IX.

1 Having testified his great loue towards his nation, and the signes therof, 11 He entreateth of the election and reprobation. 24 Of the vocation of the Gentiles, 30 And reuersion of the Iewes.

1 Say the truely * in Christ, I lie not, my conscience bearing me witnesse in the holy Ghost,

2 That I haue great heavinesse, and continuall sorowe in mine heart.

3 For I would wish my selfe to be separated from Christ, for my brethren that are my kinsmen according to the flesh,

4 Which are the Israelites, to whome pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, & the giving of the Law, and the service of God, and the promises.

5 Of whom are the fathers, and of whom concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is God ouer all blessed for ever, Amen.

6 * Notwithstanding it cannot bee that the worde of God should take none effect:
for all they are not Israel, which are of Israel:

7 Neither are they all children, because they are the seede of Abraham: * but, In s Isaac shall thy seede be called:

8 That is, they which are the children of the flesh, are not the children of God: but the children of the promises are counted for the seede.

9 For this is a worde of promise, * In this same time will I come, and Sara shall haue a sonne.

10 Neither he onely felt this, but also * Rebecca when she had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac.

11 For yer the children were boyne, and when they had neither done good, nor euill (that the purpose of God might remaine according to election not by workes, but by him that calleth)

12 It was said vnto her, * The elder shall serue the younger:

13 As it is writen, * I haue loued Jacob, and haue hated Esau.

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moyses, * I will haue mercie on him, to whome I will shew mercie: and will haue compassion on him, on whome I will haue compassion.

16 So then it is not in him that willeth, nor in him that runneth, but in God that sheweth mercie.

17 For the Scripture saith vnto Isha-rac, * For this same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my Name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore see I shew mercie on whome he will, and whome he will, he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then vnto me, Why doeth he yet complaine? for who hath resisted his will?

20 But, O man, who art thou which speakest against God? shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the potter power of the clay to make of the same lump one vessel to honour, and another vnto dishonour?

22 What and if God woult, to shew his wrath, and to make his power knowne, suffer with long patience y vessels of wrath prepared to destruction?

23 And that he might declare the riches of his glory vpon y vessels of mercie, which he hath prepared vnto glory?

24 Euen vs, whom he hath called, not of the Iewes onely, but also of the Gentiles,

25 As he saith also in Dece, * I will call mine, My people, which were not my people: & her, Beloued, which was not beloued.

26 And it shall be, in the place where it was said vnto them, * We are not my people, that there they shall be called, The children of the liuing God.

27 Also Elias crieth concerning Israel, * Though the number of the children of Israel were as the sande of the sea, yet shall but a remnant be saved.

28 For hee will make his account, and gather it into a short summe with righte-ousnesse: for the Lord will make a short count in the earth.

29 * And as Elias said before, Except the Lord of hostes had left vs a seed, we had bene made as * Sodome, and had bene like to Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not righteousness, haue attained vnto righteousness, euen the righteousnesse which is of faith.

31 But Israel which followed the Lawe of righteousness, could not attaine vnto the Lawe of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the Lawe: for they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone,

33 As it is writen, * Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling stone, and a rocke to make men fall: and euery one that belieueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

CHAP. X.

them, 3 He sheweth the cause of the ruine of the Iewes, 4 The end of the Law, 5 The difference betweene the iustice of the law, & of faith, 17 Whereon, and the hardening of the heart an inferior cause of damnation.

B Rethen, mine heartes desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might bee saued.

2 For I heare them recorde, that they haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of the righte-ousnesse of God, and going about to stablish their owne righteousness, haue not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God.

4 * For Christ is the ende of the Lawe for righteousness vnto euery one that belee-ueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righte-ousnesse which is of the Lawe, * That the man which doeth these thinges, shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, * Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen?
(that is to bring Christ from aboue)

7 Who shall descend into the deepe, (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what saith it? * The word is neere thee, even in the mouth, and in thine heart.
This is the worde of faith which wee preach.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleeue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man beleeueth vnto righteousness, and with the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saith, * Whosoever beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betweene the Iewe and the Greecian: for hee that is Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all, that call on him.

13 * For whosoever shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shall be saued.

14 But howe shall they call on him, in whome they haue not beleeued? and howe shall they beleeue in him, of whome they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And howe shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, * How beautiful are the feete of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Eliaas saith, * Lord, who hath be-lieued our report?

17 Then saith is by hearing, and hearing
by the word of God.

18 But I demaunde, Haue they not heard? * I do doubt their sounde went out through all the earth, and their wordes into the endes of the world.

19 But I demaunde, Did not Israel knowe God? First Moses saith, * I wil prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 * And Eliaas is bolde, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, * Al the day long haue I stretched forth mine hand vnto a disobedient, and gainesaying people.

k Then seeing all the worlde knewe God by his creatures, the Iewes could not lice.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hath his Church, although it be not seene to many eyes, 5 The grace shewed to the elect, 7
The rudgements of the reprobate, 8 God hath blinded the leues for a time, and reuealed himselfe to the Gentiles: 18 Whome he warneth to humble themselves, 29 The giftes of God without repentance, 33 The depth of Gods indignation.

I Demaunde then, Vathy God cast away his people? God forbi d: for I also am an Israelite, of the seede of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he knewe before. Knowe ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias, howe he maketh request vnto God against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seeke my life:

4 But what saith the answer of God to him? * I haue reserved vnto my selfe seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant through the selection of grace.

6 And if it bee of grace, it is no more of workes: or els were grace no more grace:
but if it be of workes, it is no more grace:
or els were workes no more workes.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that he sought: but the election hath obtained it, and the rest haue bene hardened.

8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of slumber: eyes that they should not see, and eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And Dau d saith, * Let their eie table be made a snare, and a nette, and a stumbling block, cūen for a recompente vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened y they see not, and howe downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demaunde then, Haue they stub-bled, that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation commeth vnto the Gentiles, to s prouoke them to followe
them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them be the riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall their abundance be?

16 For if the first fruits be holy, so is the whole lump: and if the roote be holy, so are the branches.
17 And though some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wilde Olive tree, wast graffed in for them, and made partaker of the root, and fannesse of the Olive tree, 18 Boast not thy selfe against the branches: and if thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.
19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be graffed in.
20 Allee! though vnbelleefe they are broken off, and thou standest by faith: bee not high minded, but feare.

24 For if thou wast cut out of the Olive tree, which was wilde by nature, and wast graffed contrary to nature in a right Olive tree, how much more shall they that are by nature, be graffed in their owne Olive tree?
25 For I would not, brethren, that yee should bee ignorant of this secret, (lest yee should be arrogant in your selues) that partly a obstinacie is come to Iſrael, vntill the fullnesse of the Gentiles be come in.
26 And so all Iſrael shall be laued, as it is written, * The deliuerer shall come out of Sion, and shall turne away the vngodlinesse from Iacob.

16 Be of like affection one towards another : We not be inuaded : but make your selues equal to them of the lower sort : * be not wise in your selues.

17 * Recompense to no man euill for euill : procure things honest in the sight of all men.

18 * If it be possible, as much as in you is, haue peace with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, * auenge not your selues, but giue place vnto wrath : for it is written, * Vengeance is mine : I wil repay, saith the Lord.

20 * Therefore, if thine enemy hunger, feed him : if he thirst, giue him drinke : for in so doing, thou shalt heape coales of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of euill, but overcome euill with goodnesse.

m For thou shalt either winne him with thy benefit, or elis his conscience shall beare him witnesse that Gods burning wrath hangeth ouer him.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The obedience to the Rulers. 4 Why they haue the sword. 8 Charitie ought to measure all our doings. 11 An exhortation to innocencie and purity of life.

¶ Et * every soule bee subiect vnto the higher powers : for there is no power but of God : and the powers that be, are ordained of God.

2 Whosoener therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God : and they that resist, shall receiue to themselves iudgement.

3 For Princes are not to be feared for good workes, but for euill. * Wilt thou then be without feare of the power : doe well : so shalt thou haue peace of the same.

4 For he is the minister of God for thy wealt : but if thou doe euill, feare : for hee beareth not the sword for nought : for hee is the minister of God : to take vengeance on him that doeth euill.

5 Wherefore ye must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for conscience ake.

6 For, for this cause ye pay also tribute :
for they are Gods ministers, applying themselves for the same thing.

7 * Giue to all men therefore their due-tie : tribute, to whome ye owe tribute : cus-tome, to whome custome : feare, to whome feare : honour, to whome ye owe honour.

8 Doe nothing to any man, but to loue one another : for hee that loueth another, hath fulfilled the Law.

9 For this, * Thou shalt not commit adulterie, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false wit-nesse, Thou shalt not couer : and if there be any other commandement, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, even in this,

* Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

10 Loue doeth not euill to his neighbour : therefore is loue the fulfilling of the Law.

11 And that, considering the season, that it is now time that wee should arise from sleep : for nowe is our saluation nearer, then when we beleueed it.

12 The night is past, and the day is at hand : let vs therefore cast away the workes of darkenesse, and let vs put on the armour of light.

13 So that wee walke honestly, as in the day : not in * gluttonie, and drunkenesse, neither in chambering, and wantonnesse, n
in strife and enuying :

14 * But put pee on the Lord IESVS Christ, and take no thought for the flesh, to fulfill the lustes of it.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The weakke ought not to be despised. 10 No man should offend anothers conscience. 15 But one to support another in charitie and faith.

¶ In that is weakke in the faith, receiue him into you, but not for controuersies of disputations.

2 One beleueeth that he may eate of all things : and another, which is weakke, ea-teth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not : and let not him which ea-teth not, iudge him that eateth : for God hath receiued him.

4 * Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant : hee standeth or falleth to his owne master : yea, hee shall be established : for God is able to make him stand.

5 This man esteemeth one day aboue another day, and another man counteth every day al ke : let every man be fully persuaded in his minde.

6 We that obserueth the day, obserueth it to the Lord : and hee that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lord. Wee that eateth, eateth to the Lord : for hee giueth God thanks : and he that eateth not, eateth not to the Lord : and giueth God thanks.

7 For none of vs liueth to himselfe, neither doeth any die to himselfe.

8 For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lord : or whether we die, wee die vnto the Lord : whether we liue therefore, or die, wee are the Lords.

9 For Christ therefore dyed, and rose againe, and remitted, that hee might be Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother : or why doest thou despise thy brother :
for wee shall all appeare before the iudge-ment seate of Christ.

11 For it is written, * I will, saith the Lord, and every knee shall bowe to me, and all tongues shall confesse vnto God.

ferent, albeit in the Law they were not : next, that he reproveth not the condemning of the acte, but of the persons : thirdly, that he mean-eth not the subburne and malicious, whome he calleth dogges and conceit, but the weakke and infirme, to whom God as yet hath not revealed the perfect libertie. i Both our life and death ought to profit our brother. 2. Cor. 5. 10. 1. Tim. 4. 2. 10. k This othe particularly appertaineth to God, who is the true life of himselfe and giueth it to all others. l And acknowledge me for their God, e Before we be leueed, it had bin

these things : but let vs take heede

not this occasion.

12 So then every one of vs shall giue accounts of himselfe to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but let your iudgement rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling block before his brother.

14 ^m I know, & am perswaded through the Lowe Jesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to bee vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

15 But if thy brother be grieved for the meate, now walkest thou not charitably: ^{*} destroy not him with thy meate, for whome Christ died.

16 Cause not your ^{*} commoditie to bee euill spoken of.

17 For the ^{*} kingdome of God is not meate nor drinke, but righteousnesse, and peace, and foy in the holy Ghost.

18 For whosoener in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is appoynted of men.

19 Let vs then followe those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: ^{*} all things in deed are pure: but it is euill for the man which eateth with offence.

21 ^{*} It is good neither to eate flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing, whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or made weake.

22 Hast thou faith? haue it with thy selfe before God: blessed is hee that ^{*} condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.

23 For he that doubteth, is condemned if he eate, because he eareth not of faith: and whatsoever is not of faith, is sinne.

The first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that Saint Paul had preached at Corinthus a yeere and a halfe, he was compelled by the wickednesse of the Iewes to sayle into Syria. In whose absence false apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glory, and affectate eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions in policies and ceremonies, they fell to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doubt the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefeſt points of Christian religion. Against these evils the Apostle proceedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts, and eares with gentle salutations: but soone after he reproveth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie and pride, and exhorteth them to concorde and humilitie, setting before their eyes the spirituall vertue, and heavenly wisdom of the Gospel, which cannot be perswaded by worldly wit and eloquent reasons, but is reueiled by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this saluation may not be attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church: wherein Saint Paul behaued him selfe skilfully, building according to the foundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the ende proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heede that they be not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the Temple of God. And as for those that doubted of his Apostleship, hee sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit hee had declared by manifest signes that he neuer sought his owne glorie, neither yet howe he might liue, but onely the glory of Christ: which thing at his coming he would declare more ampie, to the shame of those vaine glorious braggers, who sought themselves onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreproved and unpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before infidels, fornication, and such like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, hee answereth to certaine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duetie of marriage, of discord and dissention among the married, of virginite, and second marriage. And because some thought it nothing to bee present at idole seruice, seeing in their heart they worshipped the true God, hee warneth them to haue respect to their weak brethren, whose sayth by that dissembling was bindred, and their consciences wounded, which thing, rather then hee woulde doe, hee would neuer vse that libertie which God had giuen him. But forasmuch as pride, and selfwill is the cause of those great evils, hee admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glorie in these outward gifts, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to followe Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then hee correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behaviour of men, and women in the assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the spirituall gifts, which God hath giuen to mainteine loue and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ, and well doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee prayseth the great graces of God shewed toward them, 10 Exhorting them to concord and humilitie. 19 Hee beateh downe all pride, and wisdom which is not grounded on God, 26 Shewing whome God hath chosen to confound the wisdom of the world.

 my brethren, of you by them that are of the house of ¹ Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Nowe this I say, that euery one of you sayth, I am Pauls, and I am ² Apollos, and I am of Cephas, and I am Chyffes.

13 Is Christ diuided? was Paul crucified for you? either were ye baptized into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but ³ Crispus, and ⁴ Gaius,

15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the householde of Ste-phanus: furthermore knowe I not, whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent mee not to baptize, but to preach the Gospell, not with ⁵ wis-dome of wordes, lest the crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs, which are saved, it is the ⁶ power of God.

19 For it is written, ⁷ I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will cast away the vnderstanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the ⁸ Scribe? where is the ⁹ disputer of this world? hath not God made the wisdom of this world foolishnesse?

21 For seeing the worlde by wisdom knewe not God in the wisdom of God, it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching to saue them that beleeue:

22 Streng also that the Iewes require a ¹⁰ signe, and the Grecians seeke after wis-dome.

23 But we preach Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnesse:

24 But vnto them which are called,
 both of the Iewes and Grecians we preach Christ, the power of God, and the wi doine
 of God,

25 For the foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weakenesse of God is stronger then men.

26 For brethren, you see your calling, howe that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weak things of the world, to confound the mightie things,

28 And vile things of the worlde and things which are despised, hath God chosen, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are.

29 That no flesh should reioyce in his presence.

30 But ye are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made, vnto vs ¹¹ wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption,

31 That according as it is written, ¹² He that reioyceth, let him reioyce in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee putteth for example his manner of preaching, which was according to the tenor of the Gospel, 8 Which Gospell was contemptible and hid to the carnall, 10 And againe honorable and manifest to the spirituall.

And I, brethren, when I came to you,
 A cane not with ¹³ excellencie of wordes, or of wisdom, shewing vnto you the ¹⁴ testimonie of God.

2 For I esteemed not to knowe any thing among you, save Iesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was among you in ¹⁵ weaknesse, and in feare, and in much trembling,

4 Neither stood my worde, and my preaching in the ¹⁶ ensing speech of mans wis-dome, but in plaine euidence of the Spirit and of power,

5 That your faith should not bee in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wisdom among them that are ¹⁷ perite: not the wisdom of this world, neither of the ¹⁸ princes of this world, which come to nought,

7 But wee speake the wisdom of God in a mysterie, euen the hid wisdom, which God had determined before the world, vnto our glorie.

8 Which none of the princes of this world hath knownen: for had they knowne it, they would not haue crucified the ¹⁹ Lord of glorie.

9 But as it is written, ²⁰ The things which eye hath not seene, neither eare hath heard, neither came into mans heart, are, which God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reueiled them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit ²¹ searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, sauing the Spirit of man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

 Spirit of the worlde, but the Spirit, which is of ²³ G D, that wee might knowe the ²⁴ things that are giuen to vs

C H A P. III.

3 Paul rebuketh the fables and outshours thereof.
7 No man ought to attribute his salvation to the ministers, but to God. 10 That they beware erroneous doctrine. 11 Christ is the foundation of his Church.
16 The dignity and office both of the ministers, and also of all the faithful.

And I could not speake unto you, brethren, as unto spiritual men, but as unto carnall, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I gave you milke to drinke, and not meate: for ye were not yet able to beate it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnall: for where as there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whom ye beleeued, and as the Lord gave to every man?

6 I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase.

7 So then, neither is hee that planteth any thing, neither hee that watereth, but God that giveth the increase.

8 And he that planteth, and he that watereth are one, and every man shall receive his wages according to his labour.

9 For wee together are Gods labourers: ye are Gods husbandrie, and Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God given to mee, as a skilfull master builder, I have layde the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let every man take heed how he buildeth upon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is layde, which is Jesus Christ.

12 And if any man builde on this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble, 13 Every mans worke shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by the fire: and the fire shall try every mans worke, as it tries gold.

fire shall try every mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that he hath built upon a bade, he shall receive wages.

15 If any mans worke burne, hee shall lose it, but he shall be safe himselfe: neither shall he be as it were by the fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceave himselfe. If any man among you seeme to be wise in this world, let him be a foole, that hee may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishnes with God: for it is written, He catcheth the wise in their owne craftinesse.

20 And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death: whether they be things present, or things to come, even all are yours,

23 And ye Christs, and Christs Gods, his ministers to his owne glory and the comfort of his Church.

C H A P. IIIII.

After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 Hee appealeth to Gods judgement, 7 Bearing downe their glorie which hindred them to prayse that, which they disprayed in him. 16 Hee sheweth what he requirerh on their part, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

Let a man looke of vs, as of the ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, that every man be found faithful.

3 As touching me, I passe very litle to be iudged of you, or of mans iudgement: no, I iudge not mine owne selfe.

4 For I knowe nothing by my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustificed: but hee that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore I iudge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkenesse, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall every man have prayse of God.

6 Nowe these things brethren, I have figuratively applied unto mine owne selfe and Apollos for your sakes, that ye might learne by vs, that no man presume above that which is written, that one shall not against another for any mans fault.

7 For who separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not received? if thou hast received it, why reioycest thou, as though thou haddest not received it?

e By our example. f To wit, from other men & preferreth thee.

8 Nowe ye are full : nowe yee are made rich : yee reigne as Kings without vs, and would to God yee did reigne, that wee also might reigne with you.

9 For I thinke that God hath set forth vs : the last Apostles, as men appointed to death : for wee are made a galling stocke unto the world, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are ^bfooles for Christes sake, and yee are wise in Christ : wee are weake, and yee strong : yee are honourable, and wee are despised.

11 Unto this houre we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certain dwelling place,

12 ^aAnd labour, working with our owne hands : we are reviled, and yet we blesse : we are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 ^aWe are euil spoken of, and we pray : we are made as the filth of the worlde, the off-scenting of all things, unto this tyme.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued children I admonish you.

15 For though yee haue tenne thousand instructors in Christ, yet haue ye not many fathers : for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithfull in the Lorde, which shall put you in remembrance of my wayes in Christ as I teach euery where in euery Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, ^aif the Lorde will, and will knowe, not the speech of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

20 For the ^akingdome of God is not in word, but in ^apower.

21 What will ye : shall I come vnto you with a rodde, or in loue, and in the spiritte of meekenesse?

CHAP. V.

^a Hereprooveth sharply their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest, ^b Warning them to excommunicate him, ^cTo embrace puritie, ^d And flee wickednes.

^a It is heard certainly, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not once named among the Gentiles, ^a that one shoulde haue his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed by and haue not rather sorrowed, that he which hath done this dedde, might be put from among you.

3 ^aFor I verely as absent in body, but present in spiritte, haue determined already, as though I were present, that he that hath thus done this thing,

4 When ye are gathered together, and my spiritte, ^a in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that such one, I say, by the power of our Lord Iesus Christ,

6 Your reioycing is not a good : ^a knowe ye not that a litle leauen leauneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that ye may bee a newe lump, ^a as ye are unleavened : for Christ our pastour is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs keepe the feast, not with old leauen, neither in the leauen of malicounnes and wickednes : but with the unleavened bread of sinceritie and truth.

9 I wrote vnto you in an Epistle, ^a that ye shoulde not company together with fornicatours,

10 And not altogether with the fornicatours of this worlde, or with the covetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters : for then yee must goe out of the worlde.

11 But nowe I haue written vnto you, that yee company not together : if any that is called a brother, be a fornicatour, or coneturous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.

12 For what haue I to doe, to iudge them also, which are without? doe yee not iudge them that are within?

13 But God iudgeth them that are without. But away therefore from among your selues that wicked man.

CHAP. VI.

^a Herebuketh them for going to lawe together before the heathen. ^b Christians ought rather to suffer. ^c Hee reprooveth the abusing of Christians libertie, ^d And sheweth that we ought to serue God purely, both in body and in soule.

^a Are any of you, hauing busines against another, be iudged vnder the ^a vniust, and not vnder the Saints?

2 ^a Doe ye not knowe, that the Saints shall iudge the worlde? If the worlde then shall be iudged by you, are ye unworthie to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Knowe ye not that we shall iudge the Angels? howe much more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then ye haue iudgements of things pertaining to this life, let by them which are least esteemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no not one, that can iudge betwene his brethren?

6 But a brother goeth to lawe with a brother, and that vnder the iudels.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault esteemed your iudge : for it is most easie to iudge betwene brethren, ^a for impotencie of minds.

5 Defraude not one another, except it be with consent for a time, that yee may giue your selues to fasting and prayer, and againe come together, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speake this by permission, and not by commandement.

7 For I would that all men were euen as I my selfe am: but euerie man hath his proper gift of God, one after this maner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto the vnmarrid, and vnto the widowes, it is good for them if they abide euen as I doe.

9 But if they cannot abstaine, let them marrie: for it is better to marrie then to burne.

10 And vnto the married I command, not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband.

11 But and if she depart, let her remaine vnmarrid, or be reconciled vnto her husband, and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the remnant I speake, and not the Lord, If any brother haue a wife, that beleueth not, if he be content to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that beleueth not, if he be content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vbeleuening husband is sanctified by the wife, and the vbeleuening wife is sanctified by the husband, els were your children vncleane: but now are they holy.

15 But if the vbeleuening depart, let him depart: a brother or a sister is not in subjection in such things: but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt saue thine husband: O what knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to euery man, as the Lord hath called euery one, so let him walke: and so ordayne I in all Churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised: let him not gather his vncircumcision: is any called vncircumcised: let him not be circumcised.

cation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? feare not for it: but if yet thou mayest be free, vse it rather.

22 For if he that is called in the Lord being a seruant, is the Lordes free man: likewise also hee that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 ¶ We are boughte with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Nowe concerning virgins, I haue no commaundement of the Lord; but I giue mine aduice, as one that hath obeyed mercy of the Lord to be faithfull.

26 I suppose then this to bee good for the present necessity: I meane, that it is good for a man to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wiue.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgin marrie, she sinneth not: neuerthelesse, such shall haue trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, I hereafter that both they which haue wiues, bee as though they had none:

30 And they that weepe, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vse this worlde, as though they used it not: for the facion of this worlde goeth away.

32 And I woulde haue you without care. The vnmarrried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the worlde, how hee may please his wife.

34 There is difference also betweene a virgin and a wife: the vnmarrried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that shee may be holy, both in body and in spirite: but shee that is married, careth for the things of the worlde, how hee may please her husband.

35 And this I speake for your owne commoditie, not to cangle you in a snare, but that yee followe that, which is honest, and that yee may cleaue fast vnto the Lord without separation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is becomingly for his virgin, if shee passe the flower of her age, and neede so require, let him doe what he will, hee sinneth not: let them be married.

37 Neuerthelesse, he that standeth firme in his heart, that hee hath no neede, but hath power ouer his owne will, and hath decreed in his heart, that hee will keepe his virgin, he doeth well.

38 So then he that giueth her to marriage, doeth well, but hee that giueth her not to marriage, doeth better.

39 The wife is bounde by the Law, as long as her husband liueth: but if her husband be dead, she is at libertie to marry with whom she will, onely in the Lord.

40 But shee is more blessed, if she so abide, in my iudgement: and I thinke that I haue also the spirite of God.

CHAP. viii.

1 He rebuketh them that vse their libertie to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices.

9 And sheweth how men ought to behaue them toward such as be weake.

As touching things sacrificed vnto idoles, wee knowe that we all haue knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.

2 Nowe, if any man thinke that hee knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to knowe.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is knowen of him.

4 Concerning therefore meate sacrificed vnto idoles, wee knowe that an idole is nothing in the worlde, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many lordes)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whom are all things, and wee in him: and one Lord Iesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowledge: for some haue conscience of the idole, untill this houre, eare as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weake, is defiled.

8 But meate maketh not vs acceptable to God: for neither if we eate, haue we the more: neither if we eate not, haue we the lesse.

9 But take heede least by any meanes this power of yours be an occasion of falling to them that are weake.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weake, be emboldened to eate those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

11 And though thy knowledge shall the more weake brother perishe, for whome Christ died, 12 Nowe when yee sinne so against the brethren, and wounde their weake conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

13 Wherefore if meate offendeth my brother, I wil eat no flesh while the worlde standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

i For that part that was burnt, was deuoured of the altar, and the other was due vnto the priests by the lawe.

k For now we haue no iust cause against me, seeing that I preached the Gospel freely vnto you.

l Seeing hee is charged to preach, he must willingly and earnestly follow it: for if he do it by constraint, he doth not his duty. m That I be not chargeable to them vnto whom I preach, seeing that they thinke that I preach for gaires,

A I not an Apostle? am I not free? haue I not reene Iesus Christ our Lord? are ye not my worke in the Lord?

2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse I am vnto you: for ye are the scale of mine Apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defence to them that examine me, is this,

4 Haue wee not power to eate, and to drinke?

5 We haue we not power to leade about a wife being a sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 We Iouely and Barnabas, haue not we power not to worke?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vinegarde, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Say I these things according to man? saith not the Lawe the same also?

9 For it is written in the Lawe of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take care for oxen?

10 Either saith hee it not altogether for our sakes? for our sakes no doubt it is written, that he which eareth, should eare in hope: and that he that sowereth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 If we haue sowed vnto you spirituall things, is it a great thing if wee reape your carnall things?

12 If others with you bee partakers of this power, are not wee rather? neuertheless, we haue not used this power: but suffer all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Doe ye not knowe, that they which minister about the holy things, eate of the things of the Temple? and they which waite at the altar, are partakers with the altar?

14 So also hath the Lord ordeined, that they which preach the Gospel, should lue of the Gospel.

15 But I haue vsed none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it should be to done vnto mee: for it were better for mee to die, then that any man should make my reioycing bayne.

16 For though I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is layde vpon mee, and woe is vnto me, if I preach not the Gospel.

17 For if I do it willingly, I haue a reward: but if I doe it against my will, notwithstanding the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? verely that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ free, that I abuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet haue I made my selfe seruaunt vnto all men, that I might winne the moe.

20 And vnto the Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as though I were vnder the Lawe, that I may winne them that are vnder the Lawe:

21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Lawe (when I am not without Lawe as pertaining to God, but am in the Law through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Lawe.

22 To the weakke I become as weakke, that I may winne the weakke: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all meanes saue some.

23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might bee partaker thereof with you.

24 Knowe ye not, that they which run in a race, runne all, yet one receiveth the prize: so runne, that ye may obtaine.

25 And euery man that pouerth masteries, abstaineth from all things: and they doe it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.

26 I therefore to runne, not as vncertainely: to fight I, not as one that beatech the aire.

27 But I beate downe my body, and bring it into subiection, least by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my selfe should be reproboued.

CHAP. X.

He feareth the with the example of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23 And offence of their neighbour.

Meourer, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, that all our fathers were vnder the cloude, and all passed through the sea,

2 And were all baptised vnto Moses, in the cloude, and in the sea,

7 For a man ought not to couer his head: forasmuch as he is the * image and glory of God: but the woman is the * glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

10 Therefore ought the woman to haue Gods glory in power on her head, because of the Angels, whose his maie-

Churches of God.

17 C Now in this that I declare, I praye you not, that yee come together, not with profite, but with hurt.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissensions among you: and I helene it to bee true in some part.

19 For there must be² heresies euen among you, that they which are approued among you, might be knowne.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lordes supper.

21 For euery man when they shoulde eate, takeh his owne supper afoze, and one is hungrie, and another is drunken.

22 Haue yee not houses to eate and to drinke in: despitte ye the Church of God, and shame them that haue not? what shall I say to you? Shall I praise you in this? I praye you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the³ Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, that the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betraied,ooke bread:

24 * And when hee had giuen thanks, he broke it, and sayde, Take, eate: this is my body, which is⁴ broken for you: this doe ye in remembrance of me.

25 After the same maner also heooke the cuppe, when hee had supped, sayng, This cuppe is the newe Testament in my blood:
this doe as oft as yee drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as yee shall eate this bread, and drinke this cuppe, yee shewe the Lordes death till he come.

27 Wherfore, whosoever shall eate this bread, and drinke the cup of the Lord⁵ vn-worthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 * Let a man therefore examine himselfe, and so let him eate of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For hee that eateth and drinketh vn-worthily, eateth and drinketh his owne damnation, because hee discerneth not the Lordes body.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many⁶ sleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our selues, we should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are cha-stened of the Lord, because we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherfore, my brethren, when ye come together to eate, tarte one for another.

34 And if any man bee hungrie, let him eate at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I let in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

1 The diuersitie of the giftes of the holy Ghost ought to be used to the edifying of Christes Church,

2 As the members of mans body serue to the vse of one another.

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren,
I would not haue you¹ ignorant.

2 We knowe that ye were Gentiles, and were caried away vnto the² diuinae idoles, as ye were led.

3 Wherfore, I declare vnto you, that no man³ speaking by the⁴ Spirit of God, calletth Iesus⁵ execrable: alio no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diuersities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euery man, to⁶ profit withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the word of wisdom: and to another the word of knowledge, by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is giuen a faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the giftes of healing, by the same Spirit:

10 And to another⁷ the operations of great workes: and to another, prophetic:
and to another, the discerning of spirits:
and to another, diuersities of tongues:
and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 * And all these things worketh euen the selfe same Spirit, distributing to euery man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are wee all baptized into⁸ one body, whether we be Iewes or Grecians, whether we be bond, or free, and haue bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member,
but many.

15 If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God disposed the members euery one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were al one member, where were the body?

20 But now we are there many members, yet but⁹ one body.

21 And the eye cannot say vnto the hand,
I haue no neede of thee: nor the head agaue to the feete, I haue no neede of you.

22 Wea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to bee¹⁰ more feeble, supper we are incorporate into Christs body to be gouerned by the same Spirit. m And therefore whatsoeuer the diuersitie is, yet the profite ought to bee common, and serue to the edification of the 25 Lest there shoulde bee any diuision in the body: but that the members shoulde haue the same care one for another.

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, he setteth forth the nature, office, and prayse thereof.

I though I speake with the tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brasse, or a tinkling cymball.

2 And though I had the gift of prophetic, and knew all secrets, and all knowledge, yea, if I had a all faith, so that I could remoue mountains, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my bodie, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffereth long: it is bountifull: loue enuiceth not: loue doeth not boast it selfe: it is not puffed vp:

5 It is diuyneth not: it seeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh not euill:

6 It reioyeth not in iniquitie, but reioyeth in the truth:

7 It suffereth all things: it beleeueth all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth all things.

8 Loue doeth neuer fall away, though that prophesyings bee abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge vanish away.

9 For wee know in part, and we phetic in part.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in part, shall be abolished.

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I understood as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For nowe wee see through a glasse darkely: but then shall wee see face to face, nowe I knowe in part: but then shall I knowe euen as I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, and loue, euen these three: but the chiefest of these is loue.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spiritual giftes, 2 But chiefly prophesying. 34 He commandeth women to keepe silence in the Church, 40 And sheweth what good order ought to be observed in the Church.

Now after loue, I conser spiritual giftes, and rather that ye may prophetic.

2 For he that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man heareth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh secret things.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 Wee that speaketh strange language, edifieth himselfe: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I woulde that ye all spake strange languages, but rather that ye prophecied: for greater is he that prophesieth, then hee that speaketh diuers tongues, except hee expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shall I profite you, except I speake to you, either by reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 Whereouer, things without life which giue a sounde, whether it bee a pipe or an harpe, except they make a distinction in the soundes, howe shall it bee known what is piped or harped?

8 And also if the trumpet giue an vncertaine sounde, howe shall prepare himselfe to battell?

9 So likewise you, by the tongue, except ye vnderstand that haue signification, how shall it be vnderstoode what is spoken: for ye shall speake in the ayre.

10 There are so many kindes of voyces (as it cometh to passe) in the world, and none of them is diuine.

11 Except I knowe then the power of the voyce, I shall be vnto him that speaketh, a Barbarian, and he that speaketh, shall be a Barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so, forasmuch as ye conser spiritual giftes, seeke that ye may excell vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Therefore, let him that speaketh a strange tongue, pray, that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirit prayeth: but mine understanding is without fruit.

g The mysteries of God.

h Or, taught of God.

b Vnderstandeth him.

c By the spiritual gift, which hee hath receiued.

d For he profiteth none saue himselfe.

e The prophetic expoundeth that which God hath reueiled: and the doctrine teacheth that which hee hath giuen vs to vnderstand.

f Your words shall be lost: for ye shall neither glorifie God thereby, nor profit man.

g Or, as the thing requires.

h That is, they may be able to be vnderstood.

i He condemneth the Corinthians of barbarousnesse in that thing, whereby they thought to haue attained to the greatest praise of eloquence.

j And doth his part.

k Not in respect of him that prayeth, but in respect of the Church, which is nothing edified thereby.

o Wee are more careful to couer them.

p Every one in his office for the preservation of the body.

q For all Churches dispersed throughout the world are diuers members of one body.

r Or, every one for his part.

s As deacons.

t Or, do you then desire the best giftes.

u If the Angels had tongues, and I had the vse thereof, and did not bestow them to profite my neighbour, it were nothing but vaine babbling.

v Faith is here taken for the gift of doing miracles, which the wicked may haue, as Mat. 7.

w 22. and also for that faith (called historical) which beleeueth the mightie power of Christ, but cannot apprehend Gods mercie through him: and this demils haue, James 2. 19.

x And therefore is separated from charitie, but the faith that iustifieth in effect cannot, as 1. Iohn 2. 9.

y Mat. 17. 20. Luke 17. 6.

z Not that it suffereth it selfe to be abused, but iudgeth others by all loue and humanitie.

a Which may bee without offence of Gods word.

b Which it selfe shall be perfected in the world to come, and not abolished: but the manner of knowing and teaching shall cease, when we shall be before Gods presence, where we shall neither neede scholes nor teachers.

c That is, imperfectly.

d Or, teach.

p Of Gods curse when they are not vnderstood.
q By hearing his secret faults ripe vp, and his finnes reprobued by Gods word, he is compelled by his owne conscience to prayse God.
r Which expounding the worde of God.
s Paul heareth as yet with their weaknes, because also these were the giftes of God: but yet he sheweth that they shoulde not passe this measure, that first one, after another, and at the vtmost the third should reade in a strange language, which was to declare Gods miracle in the gift of tongues: but chiefly he commandeth that nothing be done without interpretation. t Or, learning, which Gods spirit moueth them to utter,

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the vnderstanding also: I will sing with the spirit, but I will sing with the vnderstanding also.
16 Els, when thou blestest with the spirit, howe shall hee that occupieth the roome of the vblearned, say Amen, at thy giuing of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?
17 For thou verely giuest thanks well, but the other is not edified.
18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.
19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake five wordes with mine vnderstanding, than I might also instruct others, then tenne thousand wordes in a strange tongue.
20 Brethren, be not children in vnderstanding, but as concerning malicoulnesse be children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.
21 In the Law it is written, * By men of other tongues, and by other languages will I speake vnto this people: yet so shall they not heare me, sayeth the Lorde.
22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleue, but to them that beleue not: but prophesying serueth not for them that beleue not, but for them which beleue.
23 If therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tongues, there come in they that are vblearned, or they which beleue not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wittes?
24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleueth not, or one vblearned, he is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all.
25 And so are the secretes of his heart made manifest, and so he will fall downe on his face and worship God, and say plainly that God is in you in dedde.
26 What is to be done then, brethren? When ye come together, according as euery one of you hath a Psalm, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.
27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most, by thre, and that by course, and let one interpret.
28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to him selfe, and to God.
29 Let the Prophets speake, two, or thre, and let the other iudge.
30 And if any thing be reuociled to another that sitteth by, let the first holde his peace.
31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.
32 And the spirits of the Prophets are

* Subject to the Prophets.
33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saints.
34 * Let your women keepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subject, as also the Church of Christ.
35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbandes at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.
36 Came the worde of God out from you: either came it vnto you ouely?
37 If any man thinke himselfe to be a Prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge, that the things, that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lorde.
38 * And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.
39 Wherefore brethren, couet to prophesie, and forbid not to speake languages.
40 Let all things be done honestly and by order.
abuse afore, yet he referred it to this place to be reprobued, because there he brought it for another purpose. Gene. 3. 16. y Are yee the first or the last Christians, that yee neither submit your selues to the Churches, of whome ye haue receiued the Gospel: nor haue respect to the others, to whome the Gospel doeth likewise appertaine? z To haue vnderstanding of spiritual things, a If any man haue iudgement, let him acknowledge that I speake of the spirit of God, and so let him obey: and if he haue no iudgement, let him acknowledge his ignorance, and trouble not the Church, but credite the that are learned.

He proueth the resurrection of the dead, 3 And first that Christ is risen: 22 Then that we shall rise, 52 And the manner how.
M Brethren, I declare vnto you Gal. 1. 11. the Gospel, which I preached vnto you, which ye haue also receiued, and where in ye continue.
2 And wherby ye are saued, if yee keepe in memorie, after what manner I preached it vnto you, * except yee haue beleueed in vaine.
3 For first of all, I deliuered vnto you that which I receiued, howe that Christ died for our finnes, according to the Scriptures.
4 And that he was buried, and that hee arose the third day, according to the Scriptures.
5 * And that hee was seene of Cephas, then of the twelve.
6 After that, hee was seene of mo then fiftie hundred brethren at once: whereof many remaine vnto this present, and some also are asleepe.
7 After that hee was seene of James: then of all the Apostles.
8 * And last of all hee was seene also of me, as of one borne out of due time.
9 For I am * the least of the Apostles, which am not meete to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.
10 * But by the grace of God, I am that the instrument and minister, and giueh the whole glory to God.

e Christ's death is not effectual, except hee rise from death.
f For if Christ be swallowed vp of death, there remaineth no hope of life any more.

g As mortification & remission of sinnes depend on Christs death: so our quickning and restoring to life stand in his resurrection.
h You are not forgiven nor sanctified.

i For, only for this lifes sake.

Col. 1. 18. rem. 1. 5

i As by the offering of the first fruite the whole fruit is sanctified, so by Christ which is the first that is rayed, all have assurance of the resurrection.

k Who rose first from the dead to take possession in our flesh for vs his members.
l To wit, the faithfull.

1. Thes. 4. 15.

m Christ as he is man and head of the Church, is sayd to be subiect to God: but in respect of the worlde, is king of heaven and earth. This kingdom standeth in governing the faithfull, and overcoming the adversaries, even death the chiefest: which done, Christ being perfected with all his members, shall as he is man, and head of the Church, with his fellow heires deliuer his kingdom, and be subiect to God, with whome and the holy Ghost in Godhead he is equal. Psalm 110. 1. after 2. 34, 35. heb. 1. 13. & 10. 13. Psalm 8. 6. heb. 2. 8. n We shall be perfectly fulfilled with his glory and felicitie. o That is, as dead, and because they were but newly come to Christ, would be baptized before they died. p Except these things bee true of Christs kingdom and his subiection, what shall become of them whome the Church dayly baptizeth, for to destroy death in them, which is the end of Baptisme, and so they to rise againe?

I am: and his grace which is in mee, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleued.

12 ¶ Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen from y^e dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.

15 And we are found also false witnesses of God: for wee haue testified of God, that hee hath rayed vp Christ: whome hee hath not rayed vp, if so be the dead be not rayed.

16 For if the dead be not rayed, then is Christ not rayed.

17 And if Christ be not rayed, your faith is vaine: ye are yet in your sinnes.

18 And so they which are asleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life honestly wee haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But now he is Christ risen from the dead, and made the first frutes of them that slepe.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, euen so in Christ shall all be made aliu.

23 But euen man in his owne order: the first frutes is Christ, afterwarth, they that are of Christ, at his coming shall rise againe.

24 Then shall be the ende, when he hath deliuered vp the kingdom to God, euen the Father, when hee hath put downe all rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For hee must raigne till he hath put all his enemies vnder his feete.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed, is death.

27 ¶ For hee hath put downe all things vnder his feete. (And when he sayth that all things are subdued to him, it is manifest that hee is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, then shall the Sonne also him selfe be subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may be all in all.

29 ¶ Els, what shall they doe which are baptized? for dead: if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?

30 Why are we also in icopardie euerie houre?

31 ¶ By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die dayly.

32 If I haue fought with beasts at Ephesus after the manner of men, what advantage it mee, if the dead bee not rayed vp? let vs eate and drinke: for to morrow we shall die.

33 Be not deceived: euill speakings corrupt good maners.

34 Awake to liue righteously, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God. I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead rayed vp: and with what body come they forth?

36 ¶ Foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.

37 And y^e which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body y^e shall be, but bare corne, as it falleth, of wheate, or of some other.

38 But God giueth it a body at his pleasure, euen to euerie seede his owne body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fildes, and another of birdes.

40 There are also heauenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of y^e heauenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is another glory of the sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption, and is rayed in incorruption.

43 It is sown in dishonour, and is rayed in glory: it is sown in weakenes, and is rayed in power.

44 It is sown a naturall body, and is rayed a spiritual body: there is a naturall body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 As it is also written, The first man Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a quickening Spirit.

46 Notwithstanding that we was not first made y^e which is spirituall: but y^e which is naturall, and afterwarth that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth earthly: the second man is the Lord from heauen.

48 As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.

49 And as we haue borne the image of the earthly, so shall we beare the image of the heauenly.

50 This I say I, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherite the kingdome of God, neither doeth corruption inherite incorruption.

51 Beholde, I shew you a secrete thing, We shall not all sleepe, but we shall all bee changed, body as it is now, till it be made newe by the Spirit of Christ.

c When the Lord cometh to iudgement, some of the Saints shall be aliu, whom he will change euen as if they were dead, so that this change is in stead of death to them.

q I take to witness all my sorrows wherein

I may iustly reioyce in the Lord, that I haue sustained them among you.

CHAP. XVI.

He putteth them in remembrance of the gathering for the poore brethren at Ierusalem. 13 Wee must perseuere in faith, in the loue of Christ and our neighbour. 15 After his commendations hee wisheth to them all prosperitie.

Concerning * the gathering for the Saints, as I haue ordeined in the Churches * of Galatia, so doe ye also.

2 * Every first day of the weeke, let every one of you put aside by himselfe, and lay vp as God hath prospered him, that then there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I am come, whomsoever ye shall allowe * by letters, then will I send to bring your liberalitie vnto Ierusalem.

4 And if it be meete that I goe also, they shall goe with me.

5 Nowe I will come vnto you, after I haue gone through Macedonia (for I will passe through Macedonia)

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, or winter with you, that ye may bring mee on my way whithersoever I goe.

7 For I will not see you now in my passage : but I trust to abide a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 And I will tary at Ephesus untill Pentecost.

9 For a great doore & effectuell is opened vnto me : but there are many aduersaries.

10 I Woe if Timotheus come, see that he be without feare with you : for hee worketh the worke of the Lord, euen as I doe.

11 Let no man therefore despise him : but conuey him forth in peace, that hee may come vnto mee : for I looke for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him, to come vnto you with the brethren : but his minde was not at all to come at this tyme : notwithstanding he will come when he shall haue convenient time.

13 Cease to eat and fast in the faith : quite you like men, & be strong.

14 Let all your things be done in loue.

15 Nowe, brethren, I beleeue you (ye knowe the house of Stephanas, that it is the first frutes of Achaia, and that they haue giuen themselves to minister vnto the Saints)

16 That ye be obedient euen vnto such, and to all that helpe with vs and labour.

17 I am glad of the conuining of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus : for they haue supplied the want of you.

18 For they haue comforted my spirite and yours : acknowledge therefore such men.

19 The Churches of Asia salute you : Aquila and Priscilla with the Church that is in their house, salute you greatly in the Lord.

20 All the brethren greete you. Greete ye one another with an holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine owne hand.

22 If any man loue not the Lord Iesus Christ, let him be had in execration, & ye excommunicate to death.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

As nothing can be written either so perfectly, or with so great affection & zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and resisted by some : so the first Epistle written by Saint Paul to the Corinthians, besides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue toward them fore passing all naturall affections : which did not onely not profite all, but hardened the hearts of many to remane in their stubbornesse, and contemne the Apostles authoritie. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iust occasions to come vnto them, wrote this Epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the worke which he had begun among them. First therefore he wisheth them well in the Lord, declaring that that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authoritie, yet they were necessary schoollings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And whereas they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabilitie and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherly affection, he should have bene compelled to vse rigour and seueritie. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former Epistle, it came through their fault, as is now euidēt both in that, that hee pardoneth the trespasser, seeing he doeth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to vndermine his authoritie, hee confirmeth their arrogant brags, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnesse of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnesse of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorowe which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercie and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the truth, sought onely to fill their bellies, whereas hee contrariwise, sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore at his coming he menaceth such as rebell against his authoritie, that he will declare by liuely example, that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 He declareth the great profite that cometh to the faithfull by their afflictions. 15. 17 And because they should not impute to lightnesse, that he desired his coming contrary to his promise, he prometh his constancie, both by the sinceritie of his preaching, and also by the immutable truth of the Gospel. 21 Which truth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

And an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, and our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God, which is at Corinthus with all y^e Saints, which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be with you, & peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 * Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith wee our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation, and y^e saluation, which is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is steadfast concerning you, in as much as wee knowe that as yee are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, wee would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, howe wee were pressed: but of measure passing strength, so that wee altogether doubted, euen of life.

9 Yea, wee received the sentence of death in our selues, because wee should not trust in our selues, but in God, which rarely the doeth.

10 Who deliuered vs from so great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whome we trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs, a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whome we trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs,

II * So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many thanks may be given by many persons for vs.

12 For our reioycing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godly purenesse, and not in fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God wee haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to your wards.

13 For we write none other things vnto you, then that ye reade, or else that ye acknowledge, and I trust yee shall acknowledge vnto the ende.

14 Euen as yee haue acknowledged vs partly, that we are your reioycing, euen as ye are ours, in the day of our Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that yee might haue had a double grace,

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth toward Iudea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vnlighenesse: or minde I those things which I minde, according to the flesh, that with me should be a Yea, yea, & Nay, nay?

18 Yea: God is faithfull, that our word toward you, was not Yea, and Nay.

19 For the Soune of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, that is, by me, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was Yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glory of God through vs.

21 And this God which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anointed vs,

22 Who hath also sealed vs, & hath giuen the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts,

God to witness, that he preacheth the truth. He preached nothing vnto them but onely Iesus Christ, who is the most constant and infallible truth of the Father. 23 Nowe, I call God for a record vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

24 Not that wee haue dominion ouer your faith, but wee are helpers of your ioy: for by a faith ye stand.

In that I say I came not be- cause I would spare you, I meane not that I haue authoritie to alter true religion, or to binde your consciences: but that I am Gods minister to confirme and comfort you. x And faith is not in subiection to man.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue towards them, 7 Requiring likewise that they would bee favourable to the incessant adulterer, seeing he dia repent. 14 Hee also reioyceth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine, 17 Consoling thereby such quarell pickers, as vnder pretence of speaking against his person, sought nothing but the ouerthrowe of his doctrine.

But I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in heavinesse.

2 For if I make you sorie, who is hee then that should make mee gladd, but the same which is made sorie by me?

3 And I wrote this same thing vnto you, lest when I came, I should take heavinesse of them, of whome I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioy is the ioy of you all.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye should bee made sorie, but that yee might perceiue the loue which I haue, specially vnto you.

5 And if any haue caused sorow, the same hath not made mee sorie, but partly (lest I should more charge him) you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

7 So that nowe contrariwise yee ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest the same should bee swallowed up with ouermuch heavinesse.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you would confirme your loue towards him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might knowe the pfoofe of you, whether ye would be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for verely if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for you sakes forgave I it in the sight of Christ.

11 Least Satan should circumuise vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christes Gospell, and a doore was opened vnto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of the, & went away vnto Macedonia.

14 Nowe thanks be vnto God which alwayes maketh vs to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the fauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place.

15 For wee are vnto God the sweete sauour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them which perish.

16 To the one wee are the fauour of the crosse death, vnto death, and to the other the fauour of life, vnto life, and who is sufficient for these things?

17 For wee are not as many, which onely consider make merchandise of the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God in the sight of God we live in Christ.

thinketh it folly: and bringeth againe life to them, who in his death beholde their life. Rom. 11. 15, 16, Rom. 16. 18, chap. 4. 2. m That is, which preach for gaine, and corrupt it to serue mens affections, for through Christ, or of Christ.

CHAP. III.

Hee taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the truth which he preached, 6 And to exalt his Apostleship against the brags of the false Apostles, 7. 13 Hee maketh comparison betwixt the Law & the Gospell.

Do we begin to praiſe our selves againe? a Meaning him who made us as some other, Epistles of selfe, T. motheus, recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you? and Siluanus.

2 We are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is understood and read of all men.

3 In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ ministered by vs, and written, not with yoke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust haue we through Christ to God:

5 Not that wee are sufficient of our selves, to thinke any thing, as of our felices: but our sufficiency is of God.

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the newe Testament, not of the letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giueth life.

7 If then the ministration of death written with letters, and ingrauen in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not beholde the face of Moyses for the glory of his countenance (which glory is done away)

8 Howe shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of righteousness exceede in glory.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glory.

11 For if that which should be abolished, was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seeing then that we haue such trust, we vse great boldnesse of speech.

13 And wee are not as Moyses, which must put a vail vpon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the end to be vnder condemnation. k Meaning, of the Gospell, whi. h declareth that Christ is made our righteousness. l In preaching the Gospell, Exod. 34. 35. m Moyses shewed the Lawe as it was covered with shadowes, so that the Lewes eyes were not lightened, but blinded, and so could not come to Christ, who was the end thereof: againe the Gospel fetterth forth the glory of God cleerly, not couering our eyes, but driving the darknesse away from them.

a Which was giuen to Saran, but now doth repent, b Which made you and him sorie in my former epistle.

c After this adulterer did repent and amend, Paul did so vterly cast off all sorow, that he denieth that in manner he was any white sorie. d And so should increase his sorow which I would diminish. e The adulterer, which interceded his mother in lawe.

f That at my intercession you would declare by the publike consent of the Church that you embrace him againe as a brother: seeing he was excommunicate by the common consent.

of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for until this day remaineth the same covering vntaken away in the reading of the olde testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.

15 But euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vaile is laid ouer their hearts.

16 Neuerthelesse, when their heart shall be turned to the Lorde, the vaile shall be taken away.

17 Nowe the Lord is the Spirit, and where the spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But wee all beholde as in a mirror the glorie of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glorie to glorie, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. III.

1 He declareth his diligence and roundnesse in his office. 2 And that which his enemies took for his disadvantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which hee endured, hee turneth to his great advantage. 3. 11. 17 Shewing what profite commeth thereby.

Therefore, seeing that wee haue this ministration, as wee haue receiued mercie, we faint not:

2 But haue cast from vs the clokes of shame, and walke not in craftinesse, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the truth we approue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospell be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the mindes, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospell of Christ, which is the image of God, should not shine vnto them.

5 For wee preach not our selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

6 For God that commanded the light to shine out of darkenesse, is hee which hath shined in our hearts, to giue the light of the knowledge of the glorie of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 But we haue this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God and not of vs.

8 We are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distresse: in pouertie, but not overcome of pouerty.

9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

10 Euery where we beare about in our body the dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For we which live, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 Albeit the ministers of the Gospell be contemptible as touching their person, yet the treasure which they carry is nothing worse or inferior. 1 All the faithfull, and chiefly the Ministers must drinke of this cup, because the world hateth Christ: and also that the members should be conformable to Christ their head, yet by the mightie power of Christ, who ouercame death, they are made conquerors.

12 So then death worketh in vs, and k By our death life in you.

13 And because wee haue the same Spirit of faith, according as it is written, I beleeeue, and therefore haue I spoken, wee also beleeeue, and therefore speake.

14 Knowing that hee which hath rayled vpon the Lord Iesus, shall be rayled vpon also by Iesus, and shall set vs with you.

15 For all thinges are for your sakes, that most plenteous grace by the thanksgiuing of many, may redound to the people of God.

16 Therefore we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed dayly.

17 For our light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre more excellent, and an eternall weight of glory:

18 While wee looke not on the thinges which are seene, but on the thinges which are not seene: for the thinges which are seene, are temporall: but the thinges which are not seene, are eternall.

also you all, which are both partakers of mine affliction and comfort, may abundantly set forth his glory. || Or, be corrupted. o Groweth stronger. p Which is called in respect of the euertlasting life.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul proceedeth to declare the willie that commeth by the crosse. 4 Howe wee ought to prepare our selues vnto it, 5 By whome, 9 And for what end. 14. 19 He setteth forth the grace of Christ. 20 And the office of ministers, and all the faithfull.

For we knowe that if our earthly house of this tabernacle be destroyed, we haue a building giuen of God, that is, an house not made with handes, but eternall in the heauens.

2 For therefore wee sigh, desiring to be clothed in our house, which is from heauen.

3 Because that if we be clothed, we shall not be found naked.

4 For in deede wee that are in this tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, because we would not be vnclodeth, but would be clothed vpon, that mortality might be swallowed vpon of life.

5 And he that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are alway bold, though wee knowe that whiles wee are at home in the body, wee are absent from the Lorde.

7 For we walke by faith, and not by sight.

8 Neuerthelesse, wee are bolde, and loue rather to remooue out of the body, and to dwell with the Lord.

9 Therefore also wee couet, that both dwelling at home, and remoouing from home, we may be acceptable to him.

10 For we must all appeare before the iudgement seate of Christ, that euery man may receiue the thinges which are done in his body, according to that hee hath done, whether it be good or euill.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the iudgement,

By our death you haue life: so that the fruit of our afflictions commeth to you. 1 The same faith by the inspiration of the holy Ghost.

Thal. 116. 10.

m In deliueing vs from these dangers, which is as it were a restoring from death to life.

n That I being deliuered and restored to you againe, may not onely my selfe giue God thanks for this infinite benefite of deliuerance, but

h Albeit the ministers of the Gospell be contemptible as touching their person, yet the treasure which they carry is nothing worse or inferior. 1 All the faithfull, and chiefly the Ministers must drinke of this cup, because the world hateth Christ: and also that the members should be conformable to Christ their head, yet by the mightie power of Christ, who ouercame death, they are made conquerors.

h He proueth the dignitie of his ministerie by the fruite and effect thereof, which is to bring men to Christ.

i By embracing the same faith which we preach to others.

k As they, which more esteemed the outward shew of wisdom and eloquence, then true godlinesse.

l As the aduersaries said, which could not abide to heare them praised.

m Our follie serueth to Gods glorie.

n Therefore whosoever giueth place to ambition or vaine glorie, is yet dead, and liueth not in Christ.

o As the onely faithfull do in Christ.

p According to the estimation of the world: but as he is guided by the Spirit of God.

q We doe not esteeme, nor commend Christ himselfe now, as he was an excellent man: but as hee was the Sonne of God partaker of his glory, and in whom God dwelled corporally: and doe you thinke, that I will flatter my selfe or any man in setting forth his gifts? Yea, when I praise my ministerie, I commend the power of God: when I commend our worthe faces, I praise the mightie power of God set forth by vs wormes and wretches. r Let him be regenerate, and renouance himselfe, els all the rest is nothing. 1sa. 43. 19. reuel. 21. 5. f Therefore without Christ we cannot enioy the life euerlasting, nor come to God. t That is, a sacrifice for sinne. u By imputation, when we shall be clad with Christs iustice.

the Lorde, we persuade men, and we are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also that wee are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For wee praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that ye may haue to answere against them, which reioyce in the face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether wee be out of our wit, we are it to God: or whether wee be in our right minde, we are it vnto you.

14 For the loue of Christ constraineth vs: because we thus iudge, that if one bee dead for all, then were all dead.

15 And he died for all, that they which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto themselves, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe.

16 Wherefore, henceforth know we no man e after the flesh, yea though wee had known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth we know him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him be a new creature. * All things are passed away: beholde, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto himselfe by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

19 For God was in Christ, and reconciled the world to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the word of reconciliation.

20 Nowe then are wee ambassadours for Christ: as though God did beleeue you through vs, we pray you in Christs stead, that ye be reconciled to God.

21 For hee hath made him to be sinne for vs, which knewe no sinne, that wee should be made the righteousness of God in him.

Therefore without Christ we cannot enioy the life euerlasting, nor come to God. t That is, a sacrifice for sinne. u By imputation, when we shall be clad with Christs iustice.

CHAP. VI.

1 An exhortation to Christian life, 11 And so beate him like affection, as hee doth them: 14 Also to keepe themselves from all pollution of idolatrie both in body and soule, and to haue none acquaintance with idolaters.

¶ We therefore as workers together beleeue you, that ye receiue not the grace of God in vaine.

2 For by faith, * I haue heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of saluation haue I succoured thee: beholde now the accepted time, beholde now the day of saluation.

3 Wee giue no occasion of offence in any thing, that our ministerie should not be reprehended.

4 But in all things wee appoone our selues as * the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in prisons, in tumults, in labours,

6 By watchings, by fastings, by purity, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindenesse, by the holy Ghost, by loue vnfeined,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour, and dishonour, by euill report and good report, as deceiuers, and yet true:

9 As vnknewen, and yet known: as dying, and beholde, we liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

10 As toeping, and yet alway reioyting: as poore, and yet make many rich: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O Corinthians, our mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

12 We are not kept strait in vs, but ye are kept strait in your owne bowels.

13 Nowe for the same recompence, I speake as to my children, * Ye you also enlarged.

14 * Be not vnequally yoked with the infidels: for * what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousnesse: and what communion hath light with darkenesse?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath the beleeuer with the infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idols? * for ye are the Temple of the living God: as God hath sayd, * I will dwell among them, and walke there: and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 * Wherefore, come out from among them, and separate your selues, sayeth the Lord: and touch none vncleane thing, and I will receiue you.

18 * And I will be a Father vnto you, and ye shall be my sonnes and daughters, sayeth the Lord Almighty.

Therefore, come out from among them, and separate your selues, sayeth the Lord: and touch none vncleane thing, and I will receiue you.

2 Receiue vs: we haue done wrong to no man: wee haue consumed no man: we haue ^a defrauded no man.

3 I speake it not to your condemnation:
for I haue layde before, that ye are in our hearts, to die and liue together.

4 I ble great boldnesse of speech toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and an exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but wee were troubled on every side, fightings without, and terroues within.

6 But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the coming of Titus:

7 And not by his coming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when hee tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your seruent minde to mee-uarde, so that I reioyced much more.

8 For though I made you ioye with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent:
for I perceiue that the same epistle made you ioye, though it were but for a season.

9 I now reioyce, not that ye were so-rie, but that ye were ioyed to repentance: for ye loved godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.

10 * For godly sorrow causeth repentance unto saluation, not to be repented of:
but the worldly sorrow causeth death.

11 For beholde, this thing that ye haue bene: godly ioye, what great care it hath brought in you: yea, what ^a clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what feare: yea, what great desire: yea, what zeale: yea, what punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues, that ye are pure in this matter.

12 Therefore, though I wote vnto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.

13 Therefore wee were comforted, because ye were comforted: but rather wee reioyced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed:
but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in truth, even so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, when hee remembereth the obedience of you all, and howe with feare and trembling ye receiued him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 and Christ, he exhorteth them to continue in relieuing the poore Saints: commending their good beginning.

23 After hee commendeth Titus and his fellowes vnto them.

W^e doe you also to wit, brethren, of the Churches of Macedonia,

2 Because in great tryall of affliction their ioye abounded, and their most extreme pouertrie ^b abounded vnto their riche liberalitie.

3 For to their power (I beare recorde) yea, and beyonde their power, they were willing.

4 And prayed vs with great instance that wee would receiue the grace, and fellowship ^c of the ministering which is toward the Saints.

5 And this they did, not as we looked for:
but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord,
and after vnto vs by the will of God,

6 That we should exhort Titus, and hee had begunne, so hee would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as ye abound in euery thing, in faith and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, even so see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 This say I not by commandement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore proue I the naturallesse of your loue.

9 For ye knowe the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that hee being riche for your sakes became poore, that ye through his pouertrie might be made riche.

10 And I shewe my minde herein: for this is expedient for you which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to ^d will, a peere agee.

11 Nowe therefore performe to doe it also, that as there was a readines to wil, euen so ye may performe it of that which ye haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath,
and not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither is it that other men should be saled and you grieved.

14 But upon like condition, at this time your abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be ^e equalitie:

15 As it is written, * Wee that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and hee that gathered little, had not the lesse.

16 And thanks be vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.

17 Because hee accepted the exhortation, yea, hee was so careful, that of his owne accord hee went vnto you.

18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose praye is in the Gospell throughout all the Churches,

19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a fellow in our iour-ney concerning this grace that is ministered by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt minde)

20 Any thing this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance that is ministered by vs,

21 * Proudning for honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.

a This benefite of God appeared in two things:
first, that the Macedonians being in so great afflictions were so prompt to helpe others:
and next, that being in great po-uertrie, were very liberal towards others.

b So that a most abundant riu-er of riches flowed out of their pouertrie.

c So he calleth
their liberalitie, either because they were the bestowers of Gods graces, or because they re-ceiued them of God freely, and so they desired
Paul to see to the distribution thereof.

22 And wee haue sent with them our brother whom wee haue oft times prouoed to bee diligent in many things, but nowe much more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.

23 Whether any doe enquire of Titus, he is my fellowe and helper to youtward: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and the gloyp of Christ.

24 Wherefore shewe toward them, and before the Churches the ppoofe of your loue, and of the reioycing that wee haue of you.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions coming to them, 6 He exhorteth to giue almes chearefully, 7 Shewing what fruite will come thereof.

As touching the ministring to the Saintes, it is superfluous for mee to write vnto you.

4 For I know your readinesse of minde, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, & say, that Achaia was prepared a yeeere ago, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Nowe haue I sent the brethren, least our reioycing ouer you shoulde bee in vaine in this behalte, that ye (as I haue sayde) be readie:

4 Least if they of Macedonia come with me, and finde you vnprepared, we (I neede not to say, you) shoulde be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appoynted afore, that it might be readie, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of sparing.

6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and he that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As euery man wisheth in his heart, so let him giue, not * grudgingly, or of necessity: * For God loueth a cheerefull giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that ye alwayes haue * all sufficiencye in all things, may abound in euery * good worke.

9 * As it is written, He hath sparcked a bnoade, and hath giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for euer.

10 Also hee that findeth seede to the sower, will minister likewise bread for foode, and multiply your seede, and increase the fruits of your beneuolence.

11 That on all partes ye may bee made rich vnto all liberalitie, which causeth through vs thanksgiuing vnto God.

12 For the ministrition of this seruice not onely supplieth the necessities of the Saintes, but also is abundant by * thanksgiuing of many vnto God.

13 (Which by the experiment of this ministrition paye God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberall distribution to them, and to all men)

14 And by * their prayer for you, preclaring after you greatly, for the abundance of grace of God in you.

15 Thankes therefore be vnto God for his vnspokeable gift.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false Apostles and defendeth his authoritie, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And how he sheweth it.

Nowe I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meeknes, and gentlenesse of Christ, which wholen I am present among you, am * base, but am bolde toward you being absent:

2 And this I require you, that I neede not to bee bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, which esteeme vs as though wee walked * according to the flesh.

3 Reuerencelesse, though wee walke in the flesh, yet wee doe not warrre after the flesh.

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mightie through God, to cast downe holdes)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ.

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke ye on things after the appearance? If any man trust in himselfe that he is Christes, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christes, euen so are we Christes.

8 For though I shoulde boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lorde hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I shoulde haue no shame.

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as it were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, * saith he, are fore and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as we are in worde by letters when wee are absent, such wil we be also in dede, when we are present.

12 For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them, which praple themselves: but they vnderstand not that they * measure themselves with themselves, and compare their selues with themselves.

13 But wee will not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, * but according to the * measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For we stretch not our selues beyond our measure, as though wee had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also haue we come in preaching the Gospell of Christ.

15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: charis, of other mens labours: and wee hope, when your faith shall increase, to * haue, who are by you according to the worl, f Haui a These words his backbiters vied, thinking thereby to diminish his authoritie, as verse 10. b As though we boasted of our selues by a carnal affection.

c Meaning a certain man among them, which thus spake of Paul.

d He that measureth any thing must haue some line or measure to mete by, and not to measure a thing by it selfe: so these boasters must measure themselves by their worthe ades: and if they will compare with others, let them shew what countreys, what cities, and people they haue wonne to the Lord: for who will prayse that soldier, which onely at the table can finely talke of warres, & when he cometh to the brunt, is neither valiant nor expert?

e That is, the giftes and vocation, which God had giuen him to winne others by.

k That is, by whome Christs glory is greatly aduanced.

a Least they should giue but litle, distrustfully to impouerish themselves thereby, he sheweth that God will so blesse their liberal hearts, that both they shall haue ynough for themselves, and also to helpe others withall. b That ye may doe good and helpe others at all times.

Psal. 112. 9.

c David speaketh of y man which feareth God and loueth his neighbour.

d Besides that by their liberality God shalbe praised, they also shall be commended to God by their prayers whom they haue holpen, yea, and all men shall reuerence them, as being endued with an excellent gift of God.

e Or, greatly affected for and you.

F God gaue the whole world to the Apostles to preachin, so that Paul here meaneth by the line, his portion of the countries where he preached.

16 And to preach the Gospell in those regions which are beyonde you: not to reioyce in another mans line, that is, in the things that are prepared already.

17 * But let him that reioyceeth, reioyce in the Lord.

18 For hee that prayeth himselfe, is not allowed, but he whom the Lord prayeth.

CHAP. XI.

1 Hee declareth his affection toward them, 2 The excellencie of his ministerie, 3 And his diligence in the same. 13 The fishes of the false Apostles. 16 The persuerie iudgement of the Corinthians. 22 And his owne prayes.

W Dulle to God yee could suffer a litle my foolishnesse, and in deede, yee suffer me.

2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godly ielousie: for * I haue prepared you for one husband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ.

3 But I feare least as the * serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your minnes should be corrupt from the simplicitie that is in Christ.

4 For if he that commeth preacheth an other * Iesus then him towhome wee haue preached: or if yee receiue another * spirit then that which yee haue receiued: eyther another Gospell, then that yee haue receyued, ye might well haue suffered him.

5 Certeyn I suppose that I was not inferior to the very chiefe Apostles.

6 And though I bee rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue beie made manifest to the vtmost, in all things.

7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that ye might be exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospell of God freely?

8 I robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you, and had neede, I was not slouthfull to the hindrance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied, and in all thinges I kept and will keepe my selfe, that I shoulde not * be getenous to you.

10 * The trueth of Christ is in me, that this reioycing shall not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that will I doe: that I may cutte away occasion from them which desire * occasion, that they might be found like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

a He calleth the praying of himselfe dotage, to the which thing the arrogancie of the false Apostles compelled him, who sought nothing els, but to ouerthrowe the Church by diminishing the authoritie of his ministerie.

b To speake in mine owne commendation.

c The minister nameth Christ and his Church as husband and wife by the preaching of the Gospel.

Gen. 3. 4.

d That is, more perfect doctrine concerning Christ Iesus.

e More excellent gifts of the spirit by other mens preaching.

f They did not preach Christ more purely then I did: for in this behalfe I was nothing inferior to the chiefe Apostles.

g That is, w^e no worldly eloquence.

h Other Churches relieved me.

i Hee did not onely labour with his handes for his liuing, but in his extreme pouerie preached diligently without burdening any man, or else waxing slouthfull to doe his duetie to euery man. Chap. 12. 13. actes 20. 34. k Let not the trueth of Christ be thought to be in me, if I suffer my ioy to be shut vp, which I haue conceiued of Grecia. l To slander, if I shoulde receive wages.

13 For such false * Apostles are deceitful workes, and transforme themselves into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no maruell: for Satan himselfe is transformed into an Angell of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme themselves, as though they were the ministers of righteousness, whose ende shall bee according to their workes.

16 I lay againe, let no man thinke, that I am foolish: or els take me euen as a foole, that I also may boast my selfe a litle.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

18 Seeing that many reioyce * after the flesh, I will reioyce also.

19 For yee suffer fooles gladly, because that ye are wise.

20 For ye suffer euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himselfe, if a man hitte you on the face.

21 * I speake as concerning the reproch: as though that wee had bene * weake: but wherein any man is bolde (I speake foolishly) I am bold also.

22 They are Hebrewes, * to am I: they are Israelites, to am I: they are the seede of Abraham, to am I:

23 They are the ministers of Christ, (I speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes above measure: in prison more plentifully: in death oft.

24 Of the Iewes * five times receiued I fourtie stripes * laue one.

25 * I was thrie * beaten with rods: I was * once stoned: I suffered thrie * shipwacke: night and day haue I bene in the deepe sea.

26 In iourneying I was often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nation, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the citie, in perils in wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren, his boasting upon the Corinthians. 14 Hee sheweth what good will he beareth them, 20 And prometh to come unto them.

IT is not expedient for me no doubt, to reioyce: for I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 * I knowe a man * in Christ aboute foureteene yeeres agoone, (whether he were in the body, I cannot tell, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the third heauen.

3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4 Now that he was taken vp into paradise, heard words which cannot bee spoken, which are not possible for man to utter.

5 Which a man will I reioyce: of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I woulde reioyce, I shoulde not be a foole: for I will say the truth, but I reframe lest any man shoulde thinke of mee aboute that he seeth in mee, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I shoulde bee exalted out of measure, through the abundance of revelations, there was giuen vnto mee a pricke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I shoulde not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lorde: that it might depart from me.

9 And hee saide vnto me; My graces is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect through weakenesse. Verie gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe: yee haue compelled mee: for I ought to haue bene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferior vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it, wherein yee were inferior vnto other Churches, * except that I haue not bene so slouthfull to your hinderance: forgive me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be slouthfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay by for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestowe, and will be bestowed for you: soles: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But see it that I charged you not:

* yet so much as I was craftie, I tooke you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing: walked we not in the same same spirit: walked we not in the same steppes?

19 Again, thinke ye that we excuse our selues vnto you: wee speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I feare, least when I come, I shall not finde you such as I woulde: and that I shall be found vnto you as such as yee woulde not, and least there bee strife, enuy, toxtat, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, and discords.

21 I feare least when I come againe, my God shall abate me among you, and I shall bewaile many of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the uncleannesse, and fornication, and wantonnesse, which they haue committed.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

THe Galatians, after they had bene instructed by Saint Paul in the truer of the Gospel, gaue place to false Apostles, who entering in, in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, and taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that he proueth that the granting thereof, is the overthrowe of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the restaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had bene sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authoritie, but spake of himselfe, he proueth both that he is an Apostle ordeyned by God, and also that he is not inferior to the rest of the Apostles. Which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, prouing y^e we are freely iustified before God without any works or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but now they are not onely vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the truer and the ende thereof is come: wherefore men ought now to imbrace that libertie, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences feared in the gremmes of mans traditions: finally he sheweth wherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises appertaine therunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffered themselves to be seduced by the false apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Lawe were necessary to saluation, 8 And detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 Hee sheweth his owne conversation, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to be equall with the chiefe Apostles.

Paul * an Apostle (not of men, neyther by man, but by Iesus Christ, and God the Father which hath raised him from the dead)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, vnto the Churches of Galatia:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Iesus Christ,

4 Which gaue himselfe for our finnes, that hee might deliuer vs from this present euill worlde, according to the will of God, euen our Father,

5 To whom be glorie for euer and euer, Amen.

6 I marnasse that ye are so soone remooued away vnto another Gospel from him that hath called you in the grace of Christ,

7 Which is not another Gospel, sane that there be some which trouble you, and intend to peruer the Gospel of Christ.

8 But though that I were, or an Angel from heauen preach vnto you otherwise, then that which I haue preached vnto you, let him be accursed.

9 As I was layde before, so say I now againe, if any man preach vnto you otherwise then that ye haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For I now preach I mans doctrine, or Gods? or doe I about to please men? for if I shoulde please I men, I were not the seruuant of Christ.

11 I certify you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of mee, was not after man.

12 For neyther receiued I it of man, neyther was I taught it, but by the reuelation of Iesus Christ.

13 For yee haue heard of my conuersation in time past, in the Iewish religion, howe that I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it,

14 And profited in the Iewish religion aboute many of my companions of mine owne nation, and was much more zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace)

16 To reueale his sonnes in mee, that I shoulde preach him among the Gentiles, immediately I communicated not with flesh and blood:

from the mothers wombe, and thirdly his calling. 3. 8. m That is, with any man, as though I had neede of his counsell to approue my doctrine.

f If it were possible, that an Angel shoulde so doe: whereby Paul declareth the certaintie of his preaching.

g Since that of a Pharise I was made an Apostle.

e For what is more contrary to our free iustification by faith, then the iustification by the Law, or our workes therefore to ioyne these two together, is to ioyne light with darkenesse, death with life, and doeth vnto the overthrowe the Gospel.

17 Neither came I againe to Jerusalem to them which were Apostles before mee, but I went into Arabia, and turned againe into Damascus.

18 Then after three yerres I came againe to Jerusalem to visite Peter, & abode with him fifteene dayes.

19 And none other of the Apostles sawe I, save James the Lordes brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, I witness before God, that I lie not.

21 After that, I went into the coastes of Syria and Cilicia: for I was unknown by face unto the churches of Judea, which were in Christ.

22 But they had heard onely some say, He which persecuted vs in time past, now preacheth the faith which before hee destroyed.

23 And they glorified God for me.

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 He sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 And that he is nothing inferiour to other Apostles: 21 Pea, and that he hath reprobred Peter the Apostle of the Jewes, 16 After he cometh to the principall scope, which is to proue that iustification onely cometh of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe.

Then fouenteene yerres after, I went by againe to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and tooke with me Titus also,

2 And I went by revelation, and communicated with them of the Gospell which I preach among the Gentiles, but particularly with them that were chiefe, least by any means I should ruine, or had ruine & in vaine.

3 But neither yet Titus which was with me, though hee were a Grecian, was compelled to be circumcised,

4 For all the false brethren that crept in: who came in privily to vie out our libertie, which we have in Christ Iesus, that they might bring vs into bondage.

5 To whome we gave not place by subjection for an houre, that the truth of the Gospell might continue with you.

6 And of the which seemed to be great, I was not taught (what they were in time pasted, it maketh no matter to mee: God accepteth no mans person) nevertheless, they that are the chiefe, did communicate nothing with me.

7 But contrariwise, when they sawe that the Gospell over the uncircumcision, was committed unto me, as the Gospell over the circumcision was unto Peter:

8 (For bee that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship over the Circumcision, was also mightie by me toward the Gentiles)

9 And when James, and Cephas, and John knew of the grace that was given unto me, which are counted to be pillars, they came to mee and to Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should preach unto the Gentiles, e But approued my doctrine perfite in all pointes, f In token that we all agreed in doctrine.

unto the Gentiles, and they unto the Circumcision,

10 Warning only that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstood him to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from James, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the Circumcision.

13 And the other Jewes dissembled likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I sawe, that they went not the right way to the truth of the Gospell, I saide unto Peter before all men, If thou beeing a Jewe, liuest as the Gentiles, and not like the Jewes, why constrainest thou the Gentiles to doe like the Jewes?

15 Wee which are Jewes by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Lawe, but by the faith of Iesus Christ: euen wee I say, have believed in Iesus Christ, that we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe, because that by the workes of the Lawe no flesh shall be iustified.

17 ¶ If then while wee seeke to be made righteous by Christ, wee our selues are founde sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God forbid.

18 For if I build againe the things that I have destroyed, I make my selfe a trespasser.

19 For I through the Lawe am dead to the Lawe, and that I might liue unto God, I am crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue, yet not I nowe, but Christ liueth in me: and in that that I now liue in the flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued me, and giuen himselfe for me.

21 I doe not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousness be by the Lawe, then Christ died without a cause.

of the Lawe, or by the hearing of faith preached?

3 We be so foolish that after ye haue begun in the spirit, ye would now be made perfect by the flesh?

4 Haue ye suffered so many things in vaine: if so be it be euen in vaine.

5 Ye therefore that manifesteth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it through the workes of the Lawe, or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 Ye rather as Abraham beleueed God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness.

7 Knowe ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foreseeing, that God would iustifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospell vnto Abraham, saying, * In thee shall all the Gentiles be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the workes of the Lawe, are vnder the curse: for it is written, * Cursed is every man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Lawe, to doe them.

11 And that no man is iustificed by the Lawe in the sight of God, it is euident: * for the iust shall lue by faith.

12 And the Lawe is not of faith: but * the man that shall doe those thinges, shall lue in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Lawe, when hee was made a curse for vs (for it is written, * Cursed is every one that hangeth on tree)

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus, that we might receive the promises of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speake as men doe. * Though it be but a mans covenant, when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or addeth any thing thereto.

16 Nowe to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. He sauyeth not, And to the seedes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy seede, as of one, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Lawe which was foure hundred and thirtie yeeres after, can not dissolue the covenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it shoulde make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Lawe, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serueth the Law? It was added because of the transgressions, till the seede came vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordered by Angels in the hand of a Mediator.

20 Nowe a Mediator is not a Mediator of one: but God is one.

21 Is the Lawe then against the promise of God? God forbid: for if there had bene a Lawe giuen which could haue giuen life, surely righteousness shoulde haue bene by the Lawe.

22 But the Scripture hath concluded all vnder sinne, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ shoulde bee giuen to them that beleue.

23 But before faith came, we were kept vnder the Lawe, and shut vp vnto the faith, which shoulde afterwarde be reuelled.

24 Wherefore the Law was our schoolmaster to bring vs to Christ, that we might be made righteous by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer vnder a schoolmaster.

26 For ye are all the sonnes of God by faith, in Christ Iesus.

10 Ye obserue dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeres.

14 And the triall of me which was in my flesh, yee despised not, neither abhorred: but yee receiued mee as an Angel of God, yea, as Christ Iesus.
15 What was then your felicitie? For I beare you record, that if it had bene possible, yee woulde haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to me.
16 Am I therefore become your enemye, because I tell you the trueth?
17 They are ielous ouer you: amisse: yea, they woulde exlude you, that ye should altogether loue them.

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, one by a seruant, and one by a free woman.
23 But hee which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and he which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.

28 Therefore, brethren, we are after the manner of Isaac, children of the promise.
29 But as then hee that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit, euen so it is nowe.
30 But what saith the Scripture? * Put out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruant shall not bee heire with the sonne of the free woman.

7 That he might shewe in the ages to come, the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindnesse toward vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by grace are yee saued through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gift of God,

9 Not of works, least any man shoulde boast himselfe.

10 For wee are ^a his workmanship created in Christ Iesus into good workes, which God hath ordained, that wee shoulde walke in them.

11 Wherefore ^a remember that yee being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called ^a uncircumcision of them, which are called ^a circumcision in the flesh, made with handes,

12 That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, and were aliens from the common wealth of Israel: and were ^a strangers from the ^a covenants of promise, and had no ^a hope, and were ^a without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Iesus, yee which once were farre off, are made nere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the ^a stoppe of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his ^a flesh the hatred, that is, the Lawe of commandments which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one newe man in himselfe, so making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one ^a body by his ^a crosse, and slay hatred thereby,

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were ^a far off, and to them that were nere.

18 ^a For through him wee both haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Nowe therefore yee are no more strangers and foreigners: but citizens with the Saintes, and of the household of God,

20 And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Iesus Christ himselfe being the chiefe corner stone,

21 In whome all the building coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the Lord,

22 In whome ye also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

3 That is, that God by reuelation hath

4 Whereby when yee reade, yee may knowe mine vnderstanding in the mysterie of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was ^a not opened vnto the founnes of men, as it is now reuelled vnto his holy Apostles, and Prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles shoulde be inheritors also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Whereof I am made ^a a Minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto me ^a through the working of his power.

8 ^a Euen vnto me the least of all Saintes is this grace giuen, that I shoulde preach among the ^a Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the fellowship of the ^a mysterie is, which from the beginning of the worlde hath bene hid in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent, that now vnto ^a principalities and powers in heavenly places might bee knownen ^a by the Church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternall purpose, which hee wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord, 12 By whome wee haue boldnesse and entrance with confidence, by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that yee faint not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, 15 Of whom is named the whole ^a salvation in ^a heauen and in earth)

16 That he might graunt you according to the riches of his glory, that yee may bee strengthened by his Spirit, in the inner man,

15 Take heede therefore that yee walke circumspectly, not as fooles, but as wile,

16 Redeeming the time: for the dayes are euill.

17 Wherefore, bee yee not vnwile, but vnderstand what the will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunken with wine, wherein is excess: but be fulfilled with the Spirit,

19 Speaking vnto your selues in psalmes, and hymnes, and spiritual songs, singing, and making melodie to the Lorde in your hearts,

20 Singing thankes alwayes for all things vnto God euen the Father, in the Name of the Lord Iesus Christ,

21 Submitting your selues one to another in the feare of God.

22 C * Clauus, submit yourselves vnto your hu-band, as vnto the Lord.

23 * For the hu-band is the viues head, euen as Christ is the head of the Church, and the same is the saviour of his body,

24 Therefore, as the Church is in subjection to Christ, euen so let the viues be to their hu-band in every thing.

25 C * Hu-band, loue your viues, euen as Christ loued the Church, and gaue himselfe for it,

26 That he might sanctifie it, & cleanse it by the washing of water through y worde,

27 That he might make it vnto himselfe a glorious Church, not hauing a spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy, and without blame.

28 So ought men to loue their viues, as their owne bodies: he that loueth his wife, loueth himselfe.

29 For no man euer yet hated his owne flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, euen as the Lord doeth the Church.

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones,

31 * For if this cause shall a man leaue father and mother, and shall cleaue to his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great secret, but I speake concerning Christ, & concerning y Church.

33 Therefore every one of you, doe ye lo: every one loue his wife, euen as himselfe, and let the wife see y she feare her hu-band.

34 As the Church lo: the body of himselfe, that he might sanctifie it, & cleanse it by the washing of water through y worde,

35 That he might make it vnto him-
selfe a glorious Church, not hauing a spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy, and without blame.

1 How children should beaue themselves toward their fathers and mothers, 4 Likewise parents toward their children, 5 Seruants toward their masters, 9 Masters toward their seruants. 12 An exhortation to the spiritual battell, and what weapons the Christians should fight withall.

Children, * obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 * Honour thy father and mother (which is the first commaundement with promises)

3 That it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest lue long on earth.

4 And yee, fathers, y prouoke not your children to wrath: but bring them vp in instruction and information of the Lord.

5 * Seruants, bee obedient vnto them that are your masters, * according to the flesh, with feare and trembling in singlenesse of your hearts as vnto Christ,

6 Not with seruice to the eye, as men pleasers, but as the seruants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart,

7 With good will seruing the Lord, and not men.

8 And knowe yee that whatsoeuer good thing any man doeth, that same shall hee receiue of the Lorde, whether he be bond or free.

9 And yee masters, doe the same things vnto them, putting away threatening: and knowe that euen your master also is in heauen, neither is there * respect of person with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the allaults of the deuill.

12 For wee wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against * principalities, against powers, and against the worldly gouernours, the princes of the darkenes of this worlde, against spiritual wickednesse, which are in the hie places.

13 For this cause take vnto you the whole armour of God, that yee may be able to resist in the euill day, and hauing finished all things, stand fast.

14 Stand therefore, and your loynes girded about with veritie, and hauing on the breastplate of a righteounesse,

15 And your feete shod with the p paration of the Gospel of peace.

16 Abooue all, take the shield of faith, wherewith yee may quench all the fierie darts of the wicked,

17 * And take the helmet of saluation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the worde of God.

18 And pray alwayes with all manner prayer and supplication in the Spirit: and watch therewith all with all persuerance and supplication for all Saints,

19 * And for me, that utterance may be giuen vnto mee, that I may open my mouth boldly to publish the secret of the Gospel.

The Epistle of Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGUMENT.

PAUL being warned by the holy Ghost to goe to Macedonia, played first a Church at Philippi a citie of the same country: but because his charge was to preach the Gospell vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he traueiled from place to place, till at the length he was taken prisoner at Rome: whereof the Philippians being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with reliefe vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein he commendeth them that they stood manfully against the false apostles, putting them in minde of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrink: for the Gospell thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to flee ambition, and to embrace modestie, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who should instruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himself would also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crosse then the false apostles, hee confuteth their false doctrine, by prouing only Christ to be the end of all true religion, with whom we haue all things, and without whom we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, & his resurrection our iustification. After this follow certaine admonitions both particular and general, with testification of his affection toward them, and thankful accepting of their beneuolence.

CHAP. I.

1 Saint Paul discovereth his heart toward them, 3 By his thanksgiuing, 4 Prayers, 8 And wishes for their saue and saluation. 7. 12. 20 Hee sheweth the fruite of his crosse, 15. 27 And exhorteth them to vnitie, 28 Ananias.

PAUL and Timotheus the seruants of Iesus Christ, to all the Saints in Philippi, which are at Bishops, and Deacons:

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 * I thanke my God, hauing you in perfect memorie,

4 (Alwayes in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnesse)

5 Because of the fellowship which yee haue in the Gospell, from the first day day vnto now.

6 And I am perswaded of this same thing, that hee that hath begunne this good worke in you, will performe it vntill the day of Iesus Christ.

7 As it becommeth mee so to iudge of you all, because I haue you in remembrance, that both in my bandes, and in my defence and confirmation of the Gospel, you all were partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart roote in Iesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abound, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That ye may discern things that differ one from another, that yee may be pure, and without offence, vntill the day of Christ.

11 Filled with the fruites of righteousnesse, which are by Iesus Christ vnto the glory and praye of God.

12 ¶ I would yee vnderstood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto mee, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospell,

13 So that my bandes in Christ are famous throughout all the iudgement hall, and in all other places,

14 In so much that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldened through my bandes, and dare more frankly speake the word.

15 Some preach Christ, euen through enuie and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one part preach Christ of contention and not purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bandes:

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel.

18 What then? yet Christ is preached all manner of wayes, whether it be under a pretence, or sincerely: and I therein ioy: yea, and will ioy.

19 For I knowe that this shall turne to my saluation, through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ.

20 As I heartily looke for, and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, so now Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to mee both in life, and in death advantage.

g That so you increase in godlines, that not only ye can put difference betweene good & euill: but also that ye profit more and more without slipping backe, or standing in a stay. h Righteousnesse is the tree, good works the fruite. i Which I susteine for Christs sake.

He exhorteth them above all things to humilitie, whereby pure doctrine is chiefly maintained, 19 Promiſing that hee and Timotheus will ſpeedily come unto them, and exhorteth the loving of Epaphroditus.

10 * That at the Name of Jeſus ſhould every knee bow, both of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things under the earth,

11 * And that every tongue ſhould confeſſe that Jeſus Chriſt is the Lord, unto the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my beloved, as yet have alwayes obeyed, not as in my preſence onely, but now much more in mine abſence, ſo make an ende of your owne ſaluation with feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deed, euen of his good pleaſure.

14 Doe all things without * murmuring and reaſonings,

15 That ye may be blameleſſe, and pure, and the ſonnes of God without rebuke in the middeſ of a naughty and crooked nation, among whom ye ſhine, as * lights in the world,

16 Holding forth the word of life, that I may reioyce in the day of Chriſt, that I have not runne in vaine, neither have laboured in vaine.

17 Yea, and though I be * offered by you on the ſacrifice, and ſervice * of your faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all.

18 For the ſame cauſe alſo be ye glad, and reioyce with me.

19 And I truſt in the Lord Jeſus to ſend * Timotheus ſhortly unto you, that I alſo may be of good comfort, when I knowe your ſtate.

20 For I have no man like minded, who will faithfully care for your matters.

21 * For all I ſeeke their owne, and not that which is Jeſus Chriſt.

22 But ye know the proofe of him, that as a ſonne with the father, hee hath ſerved with me in the Goſpel.

23 Him therefore I hope to ſend alſoone as I know howe it will goe with me.

24 And truſt in the Lord, that I alſo my ſelfe ſhall come ſhortly.

25 But I ſuppoſed it neceſſarie to ſend my brother Epaphroditus unto you, my companion in labour, and fellow ſouldier, euen your meſſenger, and hee that miniſtered unto me ſuch things as I wanted.

26 For hee longed after you, and was full of heaveneſſe, becauſe ye had heard, that he had bene ſicke.

27 And no doubt hee was ſicke, very nere unto death: but God had mercie on him, and not on him onely, but on me alſo, leaſt I ſhould have ſorrow upon ſorrow.

28 I ſent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye ſhould ſee him againe, ye might reioyce, and I might be the leſſe ſorrowfull.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lord with all gladneſſe, and make much of ſuch:

30 Becauſe that for the * woocke of Chriſt hee was nere unto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfill that ſervice which was lacking on your part towards mee.

Moreouer, my brethren, reioyce in the Lord. It grieueth me not to write the ſame things to you, and for you it is a ſure thing.

2 Beware of dogges: beware of euill workers: beware of the concision.

3 For wee are the circumciſion, which worſhip God in the ſpirite, and reioyce in Chriſt Ieſus, and haue no confidence in the fleſh:

4 Though I might alſo haue confidence in the fleſh. If any other man thinke that he hath whereof he might truſt in the fleſh, much more I:

5 Circumciſed the eight day, of the kinred of Iſrael, of the tribe of Benjamin, * an Hebrew of the Hebrewes, * by the lawe a Phariſee.

6 Concerning zeale, I persecuted the Church: to bring the righteouſnes which is in the Law, I was unrebukeable.

7 But the things that were vantage vnto me, the ſame I counted loſſe for Chriſtes ſake.

8 Yea, doubtleſſe I thinke all things but loſſe for the excellent knowledge ſake of Chriſt Ieſus my Lord, for whom I haue counted all things loſſe, and doe iudge them to bee dung, that I might twine Chriſt.

9 And might bee found in him, that is, not hauing mine owne righteouſneſſe, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Chriſt, even the righteouſnes which is of God through faith.

10 That I may know him, and the vertue of his reſurrection, and the fellowſhip of his afflictions, and be made conſoyuable vnto his death.

11 If by any means I might attaine vnto the reſurrection of the dead:

12 I ſe not as though I had already attained to it, either were already perfect: but I followe, if that I may comprehend that for whole ſake alſo I am comprehended of Chriſt Ieſus.

13 Brethren, I count not my ſelfe, that I haue attained to it, but one thing I doe: I forget that which is behinde, and endeavour my ſelfe vnto that which is before.

14 And follow hard toward the marke, for the prync of the high calling of God in Chriſt Ieſus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if ye be otherwiſe minded, God ſhall reueile euen the ſame vnto you.

16 Neuertheleſſe, in that whereunto wee are come, let vs procede by one rule, * that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, bee followers of mee, and looke on them, which walke ſo, as yee haue vs for an example.

18 * For many walke, of whom I haue told you often, and now tel you weeping, that they are the enemies of the Croſſe of Chriſt, 19 Whoſe ende is damnation, whoſe God is their belly, and whole glory is to their ſhame, which minde earthly things.

20 But our conſolation is in heaven, from whence alſo wee looke for the Saviour, euen the Lord Ieſus Chriſt.

21 Who ſhall change our vile body, that it may bee faſhioned like vnto his glorious body, according to the working, whereby hee is able euen to ſubdue all things vnto himſelfe.

CHAP. IIIII.

1 Hee exhorteth them to be of honeſt conſcience, 15 And thanketh them, becauſe of the promiſſion that they made for him being in priſon, 21 And ſo concludeth with ſalutations.

Therefore, my brethren, be loued and longed for, my toy and my crowne, ſo continue in the Lord, ye be loued.

2 I pray Eudias, and beſeech Syntyche, that they be of one accord in the Lord.

3 Yea, and I beſeech thee, faithfull yoke-fellowe, helpe thoſe women, which laboured with me in the Goſpel, with Clement alſo, and with other my fellow labourers, whoſe names are in the booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I ſay, reioyce.

5 Let your patient minde be known vnto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 * Be nothing carefull, but in all things let your requettes be ſhewed vnto God in prayer, and ſupplication, with giuing of thanks.

7 And the peace of God which paſſeth all vnderſtanding, ſhall preſerue your hearts and mindes in Chriſt Ieſus.

8 Furthermore, brethren, whatſoever things are true, whatſoever things are honeſt, whatſoever things are juſt, whatſoever things are pure, whatſoever things pertaine to loue, whatſoever things are of good report, if there be any vertue, or if there be any praye, thinke on theſe things.

9 Which ye haue both learned and receiued, and heard and ſene in mee: thoſe things doe, and the God of peace ſhall be with you.

10 Nowe I reioyce alſo in the Lord greatly, that now at the laſt ye are reſtored againe to care for me, wherein notwithstanding ye were careleſſe, but ye lacked opportunitie.

11 I ſpeake not becauſe of want: for I haue learned in whatſoever ſtate I am, therewith to be content.

12 And I can be abſolued, and I can abound: euen where in all things I am inſtructed both to be full, and to be hungry, and to abound, and to haue want.

13 I am able to doe all things through the helpe of Chriſt, which ſtrengtheneth mee.

14 Notwithſtanding ye haue well done, that ye did communicate to mine affliction.

The Epistle of Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN this Epistle S. Paul putteth difference betweene the liuely, effectual, & true Christ, & the fained, counterfeite, and imagined Christ, whom the false apostles taught. And first, he confirmeth the doctrine, which Epaphras had preached, wishing them increase of faith, to esteeme excellency of Gods benefit toward them, teaching them also that saluation, and whatsoever good thing can be desired, standeth onely in Christ, whom onely we embrace by the Gospell. But forasmuch as the false bretheren would haue mised the Lawe with the Gospell, he toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay onely on Christ, without whom all things are but mere vanitie. And as for circumcision, abstinence from meates, external holinesse, worshipping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, he utterly condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stand in mortification of the flesh, newnesse of life, with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to al the faithful.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee giueth thanks vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayeth for the increase of their faith. 13 Hee sheweth vnto them the true Christ, and discovereth the counterfeite Christ of the false apostles. 25 He approveth his authoritie and charge, 28 And of his faithful executing of the same.

Paul an Apostle of IESVS Christ, by the will of God, and Timothyus our brother,

2 To them which are at Colosse, Saints and faithfull bretheren in Christ: Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 We giue thanks to God euen the Father of our Lorde Iesus Christ, alwayes praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Iesus, and of your loue toward all Saints,

5 For the hopes sake, which is laid vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the word of truthe, which is the Gospell.

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the worlde, and is fruitfull, as it is also among you, from the day that yee heard and truly knewe the grace of God,

7 As yee also learned of Epaphras our deare fellowe seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

8 Who hath also declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue by the spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that yee might be fulfilled with an owledge of all his will, in all wiledome, and spirituall enligning,

10 That ye might walke worthy of the Lorde, and please him in all things, being fruitfull in all good workes, and increasing in the knowledg of God,

11 Strengthened w all might through his glorious power, vnto all patience, and long suffering with ioyfulness,

12 Giving thanks vnto the father, which hath made vs meete to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from y power of darkenesse, and hath translated vs into the kingdome of his deare Sonne,

14 In whome wee haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiveness of sinnes, 15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the first borne of every creature.

16 For by him were all things created, which are in heauen, & which are in earth, things visible and invisible: whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalties, or powers, all things were created by him and for him,

17 And he is before all things, & in him all things consist.

18 And he is the head of the body of the Church: he is the beginning, and e the first borne of the dead, that in all things hee might haue the preeminence.

19 For it pleased the Father, that in him should all fulnesse dwell,

20 And by him to reconcile all things vnto himselfe, and to set at peace through the blood of his crosse both the things in earth, and the things in heauen.

21 And you which were in times past strangers & enemies, because your minde were set in euill workes, hath hee now also reconciled, a Having protested his good will toward them,

4 Hee admonisheth them not to turne backe from Christ, 8 To the seruice of Angels or any other invention, or els ceremonies of the Law, 17 Which haue finished their office, and are ended in Christ.

4 And this I say, least any man shoulde beguile you with enticing wordes:

8 Beware least there bee any man that spoyle you through * philosophy, and vaine deceit, through the traditions of men, according to the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 * For in him dwelleth all the fulnesse of the Godhead bodily.

10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all Principallitie and power:

11 In whom also ye are circumcised with * circumcision made without handes, by putting off the sinfull body of the flesh, through the circumcision * of Christ, 12 In that yee are * buried with him through baptism, in whome ye are also raised vp together through * the faith * of the operation of God which raised him from the dead.

13 * And ye which were dead in sinnes, and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, forgiving * you all your trespasses,

14 And putting out the * hand writing of ordinances that was against vs, which was contrary to vs, he euen tooke it out of the way, and fastened it vpon the crosse,

15 And hath * spoiled the Principallities, and powers, and hath made a shew of them openly, and hath triumphed over them in the same crosse.

16 Let no man therefore condemne you in meate and drinke, or in respect of an * holy day, or of the new moone, or of the Sabbath dayes,

17 Which are but a shadowe of things to come: but the body is in Christ.

18 * Let no man * at his pleasure * beare rule ouer you by humblenesse of minde and worshipping of Angels, aduancing himselfe in those things which hee neuer sawe, rashly pufft vp with his fleshy minde.

19 And holde h not the head, whereof all the body furnished and knit together by ioyntes and bandes, increaseth with the increasing of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the ordinances of the worlde, why, as though ye liued in the worlde, are ye burdened with traditions?

The first Epistle of Paul to the Theſſalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that the Theſſalonians had bene well inſtructed in the faith, perſecution (which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Goſpell) aroſe, againſt the which although they did conſtantly ſtand, yet S. Paul (as moſt careful for them) ſent Timothee to ſtrengthen them, who ſoone after admoniſhing him of their eſtate, gaue occaſion to the Apoſtle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be conſtant in faith, and to ſuffer whatſoeuer God calleth them vnto for the teſtimonie of the Goſpell, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the puritie of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be ſo purged, that ſome cockle remaine not among the wheate, ſo there were among them wicked men, which by moouing vaine and curious queſtions to ouerthrowe their faith, taught ſaileſly, as touching the poynt of the reſurrection from the dead: whereof hee briefly inſtructed them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to ſeek curiouſly to knowe the times, willing them rather to watch, left the ſudden comming of Chriſt come vpon them at vnawares: and ſo after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, hee endeth.

CHAP. I.

2 He thanketh God for them, that they are ſo ſedulous in faith and good workes, 6 And receiue the Goſpell with ſuch earneſtneſſe, 7 That they are an example to all others.

PAUL and Siluannus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Theſſalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Ieſus Chriſt: Grace be with you, and peace from God our father, and from the Lord Ieſus Chriſt.

2 We giue God thanks alwayes for you all, making mention of you in our prayers

3 Without ceaſing, remembering your effectual faith, and diligent loue, and the patience of your hope in our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, in y sight of God euen our Father,

4 Knowing, beloued brethren, that yee are elect of God.

5 For our Goſpell was not vnto you in worde onely, but alſo in power, and in the holy Ghoſt, and in much aſſurance, as ye knowing after what manner wee were among you for your ſakes.

6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the word in much affliction, with ioy of the holy Ghoſt,

7 So that ye were as ſenſamples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you ſounded out the worde of the Lord, not in Macedonia and in Achaia onely, but your faith alſo which is towarde God, ſpread abroad in all quarters, that wee neede not to ſpeake any thing.

9 For if they themſelues ſhewe of you what manner of entering in wee had vnto you, and how yee were turned to God from idols, to ſerue the liuing and true God,

10 And to looke for his Sonne from heauen, whome he rayled from the dead, euen Ieſus which deliuereth vs from y^e wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

1 To the intent they ſhould not ſlaine under the croſſe, 2 He commendeth his diligence in preaching, 13 And theirs in obeying, 18 He exhorteth his aſſeſſe, that he could not come and open his heart to them,

For ye your ſelues knowe, brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in vaine,

2 But euen after that wee had ſuffered before, and were ſhamefully intreated at Philippi (as ye know) wee were bold in our God, to ſpeake vnto you the Goſpel of God with much ſtriving.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by vncleanneſſe, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God, that the Goſpell ſhould be committed vnto vs, ſo wee ſpeake, not as they that pleaſe men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 Neither yet did we euer vie flattering wordes, as ye knowe, nor coloured countenance, God is record.

6 Neither ſought wee praife of men, neither of you, nor of others,

7 When wee might haue bene chargeable, as the Apoſtles of Chriſt: but wee were gentle among you, euen as a nourse cheriſheth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned toward you, our good will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Goſpell of God onely, but alſo our owne ſoules, becauſe ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and trauaile: for we laboured day and night, becauſe we would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Goſpel of God.

10 We are witneſſes, and God alſo, how holily, & iuſtly, and vnbliameably wee behaued our ſelues among y^e that beleeue.

11 As ye knowe how that wee exhorted you, and comforted, and beſought euerie one of you (as a father his children)

12 That yee would walke wortheie of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cauſe alſo thanke wee God without ceaſing, that when yee receiued of vs the worde of the preaching of God, yee receiued it not as the worde of men: but as it is in deede the worde of God, which alſo worketh in you that beleeue.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in Chriſt Ieſus, becauſe yee haue alſo ſuffered the ſame things of your owne country.

CHAP. III.

2 Hee sheweth how greatly hee was affectioned sowards them, both in that he sent Timotheus to them, 10 And also prayed for them.

Wherefore since wee coulde no longer forbeare, we thought it good to re-maine at Athens alone,

a Rather seeking

then mine owne,
in sending of Ti-motheus to you.
1. Cor. 16. 1.

2 And haue sent Timotheus our brother and minister of God, & our labour fellow in the Gospel of Christ, to stablish you, and to comfort you touching your faith, 3 That no man should be mooued with these afflictions: for ye your selues knowe, that we are appointed thereunto.
4 For verily when wee were with you, we tolde you before that wee shoulde suffer tribulations, euen as it came to passe, and ye knewett.
5 Euen for this cause, when I coulde no longer forbear, I sent him that I might knowe of your faith, least the tempter had tempted you in any sort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.
6 But nowe lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith & love, and that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring to see vs, as we also doe you, 7 Therefore, brethren, we had consolation in you, in all our affliction, and necessitie through your faith.
8 For now are we al aliue, if ye stand fast in the Lord.
9 For what thanks can we recompense to God againe for you, for all the ioy wherewith wee reioyce for your sakes before our God,
10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might accomplish that which is lacking in your faith?
11 Nowe God himselfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Iesus Christ, guide our journey vnto you, 12 And the Lord increase you, and make you abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, euen as wee doe toward you:

ction toward the 13 To make your heartes stable, and our Father, at the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ with all his Saints.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to holinesse, 6 Innocencia, 9 Loue, 11 Labour, 13 And moderation in lamenting for the dead, 17 Describing the end of the resurrection.

And furthermore wee beseech you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Ie-sus, that ye increase more and more, as ye haue receiued of vs, how ye ought to walke, and to please God.

2 For ye knowe what commandments we gaue you by the Lord Iesus.

3 For this is the wil of God euen your sanctification, and that ye should abstaine from fornication,

4 That euerie one of you shoulde knowe, how to possesse his vessel in holinesse and honour,

5 And not in the lust of concupiscence, eue
as the Gentiles which knowe not God:

6 That no man oppresse or defraude his brother in any matter: for the Lord is auenger of all such things, as wee also haue tolde you before time, and testified.

7 For God hath not called vs vnto uncleannesse, but vnto holinesse.

8 Wherefore that despiseth these things, despise he not man, but God who hath euen giuen you his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye need not that I write vnto you: for ye are taught of God to loue one another.

10 Yea, and that thing verily ye doe vnto all the brethren, which are throughout all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more,

11 And that ye studie to be quiet, and to meddle with your owne busines, and to worke with your owne handes, as wee commanded you,

12 That ye may behaue your selues honestly towardes them that are without, and that nothing be lacking vnto you.

13 I would not, brethren, haue you ignorant concerning them which are allepse, that ye forlore not, euen as other which haue no hope.

14 For if we beleue that Iesus is dead, and is risen, euen so them which sleepe in Christ, will God bring with him.

15 For this say wee vnto you by the wordes of the Lord, that we which liue, and are remaying in the coming of the Lord, shall not preuent them which sleepe.

16 For the Lord himselfe shall descende from heauen with a shout, and with the voyce of the Archangel, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first.

CHAP. V.

1 He enformeth them of the day of iudgement and coming of the Lorde, 6 Exhorting them to watch, 12 And to regarde such as preach Gods word among them.

BUt of the times and seasons, brethren, ye haue no neede that I write vnto you. 2 For ye your selues knowe perfectly, that the day of the Lorde shall come, euen as a thiefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, & safetie, then shall come vpon them sudden destruction, as the trouble vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenes, that that day shoulde come on you, as it were a thiefe.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darkenesse.

6 Therefore let vs not sleepe as doe other, but let vs watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that bee drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and loue, & the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obtaine saluation by the means of our Lord Iesus Christ.

10 Which died for vs, that whether we wake or sleepe, wee shoulde liue together with him.

11 Therefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

a So much the more we ought to beware of all dreames and fantasies of men, which wearie themselves and others in fearing out curiously y time that the Lord shall appeare, alledging for themselves a vaine prophetic, and most falsly ascribed to Elias, that 2000.yere before the Lawe, 2000. vnder the Law, & 2000 after the Law the world shall endure. Matt. 24. 44. 2. pet. 3. 10. 1. thess. 3. 3. & 16. 15. b That is, suddenly and vlooked for. c Here sleepe is taken for contempt of saluation, when men continue in sinnes, and will not awake to godlinesse. d And not be overcome with the cares of the worlde. e That is, lightened by the Gospell. 1. sa. 59. 17. ephe. 6. 17. f Here it is taken onely to die, and is meant of the faithfull.

12 Now we beseech you, brethren, that ye knowe them, which labour among you, and are ouer you in the Lord, and admire you.

13 That ye haue them in singular loue for their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 We desire you brethren, admonish them that are vnruly: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weak: be patient toward all men.

15 See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer followe that which is good, both towardes your selues, and toward all men.

16 Reioyce euermore.

17 Pray continually.

18 In all thinges giue thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Iesus towardes you.

19 Quench not the Spirit.

20 Despise not prophesying.

21 Trie all thinges, and keepe that which is good.

22 Abstaine from all appearance of euill.

23 Now the very God of peace sanctifie you throughout: and I pray God that your whole spirit and soule and body, may be kept blamelesse vnto the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ.

24 Faithfull is hee which calleth you, which will also doe it.

25 Brethren, pray for vs.

26 Greete all the brethren with an holy kisse.

27 I charge you in the Lorde, that this Epistle bee read vnto all the brethren the Saints.

28 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you, Amen.

The first Epistle vnto the Thessalonians written from Athens.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

LEast the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because hee went to other places: rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them, and exhorteth them to patience and other fruits of faith, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the coming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great part of the world, and that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, he willeth them to correct such sharply, as liue idely of other mens labours, whom, if they doe not obey his admonitions, he commaundeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

3 He thanketh God for their faith, true, & patience. 11 He prayeth for the increase of the same, 12 And sheweth what fruit shall come thereof.

PAUL and Siluanus, and Timothyens vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ: 2 Grace be to th you, & peace from God our father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ. 3 We ought to thanke God alwayes for you brethren, as it is meete, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the loue of euery one of you towardes another aboundeth,

2. thess. 1. 23.

a Which proceedeth of your faith as a most notable fruite.

b The faithful by their afflictions see, as in a cleare glasse, the ende of Gods iust iudgement, when as they shall reigne with Christ which haue suffered with him, and the wicked shall feele his extreme wrath and vengeance. Iude. 6.

c 1. Thess. 4. 16. By whome he declareth his might.

d As God is euertlasting, so shall their punishment be euertlasting: & as he is most mighty of power, so shall their punishment be most fore.

e The free beneuolence of Gods goodness, comprehendeth his purpose, his predestination and vocation: the worke of faith containeth our iustification, to the which God addeth glorification: and all these he worketh of his meere grace through Christ. f Faith is Gods wonderful worke in vs. g As the head with the body.

4 So that we our selues reioyce of you in the Churches of God, because of your patience, and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffer.

5 Which is a token of the righteous iudgement of God, that ye may be counted worthe of the kingdome of God, for the which ye also suffer.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you.

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs: when the Lord Iesus shall shewe himselfe from heauen with his mightie Angels,

8 In flaming fire, rending vengeance vnto them that doe not knowe God, & which obey not vnto the Gospell of our Lord Iesus Christ,

9 Which shall be punished with euertlasting perdition, from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power.

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to bee made maruelous in all them that beleue (because our testimony toward you was beleended) in that Day.

11 Therefore, we also pray alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthe of his calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the worke of faith with power, 12 That the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, and yee in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

CHAP. II.

3 He sheweth them that the day of the Lord shall not come, till the departing fro the faith come first.

4 And the kingdome of Antichrist. 5 And therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceived, but to stand stedfast in the things that he hath taught the.

Now, we beseech you, brethren, by the N Communion of our Lord Iesus Christ, & by our assembling vnto him,

2 That ye be not suddenly moued from your minde, nor troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as it were from vs, as though the day of Christ were at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a departing first, and that that man of sinne be disclosed, even the sonne of perdition,

4 Which is an aduersarie, and exalteth himselfe against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he doeth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing himselfe that he is God.

5 And he shall cause some to beare, some lions, others leopards, as Daniel describeth them, and is called the man of sinne, because he setteth himselfe vp against God. e Who as he destroyeth others, so shall he be destroyed himselfe.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I tolde you these things?

6 And now ye knowe what I withholde, that he might be reueiled in his time.

7 For the misterie of iniquitie doeth already worke: onely hee which withholdeth, shall let, till he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall the wicked man be reueiled, * whome the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of his mouth, and shall aboli with the brightness of his coming,

9 Euen him whose comming is by the working of Satan, with all power and signes, and lying wonders,

10 And in all deceiuableness of vnrigheteousnes, among them that perish, because they receiued not the loue of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And therefore God shall sende them strong delusion, & they shall beleue lyes, 12 That all they might be damned, which beleued not the truth, but had pleasure in vnrigheteousnesse.

13 But we ought to giue thanks alway to God for you, brethren, beloved of the Lord, because that God hath from the beginning chosen you to saluation, through sanctification of the Spirit, and the faith of truth.

14 Whereunto hee called you by our Gospell, to obtaine the glory of our Lord Iesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast and keepe the instructions, which ye haue bene taught, either by word, or by our Epistle.

16 Nowe the same Iesus Christ our Lord, and our God, euen the Father which hath loued vs, and hath giuen vs euertlasting consolation and good hope through grace,

Furthermore, brethren, * pray for vs, that the worde of the Lord may haue free passage, and be glorified, euen as it is with you.

2 And that wee may bee deliuered from vnreasonable and euill men: for all men haue not a faith.

3 But the Lord is faithfull, which will stablish you, and keepe you from euill.

4 And we are persecuted of you through the Lord, that ye both doe, and will doe the things which he command you.

5 And the Lord guide your heartes to the loue of God, and the waiting for of Christ.

f Because the false Apostles had perswaded after a sort the Thellalonians, that the day of the Lord was neere, and so the redemption of the Church, Paul teacheth them to looke for this horrible disposition before: and therefore rather to prepare themselves to patience then to rest and quietness for as yet there was a let, that is, that the Gospell should be preached throughout all, Match. 24.

9 Not but that wee had authority, * but that we might make our selues an ensample

The second Epistle to the Thessalonians, written from Athens.

The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN writing this Epistle, Paul seemed not only to haue respect to teach Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe Iother in awe, which would haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he doeth arme him against those ambitious questionists, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Lawe, disquieted the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Law, they knew not what was the chiefe end of the Law. And as for himselfe, hee so confesseth his vnworthinesse, that he sheweth to what worthinesse the grace of God hath preferred him : and therefore hee willet prayers to be made for all degrees and sorts of men, because that God by offering his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to euery sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And for as much as God hath left ministers as ordinarie meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what maner of men they ought to be, to whom the myserie of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to bee preached. After this hee sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion, men shall teach things contrary to the word of God. This done, he teacheth what widowes should be receiued or refused to minister to the sicke : also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hasty in admitting, nor in iudging any : also what is the dutie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnesse, of rich men, and about all things he chargeth him to beware of false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office, namely to see that nothing bee taught but Gods word, &c. 5 Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie, and edification are the ende thereof, 10 And admonisheth of Hymeneus and Alexander.

Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the commaun-dement of God our Sauour, and of our Lord Iesus Christ * our hope,

2 * Vnto Timotheus
my * naturall sonne in the faith : Grace, mercie, and peace from God our Father, and from Christ Iesus our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, so doe, that thou mayest commaund some,
that they teach none other doctrine.

4 Neither that they giue heede to * fables and genealogies, * which are endlesse, which breed questions rather then godly edifying which is by faith.

5 For * the * ende of the I commaunde-ment is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfeined.

6 From the which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine taulng.

7 They would be Doctors of the Lawe, and yet vnderstand not what they speake, neither wherof they affirme.

8 * And we know that the Lawe is good,
if a man vse it lawfully.

9 Knowing this, that the Law is not gi-uen vnto a * righteous man, but vnto the lawlesse and disobedient, to the vngodly, and to * sinners, to the vnholy, and to the prophane, to murderers of fathers and mothers, to manslaughterers,

13 Althen before I was a blasphemour, and a persecuter, and an oppresser: but I was receiued to mercie: for I did it ignorantly through vnbeliefe.

14 But the grace of our Lord was exceedingly abundant with faith and loue, which is in Christ Iesus.

15 This is a true saying, & by all meanes worthy to be receiued, that Christ Iesus came into the world to saue sinners, of whom I am chiefe.

16 Notwithstanding, for this cause was I receiued to mercie, that Iesus Christ should first shewe on mee all long suffering unto the ensample of them, which shall in time to come beleeue in him vnto eternal life.

17 Nowe vnto the king euerlasting, immortal, invisible, vnto God onely wise, be honour and glory for euer, and euer, Amen.

18 This commandment commit I vnto thee, sonne Timothy, according to the prophecies, which went before vpon thee, that thou by them shouldest fight a good fight,

CHAP. II.

1 Hee exhorteth to pray for all men, 4 Wherefore, 8 And howe. 9 As touching the apparell and modestie of women.

I Exhort therefore, that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giuing of thanks be made for all men,

2 For kings, and for all that are in authoritie, that wee may leade a quiet and a peaceable life, in all godlinesse and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the Church of God, sight of God our Saviour,

4 Who will that all men shalbe saved, and come vnto the knowledge of the trueth, doe it maliciously

5 For there is one God, and one Mediator betweene God and man, which is the man Christ Iesus,

6 Who gaue himselfe a ransom for all men, to be a testimonie in due time,

7 Whereunto I am ordeined a preacher and an Apostle (I speake the trueth in Christ, and lye not) even a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and veritie.

8 I will therefore that the men pray, euery where lifting vp pure hands without wrath, or doubting.

9 Likewise also the women, that they aray themselves in comely apparell, with shamesfastnesse & modestie, not with hypocrised haire, or golde, or pearles, or costly apparell,

10 But (as becommeth women that profess the feare of God) with good workes.

11 Let the woman learne in silence with all subiection.

12 I permit not a woman to teach, neither to blunpe authoritie ouer the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Cae.

14 And Adam was not deceiued, but the woman was deceiued, and was in the transgression.

CHAP. III.

2 Hee declareth what is the office of Ministers, 11 And as touching their families, 15 The dignitie of the Church, 16 And the principall poynts of the heavenly doctrine.

This is a true saying, * If any man desire the office of a Bishop, he desireth a worthy worke.

2 A Bishop therefore must be blamelesse, the husband of one wife, watching, sober, modest, hardierous, apt to teach,

3 Not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthy lucre, but gentle, no fighter, not couetous,

4 One that can rule his owne house honestly, hauing children vnder obedience with all holinesse.

5 For if any cannot rule his owne house, how shall he care for the Church of God?

6 Hee may not be a yong scholler, lest he being puffed vp fall into the snare of the deuill.

7 Hee must also be well reported of, even of them which are without, least hee fall into rebuke, and the snare of the deuill.

8 Likewise must Deacons be honest, not

15 And wherein he ought to exercise himselfe continually.

NOW the Spirit speaketh evidently, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, and shall give herde unto spirites of error, and doctrines of devils.

2 Which speake lies through hypocrisse, and have their consciences burned with an hotte iron.

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstaine from meates which God hath created to be received with giuing thankes of them which beleue and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing ought to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving.

5 For it is sanctified by the worde of God, and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, which hath bene nourished by in the wordes of faith, and of good doctrine, which thou hast continually followed.

7 But cast away prophane, & old wiues fables, and exercise thy selfe unto godlines.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godlines is profitable unto all things, which hath the promise of the life present, and of that that is to come.

9 This is a true saying, and by all meanes worthy to be received.

10 For therefore wee labour and are rebuked, because wee trust in the living God, man.

e That is, hee that hath faith and a good conscience is promised to have all things necessary for this life, and to enjoy life everlasting.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth, but bee unto them that beleue, an example, in worde, in conversation, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purenesse.

13 Till I come, giue attendance to reading, to exhortation, and to doctrine.

14 Despire not the gift that is in thee, which was giuen thee by propheticke with the laying on of the hands of the companie of the Eldership.

15 These things exercise, & giue thy selfe unto them, that it may be seene how thou profitest among all men.

5 And if she that is a widow indeede, and left alone, trusteth in God, & continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But free that lurch in pleasure, is dead, while shee liueth.

7 These things therefore command, that they may be blamelesse.

8 If there be any that prouideth not for his owne, and namely for them of his household, he denieth the faith, and is worse then an infidel.

The ii. Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGVMENT.

THE Apostle being now ready to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which he had professed & taught, encourageth Timotheus (and in him all the faithfull) in the faith of the Gospell, and in the the constant and sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrink for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue, as doe husbandmen, which at length receiue the fruites of their labours, and to cast off all feare and care, as souldiers do which seeke only to please their capitaine: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel, which he preached, commanding him to preach the same to others, diligently taking heede of contentions, curious disputations, and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus and Philetus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authoritie and in estimation, hee sheweth that all that professe Christ are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamitie, that the euill must dwell among the good till Gods triall come: yet hee reserueth them whome hee hath elected, euen to the ende. And that Timotheus should not be discouraged by the wicked, hee declareth what abominable men, and dangerous times shall followe, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures, both against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessarie affaires, and so with his and others salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to steadfastnes and patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine, that hee had taught him: 12 Whereof his bonds and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the wil of God, according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Iesus,

2 To Timotheus my beloved sonne: Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father, and from Iesus Christ our Lord.

3 I thanke God, whose I serue from mine elders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Desiring to see thee, mindedfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioy:

5 When I call to remembrance the unfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance, that thou stirre vp the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of a iust hands.

7 For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound minde.

8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, neither of me his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath saved vs and called vs with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his owne purpose and grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Iesus before the world was,

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Iesus Christ, who hath abolished death, & hath brought life and immortallitie vnto light through the Gospel.

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

a Being sent of God to preach that life which he had promised in Christ Iesus. Actes 22. 3.
b Following the steps of mine ancestors, as Abraham, Isaac, Iacob and others of whome I am come, and of whom I receiued the true religion by succession.
c The gift of God is a certaine liuely flame kindled in our hearts, which Satan and the flesh labour to quench, and therefore wee must nourish it, and stirre it vp.

f He speaketh here of his first coming, which though it seemed poore and contemptible, yet was honourable and glorious: therefore our mindes ought to be lifted vp from the consideration of worldly things, to contemplate the maiestie thereof. 1. Tim. 2. 7.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I know whome I haue beleueed, and I am persuaded that hee is able to keepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.

g Which is my selfe.

13 Keepe the true patterne of the wholesome wordes, which thou hast heard of mee in faith and loue which is in Christ Iesus.

h The graces of the holy Ghost.

14 That a worthy thing, which was committed to thee, keepe through the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from mee: of which sort are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercy vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for hee oft refreshed mee, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him, that he may finde mercy with the Lord at that day, & in how many things hee hath ministered vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, so suffer many, and to abide fast in the wholesome doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ, 11 Shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsel touching the saluation of him, 19 And the marke thereof.

1 Thou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Iesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of me, shew many witnesses, the same deliuer to faithful men, which shall be able to teach other also.

For, in the presence of many witnesses.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth himselfe with the affaires of this life, because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

As with his householde, and other ordinarie affaires.

5 And if any man also strue for a masterie, he is not crowned, except he strue as he ought to doe.

d Norwithstanding mine imprisonment the word of God hath his race, and increaseth.

8 Remember that Iesus Christ made of the seede of Dauid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel?

12 If we suffer, we shall also reigne with him: if we denie him, he also will denie vs.

13 If we beleue not, yet abideth hee

14 Of these things put them in rememthey strue not about wordes, which is to that calleth on the Name of Christ, depart from iniquitie.

are not onely vessels of golde and of silver, but also of wood and of earth, and some for honour, and some vnto dishonour.

21 If any man therefore purge himselfe from these, hee shall be a vessel vnto honour, sanctified, and meete for the Lorde, and prepared vnto euery good worke.

22 Flee also from the lustes of youth, and follow after righteousness, faith, loue,

with pure heart.

23 And put away foolish, and vnlearnto teach, suffering the euill men patiently, at any time will giue them repentance, that they may know the truth, ment out of the snare of the dewill, which are taken of him at his will.

CHAP. III.

1 He prophesieth of the perillous times, 2 Serueth out hypocrites in their colours, 11 Sheweth the state of the Christians, 14 And how to auoyd dangers, 16 Also what profite cometh of the Scriptures.

Thus knowe also, that in the last dayes
I shall come perillous times.

2 For men shall be louers of their owne selues, couetous, boasters, proude, cursed speakers, disobedient to parents, vnthankfull, vnholly,

3 Without naturall affection, truebreakers, false accusers, intemperate, fierce, Despisers of them which are good,

4 Traitors, headie, hee minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God,

5 Having a shewe of godlinesse, but haue denied the power thereof: turne away therefore from such.

6 For of this sort are they which be into houses, and leade captiue simple women laden with sinnes, and led with diuers lustes,

7 Which women are euer learning, and are neuer able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 And as Iannes and Iambres with-stode Moses, so doe the also resist the truth, men of corrupt mindes, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall preuaile no longer: for their madnesse shall be euident vnto all men, as theirs also was.

10 But thou hast fully knownen my doctrine, manner of liuing, purpose, faith, long suffering, loue, patience,

11 Persecutions, and afflictions which came vnto me at Antiochia, at Iconum, and at Lystra, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lord deliuered mee.

12 Yea, and all that will liue godly in Christ Iesus, shall suffer persecution.

13 But the euill men & deceiuers, shall waie worse and worse, deceiuing, and being deceiued.

14 But continue thou in things which thou hast learned, and art persuaded thereof, knowing of whom thou hast learned them:

15 And that thou hast knownen the holy Scriptures of a childe, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation through the faith which is in Christ Iesus.

16 For the whole Scripture is giuen by inspiration of God, and is profitable to teach, to improoue, to correct and to instruct in righteousness,

solute, being made perfect vnto all good workes.

The second Epistle written from Rome vnto Timotheus the first Bishoppe elected of the Church of Ephesus, when Paul was presented the second time before the Emperour Nero.

The Epistle of Paul to Titus.

THE ARGUMENT.

When Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begunne, Satan stirred vp certaine which went about not onely to ouerthrowe the gouernement of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition would haue thrust in themselves to be pastors: others, vnder pretext of Moses Lawe brought in many trifles. Against these two sortes of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what manner of ministers he ought to choose, chiefly requiring that they be men of sound doctrine, to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and amongst other things hee noteth the Iewes which put a certaine holinesse in meates and such outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a christian life, and what things appertaine to euery mans vocation. Against the which if any man rebell or else doeth not obey, he willett him to be auoyded.

C H A P. I.

5 He aduertiseth Titus touching the gouernement of the Church. 7 The ordinance and office of ministers. 12 The nature of the Cretians and of them which sowe abroad leuifish fables and inventions of men.

Paul a servant of God, and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, according to the faith of Gods elect, & the knowledge of the truth, which is according to godlinesse,

2 Under the hope of eternall life, which God that cannot lye, hath promised before the world began:

3 But hath made his worde manifest in due time through the preaching, which is committed vnto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour,

4 To Titus my naturall & sonne according to the common faith, grace, mercy and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldest continue to reuerse the things that remaine, and shouldest ordeine elders in every citie, as I appointed thee,

6 If any be vnreproueable, the husband of one wife, hauing faithfull children, which are not slandered of riot, neither are disobedient.

7 For a Bishop must be vnreproueable as Gods steward, not croward, not angry, not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthy lucre,

8 But barbarous, one that loueth goodnesse, wife, & righteous, holy, temperate,

9 Holding fast the faithfull word according to doctrine, that he also may be able to exhort with wholesome doctrine, and reprove them that say against it.

1 He commendeth vnto him the wholesome doctrine, and telleth him how he shall teach all degrees to behaue themselves. 11 Through the benediction of the grace of Christ.

BE I speake thou the things which be come * wholesome doctrine.

2 That the elder men bee sober, honest, discrete, sound in the faith, in loue, and in patience:

PUt them in remembrance that they * bee subiect to the principalities and powers, and that they be obedient, and re- dy to euery good worke,

3 * For wee our selues also were in times past vniuste, disobedient, deceiued, seruing the lustes and diuers pleasures, li- uing in malicioussnesse and enuie, hatefull, and hating one another.

8 This is a true saying, and these things I will thou shouldest affirme, that they which haue beleneed in God, might be care- full to shewe forth good workes. These things are good and profitable vnto men.

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit woonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witness, and a declaration of the same. For farre passing the balencesse of his matter, he flieth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maiestic. Onesimus seruant to Philemon both robbed his master, and fled away, whom Paul hauing woon to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weightie arguments proouing the due tie of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

4 He reioycest to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, 9 whom he desireth to forgive his seruant Onesimus, and lovingly to receiue him againe.

Paul a prisoner of Iesus Christ, and our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend and fellow helper, 2 And to our deare sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow loubdier, and to the Church that is in thine house:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I * giue thanks to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers.

5 (When I heare of thy loue and faith, which thou hast toward the Lorde Iesus, and toward all Saints)

6 That the * fellowship of thy faith may be made fruitfull, and that whatsoever good thing is in you ^b through Christ Iesus, may be knownen.

7 For wee haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saints hearts are comforted.

8 Wherefore, though I be very bolde in Christ to command thee that which is conuenient, 9 Yet for lones sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, euen Paul agen, and euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my sonne * Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds,

11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to me,

12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, that is mine owne bowels,

13 Whom I would haue retained with me, that in thy steade hee might haue ministered vnto me in the bonds of the Gospel.

14 But without thy minde would I doe nothing, that thy benefite should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15 It may be that he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receiue him for ever,

16 * Not now as a seruant, but aboute a seruant, euen as a brother beloued, specially to mee: howe much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If therefore thou count our things common, receiue him as my selfe.

18 If hee hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.

19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I will recompense it, albeit I doe not say to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.

20 Dea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort me a bowels in the Lord.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.

22 Whereouer also prepare me lodging: for I trust through your papers I shalbe giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellowe prisoner * in Christ Iesus, 24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellowe helpers.

25 The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ be with your spirit, Amen.

The Epistle to the Hebrewes.

THE ARGUMENT.

Forasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines witnesseth, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knownen, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the author thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authoritie, although we knowe not with what penne he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an ende: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the Prophecies, and therefore not onely Moses was inferior to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but so Lorde, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe: for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Leviticall Priestes wee but shadowes, and therefore at his comming they ought to cease, & all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he prooeth from the 7. Chap. verse 11. vnto the 12. Chap. verse 18. Also he was that Prophet of whome all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. verse 18, to the twentie and fife verse of the same Chapter: yea, and is the king to whom all things are subiect, as appeareth from that verse 25, to the beginning of the last Chapter. Wherefore according to the examples of the old fathers, we must constantly stantly beleue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdom, and governed by his power, we may steadfastly and courageously perseuere even to the end, in hope of that ioy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercise, that we may both be thankfull to God, and duefull to our neighbour.

1 He exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the newe Lawe which Christ hath giuen vs. 9 And putteth he offeended at the infirmities and lowe degree of Christ, 10 Because it was necessarie that for our sakes hee should take such an humble state vpon him, that he might be like vnto his brethren.

Wherefore we ought diligently to giue heede to the things which wee haue heard, least at any time we should let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by Angels was steadfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of reward.

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great saluation, which at the first beganne to be preached by the Lord, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by them that heard him.

4 God bearing witness thereto, both with signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles and giftes of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will.

5 For hee hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the world to come, whereof we speake.

6 But one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, What is man, that thou shouldst bee mindedfull of him? or the sonne of man that thou wouldst consider him?

7 Thou madest him a little inferior to the Angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and hast set him above the workes of thine hands.

8 Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feere. And in that hee hath put all things in subiection vnder him, hee left nothing that should not be subiect vnto him.

9 But we yet see not all things subdued vnto him.

10 For it became him, for whome are all things, and by whome are all things, seeing that he brought many children vnto glory, that he should consecrate the Prince of their saluation through afflictions.

11 For hee that sanctifieth, and they which are sanctified, are all of one: wherefore hee is not ashamed to call them brethren.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee requirerh them to bee obedient vnto the worde of Chriſt, 3 Who is more worthe then Moſes. 12 The puniſhment of ſuch as wil harden their hearts, and not beleue, that they might haue eternall reſt.

Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly vocation, consider the Apoſtle and high Priest of our profession, Chriſt Ieſus:

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appointed him, euen as Moſes was in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthe of more glorie then Moſes, in as much as hee which hath builded the house, hath more honour then the house.

4 For every house is builded of ſome man, as he which hath built all things, is God.

5 Now Moſes verily was faithfull in all his house, as a ſervant, for a witneſſe of the things which ſhould be ſpoken after.

6 But Chriſt is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose house we are, if wee holde fast the confidence, and the reioycing of the hope vnto the end.

7 Therefore, as the holy Ghost layeth, * To day if ye ſhall heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your heartes, as in the ſprouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wildeſſe.

9 Where your fathers tempted me, prouoked me, and ſawing workes fouertie yeres long.

10 Therefore I was grieved with that generation, and ſaid, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they knowen my wayes.

11 Therefore I ſware in my wrath, If they ſhall enter into my reſt.

12 Take heede, brethren, leſt at any time there be many of you an euill heart, and unfaithfull, to depart away from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called * To day, leaſt any of you be hardened through the deceitfulneſſe of ſinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Chriſt, if we keepe ſure vnto the ende the beginning, wherewith wee are vpholden.

15 So long as it is ſaide, * To day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your heartes, as in the prouocation.

16 For ſome when they heard, prouoked him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moſes.

17 But with whom was he diſpleaſed fouertie yeres? was hee not diſpleaſed with them that ſinned, whose hardenes fell in the wildeſſe?

18 And to whom ſware hee that they ſhould not enter into his reſt, but vnto them that obeyed not?

19 So we ſee that they coulde not enter in, becauſe of vnbellefe.

11 Let vs studie therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same ensample of disobedience.

12 For the word of God is liuely, and mighty in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and so entereth through, euen vnto the diuiding asunder of the soule and the spirit, and of the ioyntes, and the marrow, & is a discerner of the thoughtes, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight; but all things are naked and open vnto his eyes, & with whom we haue to doe.

14 Seeing then that wee haue a great hie Priest, which is entered into heauen, Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an hie Priest, which cannot bee touched with the feeling of our infirmitie, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore go boldly vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and find grace to helpe in time of neede.

CHAP. V.

He compareth Iesus Christ with the Levitical Priests, shewing wherein they either agree, or differ. 11 Afterward hereprooueth the negligence of the lewes.

For euery high Priest is taken from among men, and is ordeined for men, in things pertaining to God, that hee may offer both gifts, and sacrifices for sinnes.

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them that are ignorant, and that are out of the way, because that hee also is compassed with infirmitie.

3 And for the same sake he is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne parts, as for the peoples.

4 And no man taketh this honour vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooketh not to himself this honour, to be made the hie Priest, but he that said vnto him, Thou art my sonne, this day begate I thee, gaue it him.

6 As he also in another place speaketh, Thou art a Priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Which in the dayes of his flesh did offer by prayers and supplications, with a strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also heard in that which he feared.

8 And though he were the Sonne, yet learned he obedience, by the things which he suffered.

9 And being consecrate, was made the author of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an hie Priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Wherefore we haue many things to say, which are hard to be vnderstood, because ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time ye ought to bee teachers, yet haue yee neede againe that we teach you the first principles of the word of God: and are become such as haue neede of milke, and not of strong meate.

13 For euery one that useth milke, is inexperienced in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their voyces exercised, to discern both good and euill.

CHAP. VI.

He proceedeth in reprobuing them, & exhorteth them not to faile. 12 But to be steadfast & patient, 18 forasmuch as God is sure in his promise.

Therefore, leaving the doctrine of the beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation of repentance from dead workes, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and laying on of hands, & of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

3 And this will we doe if God permit.

4 For it is impossible that they, which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good worde of God, & of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renewed againe by repentance: seeing they crucifie againe to them selues the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the same that cometh out vpon it, a bringeth forth herbes meete for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briars, is reproboued, & is nere vnto curling, whose ende is to be burned.

9 But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, & such as accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that hee should forget your worke, and labour of loue, which yee shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministered vnto the Saintes, and yee minister.

11 And wee desire that euery one of you shewe the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope vnto the ende, 12 That ye be not cloudfull, but followers of a them, which through faith and patience, inherit the promises.

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because hee had no greater to sweare by, he sweare by himselfe, 14 Saying, Surely I wil abundantly bless thee and multiply thee manifoldly.

CHAP. VII.

1 He compareth the Priesthoode of Christ vnto Melchisedec, 11 Also Christs Priesthood with the Lewites.

Gen. 14. 18.
a So called, because that Moses maketh no mention of his parents or kinsfolks, but as he had bin suddenly sent of God into the world to be a figure of Christ our euertlasting Priest, & shortly taken out of the world againe: so Christ astouching his humanity had no father, and concerning his diuinitie, no mother.
b That is, the chief of fathers, Num. 18. 21. deus.
18. 1. 2. ioh. 1. 4.
c The Lewites receiued tithes of their brethren, but Melchisedec of Abraham the Patriarke: therefore his Priesthoode is more excellent then the Leuiticall.
f Because there is no mention of his death.

For this Melchisedec * was king of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, whomet Abraham, as hee returned from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him:

2 To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things: who first is by interpretation King of righteousness: after that, he is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace.

3 Without a father, without mother, without kindred, & hath neither beginning of his dayes, neither ende of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 Nowe consider howe great this man was, vnto whome euen the Patriarke Abraham gaue the tithe of the wythes.

5 For verely they which are the children of Levi, which receiue the office of the Priesthood, haue a commandement to take according to the Lawe, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But hee whose k nred is not counted among them, receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And here men that die, receiue tithes: but there hee receiue them, of whome it is witnessed, that he liueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Levi also which receiue tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For hee was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchisedec mette him.

11 If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthoode of the Lewites (for vnder it the Lawe was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest shoulde rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not to bee called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the Priesthoode be changed, then of necessitie must there be a change of the Lawe.

13 For hee of whome these things are spoken, pertaineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lorde sprung out of Iuda, concerning the which tribe Moyses spake nothing, touching the Priesthood.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchisedec, there is risen vp another Priest.

16 Which is not made Priest after the Lawe of the carnall commandement, but after the power of the endless life.

17 For hee testifieth thus, * Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For the commandement that went afore, is disannulled, because of the weakness thereof, and unprofitableness.

19 For the Lawe made nothing perfite, but the bringing in of a better hope made perfite, whereby wee draw neere vnto God.

20 And forasmuch as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priests without an othe:

21 But this, hee is made with an othe by him that layde vnto him, * The Lorde hath sware, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec)

22 By so much as Jesus made a suretie of a better Testament.

23 And among them many were made priests, because they were not suffered to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because hee endureth euer, hath an euertlasting Priesthood.

25 Wherefore, hee is able also perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing hee euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmlesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heauens:

27 Which needed not dayly as those hie Priests to offer by sacrifice, first for his owne finnes, and then for the peoples: for that did he once, when he offered by himselfe.

28 For the Lawe maketh men hie Priests, which haue infirmitie: but the word of the othe that was since the lawe, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

after the Lawe was giuen: but because the declaration of that eternall othe was then reuealed to the world.

CHAP. VIII.

6 He proueth the abolishing of the Leuiticall Priesthood, as of the old Covenant by the spiritual and euertlasting Priesthoode of Christ, 8 And by the new Covenant.

Nowe of the things which we haue spoken, this is the summe, that wee haue such an hie Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the throne of the Patric in heauens,

2 And is a minister of the Sanctuary, a That is, heauen.

g The Law and the Priesthood are both of one condition: so that both Aarons and Moyses office pertaine to Christ, which is Priest and Lawmaker, h Which stood in outward and corporall ceremonies.

and of the true ^b Tabernacle, which the Lord might, and not man.
3 For ^d every hie Priest is ordeined to offer both giftes and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessity, that this man should haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For hee were not a Priest, if hee were on the earth, seeing there are Priests that according to the Law offer gifts,

5 Who serue vnto the paterne and shadowe of heavenly things, as Moyses was warned by God, when hee was about to finish the Tabernacle. * See, sayd hee, that thou make all things according to the paterne shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our hie Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, in as much as hee is the Mediatour of a better ^c Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bin faultlesse, no place should haue bene sought for the second.

8 For in rebuking them hee saith, * Beholde, the dayes will come, sayeth the Lord, when I shall make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda a newe Testament:

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that Iooke them by the hand, to leade them out of the land of Egypt: for they continued not in my testament, and I regarded them not, sayeth the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I will make with the house of Israel, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their minde, and in their heart I will write them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people,

11 And they shall not teach euery man his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Knowe the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 For I will be mercifull to their unrighteousnesse, and I will remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that hee saith a new Testament, hee hath aduocate the olde: now that which is disannuled and waxed olde, is ready to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

1 How that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the Lawe are abolished 11 by the eternitie and perfection of Christs sacrifice.

When the first Testament had also ordinances of religion, and a worldly Sanctuary.

2 For the first Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the holy places.

3 And after the second vail was the Tabernacle, which is called the holiest of all.

4 Which had the golden censer, and the Arke of the Testament overlaid round about with golde, wherein the golden pottle which had Manna, was, and * Aarons rod that had budded, and the * Tables of the Testament.

5 * And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the Mercie seate: of which things wee will not now speake particularly.

6 Nowe when these things were thus ordeined, the Priests went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the high Priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood which he offered for himselfe, and for the ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holy Ghost was signified, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet opened, while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing,

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered giftes and sacrifices that could not make holy, concerning the conscience, him that did the seruice,

10 Which onely stood in meates and drinckes, and diuers washings, and carnall rites, vntill the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an hie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of goates and calves: but by his owne blood entred he in once vnto the holy place, and obtained eternall redemption for vs.

13 * For if the blood of bulles and of goates, and the ashes of an heffer, sprinkling then that are uncleane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the flesh,

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, which through the eternall spirite offered himselfe without spotte to God, purge your conscience from dead workes, to leue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is hee the Mediatour of the newe Testament, that though death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the former Testament, they which were called, might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a Testament is, there must bee the death of him that made the Testament.

17 * For the Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is aliu.

18 Therefore, neither was the first ordeined without blood.

but Christ the true and eternall Priest offered his owne blood, which was most holy and pure: the Levitical Priest offered yeerely, and therefore did onely represent the true holinesse: but Christ by one onely sacrifice hath made holy for euer all them that beleueve, outwardly in the sight of man. 1. 19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to the people, according to the Law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water and purple wooll and hyssope, and sprinkled both the booke, and all the people.

20 * Saying, This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed unto you.

21 Moreover, hee sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministering vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessary, that the similitudes of heavenly things should be purified with such things: but the heavenly things themselves are purified with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entered into y holy places that are made with hands, which are similitudes of the true Sanctuary: but is entered into very heaven, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs.

25 Not that he should offer himselfe often, as the High Priest entered into y holy place every yeere with other blood.

26 (For then must he have often suffered since the foundation of the world) but now in the ende of the world hath hee appeared once to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed unto men that they shall once die, and after that commeth the iudgement,

28 So * Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of many, and unto them that looke for him, shall hee appeare the second time * without sinne unto saluation.

CHAP. X.

1 The old Lawe, had no power to cleanse away sinne, but Christ did it with offering of his bodie once for all. 22 An exhortation to receive the goodness of God thankfully with patience and steadfast faith.

Fo the * Lawe hauing the shadowe of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices which they offer yeere by yeere continually, sanctifie the conuersers thereunto.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sinnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes every yeere.

4 For it is impossible that the blood of bulles and goates should * take away sinnes.

5 Therefore when hee commeth in to the world, hee sayeth, * Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not; but a bodie hast thou ordained me.

6 In burnt offerings, & sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then I sayd, Lo, I come (In the hebreu, ginning of the booke it is written of mee,) that I should do thy will, O God.

8 About when hee sayde, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou wouldest not haue, neither hadst pleasure therein (which are offered by the Law)

9 Then sayde hee, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God, hee taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, even by the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once made.

11 And every Priest appeareth daily ministering, and oft times offereth one manner of offering, which can neuer take away sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, * sitteth for euer at the right hand of God,

13 And from henceforth sacrificeth * till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For with one offering hath hee consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that he had said before,

16 * This is the Testament that I will make vnto them, After thoe dayes, sayeth y Lord, I will put my lawes in their heart, and in their mindes I will write them, 17 And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these things is, there is no more offering for sinne.

19 Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Jesus we may be bold to enter into the holy place,

20 By the new, and liuing way, which he hath prepared for vs, through the baile, that is, his flesh:

21 And seeing we haue an high Priest, which is ouer the house of God,

22 Let vs draw neere with a true heart in assurance of faith, * sprinkled in our hearts from an euil conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water.

23 Let vs keepe y profession of our hope, without waucering (for hee is faithful that promised) p pleasures of shimes for a season, 26 Esteeming the rebuke of Christ greater riches then the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect vnto the recompense of the reward.

27 By faith he forsooke Egypt, & feared not the fiercenesse of the king: for hee endured, as he that loue him which is invisible.

28 Though faith he ordeined the Passouer and the effusion of blood, lest hee that destroyed the first borne, shoulde touche them.

29 By faith they * passed thorow the red sea as by drie land, which when the Egyptians had assayed to doe, they were drowned.

30 By faith the * walles of Jericho fell downe after they were compassed about seuen dayes.

31 By faith the harlot * Rahab perished not with them which obeyed not, when * she had receiued the spies peaceably.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time woulde be too short for mee to tell of * Gedeon, of * Barac, and of * Sampson, and of * Iephth, also of * Dauid, and * Samue, and of the Prophets:

33 Which through faith subdued kingdomes, wrought righteouesnesse, obtained the 9 promises, stopped the mouthes of Lyons,

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, of weake were made strong, wared valiant in battell, turned to flight the armies of the aliants.

35 The women receiued their dead raised to life: other also were racked, & would not be deliuered, that they might recue a better resurrection.

36 And others haue bene tried by mockings and scourgings, yea, moreouer by bonds and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were hewn alinder, they were tempted, they were flame with the sword, they wandred by and downe in sheepes skynes, & in goates skynes, being destitute, afflicted, and tormented:

r An exhortation to be patient and stedfast in trouble and aduersitie, upon hope of euermasting reward. 26 A commendation of the new Testament above the olde.

W Herefore * let vs also, seeing that wee are compassed with to great a multitude of tribulles, cast away euery thing that * presseth downe, and the hame that hangeth so fast on: let vs runne with patience the race that is set before vs.

2 b Looking vnto Iesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the ioy that was set before him, endured the crosse, and despised the shame, and is set at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against of sinners, least yee shoulde be wearied, & faint in your mindes.

4 Yee haue not yet resisted vnto blood, striving against * sinne.

5 And ye haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children, * By sinne, despite not the chastening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loneth, he chasteneth: and he scourgeth euery sonne that hee receiueth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God offereth himselfe vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whome the father chasteneth not?

8 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not * sonnes.

9 Whereouer we haue had the fathers of our bodies which corrected vs, and wee gaue them reuerence: shoul we not much rather be in subiect on vnto the Father of * spirits, that we might liue?

10 For they verily for a fewe dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our profit, that wee might be partakers of his holinesse.

11 Now no chastising for the present seemeth to be ioyous, but grievous: but afterward, it bringeth the quiet fruit of righteouesnesse, vnto them which are thereby exercised.

12 Wherefore lift vp your handes which hang downe, and your weake knees,

13 And make straight steppes vnto your feete, lest a that which is halting, be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 * Follow peace with all men, and holinesse, without the which no man shall see the Lord.

15 Take heede, that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no * roote of bitterness spring by and trouble you, lest they be may be defiled.

16 Let there bee no fornicator, or prophane person as * Elan, which for a portion of meate solde his birthright.

17 * For ye knowe how that afterward also when hee woulde haue inherited the blessing, hee was reiecte: for hee found no place to * repentance, though he sought the blessing with teares.

18 For ye are not come vnto the * mount that * might be touched, nor vnto burning fire, nor to blackenesse and darkenesse, and tempest,

19 Neither vnto the sounde of a trumpet, and the voice of words, which they that heard it, feared themselves, that the word should not be spoken to them any more.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He exhorteth vs unto loue, 2 To hospitalitie, 3 To thinke upon such as be in aduersitie, 4 To mainteine wedlocke, 5 To auoide conuouissance, 6 To make much of them that preach Gods word, 7 To beware of stur ge learning, 13 To be content to suffer rebuke with Christ, 15 To be thankfull vnto God, 17 And obedient vnto our gouernours.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as though yee were bounde with them: and them that are in affliction, as if ye were also afflicted in the body.

4 * Marriage is honourable among all, and the bed vndefiled: but whosoemongers and adulterers God will iudge.

5 Let your conuersation bee without conuouissance, & be content with those things that ye haue: for he hath sayd, * I will not faile thee, neither forsake thee:

6 So that we may boldly say, * The Lord is mine helper, neither will I feare what man can doe vnto me.

7 Remember them which haue the ouerlight of you, which haue declared vnto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering what hath bene the end of their conuersation.

8 Jesus Christ * yesterday, and to day, the same also is for euer.

9 Be not caried about with diuers and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be stablished with grace, and not with meates, which haue not profited them that haue bene occupied therein.

10 We haue an altar, whereof they haue no authoritie to eate, which serue in the tabernacle.

11 * For the bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the holy place by the hie Priest for Anne, are burnt without the campe.

12 Therefore euen Jesus, that he might sanctifie the people with his owne blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let vs goe forth therefore out of the campe, bearing his reproch.

14 * For here haue we no continuing citie: but we seeke one to come.

15 Let vs therefore by him offer the sacrifice of praple alwayes to God, that is, the * fruite of the lippes, which confess his Name.

16 * To do good, and to distribute, forget not: for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

17 Obey them that haue the oversight of you, and submit your selues: for they watch for your soules, as they that must giue accountes, that they may doe it with joy, and not with griefe: for that is vnprofitable for you.

18 Pray for vs: for wee are assured that we haue a good conscience in all things, desiring to liue honestly.

19 And I desire you somewhat the more earnestly, that ye lo doe, that I may be restored to you more quickly.

20 The God of peace that brought againe from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shephard of the sheepe, through the blood of the euermlasting Covenant, 21 Make you perfect in all good works, to doe his will, working in you that which is pleasant in his sight, though Jesus Christ, to whom be praise for euer and euer, Amen.

22 I beseech you also, brethren, suffer the wordes of exhortation: for I haue written vnto you in fewe wordes.

23 Knowe that our brother Timotheus is deliuered, with whom (if he come shortly) I will see you.

24 Salute all them that haue the ouerlight of you, and all the Saints. They of Italie salute you.

25 Grace be with you all, Amen.

THE ARGVMENT.

IAMES the Apostle and sonne of Alphaeus wrote this Epistle to the Jewes which were conuerted to Christ, but dispersed thorowout diuers countries, and therefore he exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true word of God, and not to be partiall, neyther to boast of an idle faith, faith, but to declare a true faith by lively fruites, to auoide ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble and loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to vter their faultes when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

If Ames a servant of God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ, to the twelue Tribes which are scattered abroad, salutation.

2 My brethren, count it exceeding ioy, when ye fall into diuers tentations,

3 * Knowing that the a trying of your faith bringeth forth patience.

4 And let patience haue her b perfect worke, that yee may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke c wisdom, let him aske of God, which giveth to all men liberally, and reprocheth no man, and it shall be giuen him.

6 * But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde, and carried away.

7 Neither let that man thinke that hee shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A d wauering minded man is unstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of lowre degree reioyce in that he is e exalted:

10 Again he e that is rich, in that he is made f lowe: for as the flower of the grasse shall he e varily away.

11 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower fallerh away, and the beaurie of the fashion of it perisheth: euen so shall the rich man fade away in all his wayes.

12 * Blessed is the man, that endureth tentation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crowne of life, which y^e Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

13 Let no man say when he is i tempted, I am tempted of God: for God can not be tempted with euill, neither tempteth hee any man.

14 But euery man is tempted, when he is drawen away by his owne concupiscence, and is entised.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Here not, my deare brethren.

17 Every good b giuing, & every perfect gift is from above, & cometh downe from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither c shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne will begate hee vs wth the word of truth, that we should be as the first fruites of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, * let euery man be k swift to heare, slow to speak, and i slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish y^e righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthines, and superfluitie of malitiousnesse, and receive with meekenesse the worde that is grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 * And be ye doers of the worde, & not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For if any heare the worde, and doe it not, hee is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his naturall face in a glasse.

24 If so when hee hath considered himselfe, he goeth his way, and forgetteth immediately what manner of one he was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect Lawe of libertie, and continueth therein, he not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shall be blessed i in his deede.

26 If any man among you seemeth religious, and refrainerh not his tongue, but deceiveth his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherlesse, & widowes in their aduerlins, & to keepe himselfe vnspotted of the world.

CHAP. II.

1 He forbiddeth to haue any respect of persons,

2 To regard the poore as well as the rich, 8 To be lowly and mercifull, 14 And not to boast of faith, where no deedes are: 27 For it is but a dead faith, where good workes follow not.

My brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ in respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a golde ring, and in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man in vile rayment,

3 And yee haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here vnder my footstoolle,

4 Are ye not partiall in your selues, and are become iudges of euill b thoughts?

6 But yee haue despised the poore. Doe not the rich oppresse you by tyranny, and do not they drawe you before the iudgement seate?

7 Doe not they blasphemeth the d worthe Name after which ye be named?

8 But if ye fulfill the royal Lawe according to y^e Scripture, which saith, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well.

Latwe, and yet faileth in one point, hee is guiltie of all.

11 For hee that saide, * Thou shalt not commit adulterie, said also, * Thou shalt not kill. Nowe though thou doest none adulterie, yet if thou killest, thou art a transgressor of the Lawe.

12 So speake ye, and so do, as they that shall be iudged by the Lawe of libertie.

13 For there shall bee iudgement mercilesse to him that sheweth no mercie, and mercie receiueth against iudgement.

14 What auailleth it, my brethren, though a man haue his faith, when he hath no workes? can the faith saue him?

15 For if a brother or a sister be naked and destitute of dayly foode.

16 And one of you lay vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, and fill your bellies, notwithstanding ye giue them not those things which are needefull to the bodie, what helpeth it?

17 Euen to the faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might say, * Thou hast the faith, and I haue workes: shew mee thy faith out of thy workes, and I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou beleeuest that there is one God: thou doest well: the devils also beleeue it, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Seest thou not that the faith wrought with his workes: and through the workes was the faith made perfect.

23 And y Scripture was fulfilled which saith, * Abraham beleeued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousness: and he was called the friend of God.

24 See see then howe that of workes a man is iustified, and not of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not * Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, when shee had receiued the messengers, and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

For without workes. k Here deedes are considered as ioyned with true faith. l So that faith was not idle. m The more his faith was declared by his obedience and good workes, the more was it known to man to be perfect, as the goodnes of a tree is known by her good fruites, otherwise no man can haue perfection in this world: for euery man must pray for remission of his sinnes, and increase of faith.

CHAP. III.

1 He forbiddeth all ambition to seeke honor aboute our brethren. 3 He describeth the proprietie of the tongue. 15, 16 And what difference there is betwixt the wisdom of God, and the wisdom of the world.

My brethren, bee not many masters, knowing that we shall receiue the greater condemnation.

2 For in many thinges wee shall sume all. * If any man liue not in wordes, hee is a perfit man, and able to handle all the body.

3 Beholde, we put bittes into the horses mouthes, that they should obey vs, and we turne about all their body.

4 Beholde also the ships, which though they bee so great, and are diuinen of fierce winde, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whither soeuer the gouerneur listeth.

5 Euen to the tongue is a little member, and boasteth of great thinges: beholde, how great a thing a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fire, yea, a world of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole bodie, and setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beastes, and of birdes, and of creeping thinges, and thinges of the sea is tamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an unruly euill, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith blese wee God euen the Father, and therewith curse wee men, which are made after his similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these thinges ought not so to be.

11 Doeth a fountaine send forth at one place sweete water and bitter?

12 Can the figtree, my brethren, bring forth olives, either a vine figs? so can no fountaine make both salt water and sweete.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe by good conuersation his workes in meekenes of wisdom.

14 But if ye haue bitter enuying, and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, neither be liars against the truth.

15 This wisdom descendedeth not from above, but is earthly, sensuall, and deuillish.

16 For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition, and all manner of euill workes.

17 But the wisdom that is from above, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be intreated, full of mercie and good fruites, without iudging, and without hypocrisie.

18 And the fruite of righteousness is sown in peace, of them that make peace.

The first Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

He exhorteth the faithfull to denie themselves, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all carnall affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heavenly kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reueiled to vs in his sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holinesse of life. And to the intent this faith shoulde not faile, seeing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole world, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he should be a stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to goe forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreatheth particular pointes, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and howe married folkes ought to behaue themselves. And because it is appoynted for all that are godly, to suffer persecutions, hee sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shall haue, and contrariwise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all, hee teacheth howe the ministers ought to behaue themselves, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

2 He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elect and regenerate to a liuely hope, 7 And howe faith must be tried, 10 That the saluation of Christ is no newe, but a thing prophesied of olde. 13 He exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, forasmuch as they are new borne anew by the word of God.

PETER an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to the strangers that dwell here and there throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia, 2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father vnto sanctification of the spirit, through obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you.

3 Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercie hath begotten vs againe vnto a liuely hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance immortall and vndisfied, and that faileth not away, reserved in heauen for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the last tyme:

6 Wherein ye reioyce, though nowe for a season (if neede require) ye are in heaviness, through manifold tentations,

7 That the tryall of your faith, being much more precious then golde that perissheth (though it bee tried with fire) might be founde vnto your praye, and honour, and glorie, at the appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whom ye haue not seene, and yet loue him, in whom now, though yee see him not, yee doe you beleue, and reioyce with irreuerberable and glorious,

9 Receiuing the end of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue enquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the Spirit which testified before of Christ which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glory that should followe.

12 Vnto whome it was reuealed, that not vnto themselves, but vnto vs they should minister the things which are now shewed vnto you by them which haue preached vnto you the Gospell by the holy Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to behold.

13 Wherefore, * giue by the * loynes of your minde: be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the reuelation of Iesus Christ,

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former lustes of your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you, is holy, so be ye holy in * all manner of conuersation, 16 Because it is written, * Be yee holy, for I am holy.

17 And if yee call him Father, which without * respect of person iudgeth according to euery mans worke, passe the time of your dwelling here in feare,

W Herefore, * laying aside all malitiousness, and all guile, and dissimulation, and enue, and all euill speaking,

6 Wherefore it is contained in the Scripture, * Beholde, I put in * Zion a chiefe corner stone, elect and precious: and he that beleueth therein, shall not be ashamed.

7 Vnto you therefore which beleue, it is precious: but vnto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And a stone to stumble at, and a rocke of offence, euen to them which stumble at the word being disobedient, vnto the which thing they were euen ordained,

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, * abstine from fleshly lustes, which fight against the soule,

12 * And haue your conuersation honest among the Gentiles, that they which speake euill of you as of euill doers, may by your good workes which they shall see, glorifie

13 * Submit your selues vnto all maner ordinance of man for the Lordes sake, whether it be vnto the King, as vnto the superiour, 14 Vnto gouernours, as vnto them that are sent of him, for the punishment of euill doers, and for the praise of them that doe well.

15 For so is the will of God, that by well doing wee may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men, 16 As free, and not as hauing the libertie for a cloke of malitiousnesse, but as the seruants of God.

17 Honour all men: * loue * brotherly fellowship: feare God: honour the King.

18 * Seruants, be subiect to your masters with all feare, not onely to the good and courteous, but also to the that are froward.

19 * For this is thankeworthie, if a man for conscience toward God endure griefe suffering wrongfully.

20 For what praise is it, if when ye bee buffeted for your faults, ye take it patiently: but and if when ye doe well, ye suffer wrong, and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

21 For hereunto ye are called: for Christ also suffered for vs, leaving vs an example that ye should follow his steps.

22 * Who did no sinne, neither was there guile found in his mouth.

23 * Who when he was reuiled, reuiled not againe: when he suffered, hee threatned not, but committed it to him thatudgeth righteously.

24 * Who his owne selfe bare our sinnes in his body on the tree, that wee being deliuered from sinne, should liue in righteousness: by whose stripes wee were healed.

25 For ye were as sheepe going astray: but are now returned vnto the shepheard and bishop of your soules.

17 For it is better (if the will of God be so) that yee suffer for well doing, then for euill doing.

18 * For Christ also hath once suffered for finnes, the just for the vniust, that he might bring vs to God, & was put to death concerning the flesh, but was quickned in the Spirit.

19 By the which he also went, and preached vnto the spirits that are in prison,

20 Which were in time past disobedient, when once the long suffering of God abode in the dayes of * Noe, while the Arke was preparing, wherein fewe, that is, eight soules were saued in the water.

21 To the which also the figure that now saucth vs, euen Baptisme agreeth (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but in that a good conscience maketh request to God) by the resurrection of Iesus Christ,

22 Which is * at the right hand of God, gone into heauen, to whome the Angels, and powers, and might are subiect.

1 He exhorteth men to craſt from sinne, 2 To spend no more time in vaine, 3 To be sober and apt to pray, 4 To loue eche other, 12 To bee patient in trouble, 15 To beuare that no man suffer as an euill doer, 16 But as a Christian man, and so not to be ashamed.

Forthmuch then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme your selues likewise with the same minde, which is that he which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne.

2 That he henceforward should liue (as much time as remaineth in the flesh) not after the lusses of men, but after the will of God.

3 * For it is sufficient for vs that wee haue spent the time past of the life, after the lust of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnes, lusts, drunkennes, in gluttonie, drinkings, and in abominable idolatries.

4 Wherein it seemeth to them strange, that ye runne not with them vnto the same excess of riot: therefore speake they euill of you.

5 Which shall giue accountes to him, that is ready to iudge quicke and dead.

6 For vnto this purpose was the Gospeil preached also vnto the dead, that they might bee condemned according to men, in the flesh, but might liue according to God, in the Spirit.

7 Now the end of all things is at hand. Be ye therefore sober, and watching in prayer.

8 But aboue all things haue ferment loue among you: * loue conuerty the multitude of finnes.

9 * Bee yee harsher one to another, without grudging.

10 * Let euery man as he hath receiued the gift, minister the same one to another, as good dispensers of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speake, let him talke as the wordes of God. If any man minister, let him doe it as of the abilitie which God ministereth, that God in all things may bee glorified through Iesus Christ, to whome is praye and dominion for euer, and euer, Amen.

12 Dearely beloued, thinke it not strange concerning the fierie trial, which is among you to prooue you, as though some strange thing were come vnto you:

13 But reioyce, in as much as yee are partakers of Christs sufferings, that when his glory shall appeare, ye may be glad and reioyce.

14 * If ye be raised vpon for the Name of Christ, blessed are ye: for the report of glorie, and of God resteth vpon you: which on their part is euill spoken of: but on your part is good glory.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or an euill doer, or as a false witness in other mens matters.

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed: but let him glorifie God in this behalf.

The second Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGVMENT.

The effect of the Apostle here, is to exhort them which haue once professed the true fayth of Christ, to stand to the same enen to the last breath: also that God by his effectuall grace towards men, moueth them to holines of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, & in increasing his gifts in the godly: wherefore by godly life, he being now almost at death doore, exhorteth them to approue their vocation, not setting their affections on worldly things (as hee had oft written vnto them) but lifting their eyes toward heauen, as they be taught by y Gospel, whereof he is a cleare witness, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed siõ heauen to be the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophets testified. And least they should promise to themselves quietnesse by professing the Gospel, he warneth them both of troubles which they should susteine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers and contemners of religion, whose maners and trade he liuely setreth forth as in a table: aduertising the faithfull not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to beholde presently the day of his coming, and to preferre themselves vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 Forasmuch as the power of God hath giuen the all things pertaining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldly lustes. 10 To make their calling sure with good worker, and fruites of faith. 14 Hee maketh mention of his owne death, 17 Declaring the Lords Iesus to be the true Sonne of God as he himselfe had seene vpon the mount.

Inon Peter a se. uant and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to you which haue obtained like precious faith with vs by the a righteoulnesse of our God and Saviour Iesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Iesus
our Lord,

3 According as his b godly powter hath giuen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto c life and godlinesse, d through the knowledge of him that hath called vs vnto glory and vertue.

4 Whereby most great, & precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them yee should be partakers of the e godly nature, in that yee flee the corruption, which is in the world through lust.

5 Therefore giue enen all diligence therevnto: to yoyne moreouer f vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

glory. e We are made partakers of the diuine nature, in that we flee the corruption of the world: or as Paul writeth, are dead to sinne,

6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godliness:

7 And with godliness, brotherly kindness: and with brotherly kindness, love.

8 For if these things be among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither shall be idle, nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 For he that hath not these things, is blinde, and cannot see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his olde finnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, give rather diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye doe these things, ye shall neuer fall.

11 For by these meanes an entering shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdome of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be stablished in the present truth.

13 For I thinke it meete as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you up by putting you in remembrance, 14 Seeing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 I will endeavour therefore alwayes, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For wee followed not *deceivable fables, when wee opened unto you the power, and commanding of our Lord Jesus Christ, but with our eyes we sawe his maiestie:

17 For hee received of God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voyce to him from y^e excellent glory. * This is my beloved Sonne, in whome I am well pleased.

18 And this voyce wee heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the holy mount.

19 We haue also a most sure word of the Prophets, to the which ye doe well that ye take heede, as unto a light that shineth in a darke place, untill the day dawne, and the day starre arise in your hearts.

20 * So that ye first know this, that no prophesie in the scripture is of any private intimation.

21 For the prophesie came not in olde tyme by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Spirit.

CHAP. II.

He propheseth of false teachers, & sheweth their punishment.

BUt these were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: which privately shall bring in damnable heresies, euen denying y^e Lord, that hath bought them, and being upon themselves swift damnation.

2 And many shall follow their damnable wayes, by whom the way of truth shall be euill spoken of,

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fauned wordes make * merchandise of you, whose iudgement long agoe is not faure off, and their damnation sleepeth not.

4 For if God spared not the * Angels, that had sinned, but cast them downe into hel and deliuered them into chains of darkness, to be kept vnto damnation:

5 Neither hath spared the olde world, but saved * For the egipt person a preacher of righteousness, and brought in the flood vpon the world of the wickedly,

6 And * turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them and ouerthrowe them, and made them an example vnto them that after should liue vngodly,

7 * And deliuered iust Lot, vexed with the vncleane conuersation of the wicked,

8 (For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawfull deedes.)

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of temptation, and to relesue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to bee punished:

10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of uncleannes, and despise the government, which are presumptuous, and stand in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

11 Whereas the Angels which are greater both in power and might, * giue not railing iudgement against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as brute beasts, led with sensualitie and made to be taken, and destroyed, speake euill of those things which they knowe not, and shall perishe through their owne corruption,

13 And shall receive the wages of unrighteousnesse, as they which count it pleasure to liue deliciouly for a season. Spots they are and blots, * delighting them selues in their deceivings, in feasting with you,

14 Having eyes full of adulterie, & that can not cease to fume, beguiling unstable soules: they haue hearts exercised with couetousnesse, curled children,

15 Which forsaking the right way, haue gone astray, following the way of * Balaam, the sonne of Bosor, which louted the wages of unrighteousnesse.

16 But hee was rebuked for his iniquitie: for the durme Asse speaking with mans voyce, forbade the foolishnesse of the prophet.

17 * These are welles without water, and * cloudes caried about with a tempest, to whome the blacke darkenesse is reserved for euer.

18 For in speaking swelling wordes of banitie, they beguile with wantonnesse through the lustes of the flesh them that were

22 But it is come unto them, according to the true prouerbe, * The dogge is returned to his owne vomit: and, The sow that was washed, to the wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

3 He sheweth the impiety of them which mocke at Gods promises. 7 After what sort the end of the world shalbe. 8 That they prepare themselves thereunto. 16 Who they are which abuse the writings of S. Paul, and the rest of the Scriptures, 18 Concluding with eternall thanks to Christ Iesus.

This second Epistle I nowe write vnto you, beloued, whereunto * I stirre vp, and waite your pure mindes,

2 To call to remembrance the wordes, which were tolde before of the holy Prophets, and also the commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Sauiour.

3 * This first vnderstand, that there shal come in the last dayes, mockers, which will walke after their lusts,

4 And say, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly knowe not, that the heauens were of olde, and the earth that was of the water and by the water, by the word of God.

6 Therefore the world that then was, perished, ouerflowed with the water.

7 But the heauens and earth, which are now, are kept by the same word in store, and reserved vnto fire against the day of iudgement, and of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 Deuile beloued, bee not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord, * as a thousand yeres, and a thousand yeres, as one day.

9 The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slackenesse) but is patient toward vs, and * would haue no man to perishe, but would al men to come to repentance.

10 * But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in the which the heauens shal passe away with a noise, & the elements shal melt with heate, & the earth with the works that are therein, shal be burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore ye al these things must be dissolued, what manner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlines.

12 Looking for, & hasting unto the coming of the day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire, shal be dissolued, and the elements shal melt with heate?

13 But we looke for * newe heauens, and a newe earth, according to his promise, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Therefore, beloued, seeing that yee looke for such things, bee diligent that yee may be founde of him in peace, without spot, and blamlesse.

15 * And suppose that the long suffering of our Lorde is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisdom giuen vnto him wrote to you,

16 As one, that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things, among the which some things are s hard to be understood, which they that are vnilearned and vniuable peruer, as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore beloued, seeing ye know these things before, beware least ye bee also plucked away with the error of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnes.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord & Sauiour Iesus Christ: to him be glory both now and for euermore. Amen.

THE ARGVMENT.

AFTER that S. Iohn had sufficiently declared, howe that our whole saluation doeth consist onely in Christ, least that any man should thereby take a boldnes to sinne, hee sheweth that no man can beleue in Christ, vnlesse hee doth endeavour himselfe to keepe his commandements, which thing being done, hee exhorteth them to beware of false prophets, whom he calleth Antichrists, & to trie the spirits. Last of all, he doeth earnestly exhort them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiuers,

CHAP. II.

1 Christ is our advocate, 10 Of true loue, and howe it is tried. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

M babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sime not: and if any man sime, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Just.

2 And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ones onely, but also for the sinnes of the whole world.

3 And hereby we are liue that we know him, if we keepe his commandments.

4 He that sayeth, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a lyar, and the truthe is not in him.

5 But hee that keepeth his word, in him is the loue of God perfect in deede: hereby we knowe that we are in him.

6 Hee that sayeth he remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no newe commandment vnto you: but an olde commandment which yee haue had from the beginning: the olde commandment is the worde, which yee haue heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a newe commandment I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenesse is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that sayeth that hee is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darknesse vntill this time.

10 He that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euill in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenesse, and walketh in darkenesse, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darknesse hath blinded his eyes.

12 Little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiven you for his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, fathers, because yee haue knowne him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you, yong men, because yee haue overcome the wicked.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because yee haue knowen the Father. I haue written vnto you, fathers, because yee haue knowen him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, yong men, because ye are strong, and the worde of God abideth in you, and ye haue overcome the wicked.

15 Loue not the world, neither the things that are in the worlde. If any man loue the world, the loue of the father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world (as the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the worlde.

17 And the worlde passeth away, and the lust thereof, but hee that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as yee haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichrists: whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But this cometh to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

20 But ye haue an ointment from him, that is holy, & ye haue knowen all things.

21 I haue not written vnto you, because ye know not y truthe: but because ye knowe it, and that no lie is of the truthe.

22 Who is a lyar, but hee that denieth that Iesus is Christ: the same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.

23 Who denieth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father.

24 Let therefore abide in you that same which yee haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euen eternal life.

26 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But the anointing which ye receiued of him, dwelleth in you: & ye neede not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and it is true, and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If yee knowe that hee is righteous, knowe ye that he which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

30 I haue written vnto you, and teacheth you by the holy Ghost and his ministers, || Or, in Christ. u By this name hee meaneth the whole Church of Christ in generall.

g He meaneth all the faithfull children, as hee being their spiritual Father, attributing to olde men knowledge of great things, to yong men strength, to children obedience and reuerence to their gouernours.

r He that takerh away or diminisheth either of the natures in Christ, or hee that confoundeth or separateth them, as hee that putteth no difference betwene the person of the Sonne, and also he that beleeueth not to haue remission of sinnes by his onely sacrifice, denieth Christ to be the true Messias.

s Then the infidels worship not the true God.

t But he that confesseth the Sonne, hath also the father.

CHAP. III.

1 The singular loue of God toward vs. 7 And howe we againe ought to loue one another.

Behold, what loue the Father hath shewed vs, that we should be called the sonnes of God: for this cause the world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearely beloved, nowe are wee the sonnes of God, but yet it doth not appeare what we shall be: and we know that when he shall appeare, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sinne, transgresseth also the law: for sinne is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that he appeared that he might take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceiue you: he that doth righteousness, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sinne, is of the deuil: for the deuil sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose appeared the Sonne of God, that hee might loose the workes of the deuil.

9 Wholoever is borne of God, sinneth not: for his seede remaineth in him, neither can hee a sinne, because hee is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God known, and the children of the deuil: whosoever doth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the message, that ye heard from the beginning, that we should loue one another.

12 Not as Cain which was of the wicked, and slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Marcellus not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 Wee knowe that wee are translated from death vnto life, because wee loue the brethren: hee that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Wholoever hateth his brother, is a manslayer: and wee knowe that no manslayer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 Whereby haue wee perceiued loue, that he laid downe his life for vs: therefore we ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 And whosoever hath this worldes good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, howe dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but in deede and in truth.

19 For thereby wee knowe that we are of the truth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse toward God.

22 And whatsoeuer wee aske, wee receive of him, because wee keepe his commandments, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 This is then his commandment, That we beleue in the Name of his Sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee gaue commandment.

24 For hee that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and hee in him: and hereby wee knowe that hee abideth in vs, euen by the spirit which hee hath giuen vs.

CHAP. IIIII.

1 Difference of spirittes. 2 Howe the spiritte of God may be knowne from the spiritte of error.

7 Of the loue of God and of our neighbour.

Dearely beloved, beleue not every spiritte, but trie the spirittes whether they are of God: for many false prophetes are gone out into the world.

2 Whereby shal we know the spirit of God, Every spiritte that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And every spiritte which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spiritte of Antichrist, of whome yee haue heard, howe that he should come, and nowe already hee is in the world.

4 Little children, ye are of God, and haue overcome them: for greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 Wee are of God, hee that knoweth God, heareth vs: hee that is not of God, heareth vs not. Whereby knowe wee the spiritte of truth, and the spiritte of error.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God, and every one that loveth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 In this appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the world, that wee might true through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that wee loued God, but that hee loued vs, & sent his Sonne to be a reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, wee ought also to loue one another.

12 No man hath seene God at any time. If wee loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Whereby knowe wee that wee dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And wee shall see, and doe testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And wee haue known, and beleueed

CHAP. V.

1. 10. 13. Of the fruites of faith. 14. 20. The office, authority, and diuinitie of Christ. 21. Against images.

Whoener beleueth that Iesus is the Christ, is a borne of God, and euery one that loueth him which begate, loueth him also which is begotten of him.

2 In this wee knowe that wee loue the children of God, when we loue God, and keepe his commandements.

3 For this is the loue of God, that wee keepe his commandements: and his commandements are not grievous.

4 For all that is borne of God, ouercometh the world: and this is the victory that ouercometh the world, euen our faith.

5 * Why is it that ouercometh the world, but hee which beleueth that Iesus is the Sonne of God?

6 This is that Iesus Christ that came by water & blood, not by water onely, but by water & blood: and it is the spirit, that beareth witness: for the spirit is a truth.

7 For there are three, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three, which beare record in the earth, the spirit, and the water, and he hath made full satisfaction for the same. f Our minde inspired by the holy Ghost. g Which testifieth to our hearts, that we be the children of God.

and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receiue the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which hee testified of his Sonne.

10 * He that beleueth in the Sonne of God, hath the witness in himselfe: he that beleueth not God, hath made him a liar, because hee beleued not the recorde, that God witnessed of his Sonne.

11 And this is the recorde, that God hath giuen vnto vs eternall life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hath the Sonne, hath life: and he that hath not the Sonne of God, hath not life.

13 These things haue I written vnto you, that beleue in the Name of the Sonne of God, that yee may knowe that yee haue eternall life, and that yee may beleue in the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the assurance, that wee haue in him, * that if we alke any thing according to his will, he heareth vs.

15 And if wee knowe that hee heareth vs, whatsoeuer wee alke, wee knowe that wee haue the petitions that wee haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne, that is not vnto death, let him alke, and he shall giue him life for them that sinne not vnto death. * There is a sinne vnto death: I say not that thou shouldest pray for it.

17 All vnrightheousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 * Wee knowe that whosoener is borne of God, sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himselfe, and the wicked * toucheth him not.

19 * Wee knowe that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickednesse.

20 But wee knowe that the Sonne of God is come, and hath giuen vs a munde to knowe him, which is true: and wee are in him that is true, that is, in his Sonne Iesus Christ: this same is very God, and eternall life.

I the Elder to the select Ladie, and her children, whom I loue in the truth: and not I onely, but also all that haue knowne the truth,

2 For the truthes sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer:

3 Grace bee with you, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord

Iesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, with truth and loue.

4 I reioiced greatly, that I founde of thy children walking in truth, as we haue receiued a commandement of the father.

5 And now beleeue I thee Ladie, (not as writing a newe commandement vnto thee, but that same which wee had from the beginning) that we * loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that wee shoulde walke after his commandements. This commandement is, that as yee haue heard from the beginning, yee shoulde walke in it.

7 For many deceiuers are entred into the world, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is such one, is a deceiver and an Antichrist.

tians in their persecution, 9 Sheweth the unkinde

2 Beloued, I write chiefly that thou prosperidst & faredidst

3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came, & testified of the truth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the truth.

4 I haue no greater joy then this, that is,

5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully what-soener thou doest to the brethren, and to ing to God, thou shalt doe well.

7 Because that for his names sake they went forth, and tooke nothing of the 8 We therefore ought to receiue such, that we might be helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Dio-trophes which loneth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueh vs not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will declare his deedes: which hee doeth, prating against vs with malicious wordes, and not therewith content, neither he himselfe recei-ueth the brethren, but forbiddeh them that woulde, and thrusteth them out of the Church.

11 Beloued, followe not that which is euill, but that which is good: hee that doeth well, is of God: but he that doeth euill, hath not seene God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth it selfe: yea, and we our selues beare record, and ye knowe that our record is true.

13 I haue many things to write: but I will not with inke and pen write vnto thee.

we shall speake mouth to mouth. Peace bee with thee. The friends salute thee. Greete

The generall Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGUMENT.

Saint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, which go about to draw away the hearts of the simple people, from the truth of God, and willett them to haue no societie with such, whome he ferreth forth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures, what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally he comforteth the faithful, and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

IUDE a seruaunt of Iesus Christ, and brother of James, to them which are called and sanctified ^a of GOD the Father, and ^b referred to Iesus Christ:

2 Mercie vnto you, and peace, and loue be multiplied:

3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluatiou, it was needefull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that ye shoulde earnestly contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was ^a once giuen vnto the Saints.

4 For there are certaine men crept in which were before of old ^{} ordained to this condemnation: vngodly men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnesse, and ^{} denie God the onely Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, toasmuch as yee once knewe this, howe that the Lord, after that he had deli-uered the people out of Egypt, ^{*} destroyed them afterwarde which beleueed not.

6 The ^{} Angelles also which kept not their first ^{} estate, but left their owne habitation, hee hath reserved in euertlasting chains vnder darkenesse vnto the iudge-ment of the great day.

as they did, committed, and followed ple, and suffer the vengeance of eternall

THE ARGVMENT.

IT is manifest, that the holy Ghost would as it were gather into this most excellent booke a summe of those prophecies, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the coming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is liuely set forth the diuinitie of Christ, & the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in y ministers, and what things he reproveth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glorie and consolation in the day of vengeance: howe that the hypocrites which sting like Scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed. But the Lambe Christ shall defend them, which beare witness to the truth, who in despite of the beast and Satan will raigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set forth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited, and albeit that hee is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length he shall bee destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shall giue prayse to God for the victorie: neuertheless for a season God will permit this Antichrist, and strumpet, vnder colour of faire speech and pleasant doctrine, to deceiue the world: therefore he aduertiseth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoyde this barlots flatteries, and bragges, whose ruine without mercy they shall see, and with the heavenly companies sing continuall prayes: for the Lambe is married: the worde of God hath gotten the victorie: Satan that a long time was vntyed, is nowe cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrarywise the faithfull (which are the holy cite of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enioy perpetuall glory. Reade diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding thereof.

3 Blessed is hee that readeth, and they that heare the words of this prophetic, and keepe those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 John, to the seven Churches which are in Asia, Grace be with you, & peace from him, which is, and which was, & which is to come, & from the seven spirits which are before his throne.

5 And fro Iesus Christ, which is a faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and Prince of the Kings of the earth, vnto him that sowed vs, and washed vs from our sinnes in his blood,

6 And made vs Kings and Priests vnto God, euen his Father, to him be glory and dominion for evermore, Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him: yea, euen they which haue pierced him through: and all kindreds of the earth shall woe before him. Euen so, Amen.

9 I know thy workes and tribulation, and pouertie, (but thou art rich) and I knowe the blasphemy of them, which say they are Iewes, and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: behold, it shall come to passe, that the deuill shall cast some of you into prison, that yee may be tryed, and yee shall haue tribulation 1 ten dayes: bee thou faithfull vnto the death, and I will giue thee the crowne of life.

11 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith to the Churches. He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the Angel of y Church which is at Pergamus write, Thus saith he which hath the sharpe sword with two edges, 14 But I haue a fewe things against thee, because thou hast thine them that maintaine the doctrine of Balaam, which taught Balac to put a stumbling block before the children of Israel, that they should eate of things sacrificed vnto idoles, and commit fornication.

15 Euen to hast thou them, that maintaine the doctrine of y Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

18 And vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Thyatira write, These things saith the Soune of God, which hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his feete like fine brasse.

19 I know thy workes and thy loue, and seruice, and faith, and thy patience, and thy workes, and that they are more at the last then at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I haue a fewe things against thee, that thou sufferest the woman Jezabel, which calleth her selfe a Propheteſse, to teach and to deceiue my seruantes, to make them commit fornication, and to eate meates sacrificed vnto idoles.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her, into great affliction, except they repent them of their workes.

23 And I will kill her children with death: and all the Churches shall knowe that I am he which learch the reins and hearts: and I will giue vnto euery one of you according vnto your workes.

24 And vnto you, I say, the rest of them of Thyatira, As many as haue not this learning, neyther haue knowen the deepnesse of Satan (as they speake) I will put vpon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye haue already, hold fast till I come.

26 For he that overcometh and keepeth my workes vnto the ende, to him will I giue power ouer nations,

27 And he shall rule them with a rod of yron: and as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken.

2 And immediatly I was rauished in the spirit, and beholde, a throne was set in heauen, and one sat vpon the throne.

3 And ^b he that sat, was to looke vpon like vnto a Jaiper stone, & a Sardine, and there was a rainbow round about ^c the throne in sight like to an Emeraude.

And therefore the foure beastes, the 24. Elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, and doe him worship, 9 For their redemption and other benefits.

And I sawe in the right hande of him that sate vpon the throne, a Booke written within, and on the backside, sealed with 7. seuen seales,

2 And I sawe a Strong Angel, which preached with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the Booke, and to loose the seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth was able to open the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was founde worthy to open, and to reade the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the Elders said vnto me, Weepe not: beholde, the Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath obtained to open the Booke, & to loose the seuen seales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and loe, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beastes, & in the middes of the Elders, stood a Lambe, as though hee had bene killed, which had 7. seuen hornes, and 7. seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the world.

7 And he came, and tooke the Booke out of the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne.

8 And when hee had taken the Booke, the foure beastes, & the foure and twentie Elders fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one harpes and golden vials full of odours, which are the 7. prayers of the Saints.

9 And they sing a newe song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the Booke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euery kinred, and tongue, and people, and nation.

10 And hast made vs vnto our G O D Kings and Priestes, and we shall reigne on the earth.

11 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels rounde about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, and there were * thousand thousands,

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lambe that was killed, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and praise.

13 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, & all that are in them, heard I, saying, Blessye, and honour, and glory, and power be vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beastes saide, Amen, and the foure & twentie Elders fell downe, and worshipped him that sitteth for euermore.

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the first seales, and many things follow the opening thereof, so that this containeth a generall prophesie to the end of the world.

After, I behelde when the Lambe had opened one of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beastes say, as it were the noyse of thunder, Come and see.

2 Therefore I beheld, and loe, there was a white horse, and hee that sate on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering that he might overcome.

3 And when hee had opened the second seale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was red, and power was giuen to him that sate thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when hee had opened the third seale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I beheld, and loe, a blacke horse, and he that sate on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beastes say, A measure of wheate for a peny, and three measures of barley for a peny, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And when hee had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and beholde, a pale horse, and his name that sate on him was Death, and Hell followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

1 The seventh seale is opened: there is silence in heauen. 6 The foure Angels blowe the trumpets, and great plagues followe vpon the earth.

And when hee had opened the seventh seale, there was silence in heauen about halfe an houre.

2 And I sawe the seuen Angels, which stood before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpets.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth, and there were voyces, and thundings, and lightnings, and earthquake.

6 Then the seven Angels, which had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves to blowe the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there was haile and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt, and all greene grass was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures, which were in the sea, & had life, died, and the third part of ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a great starre from heauen burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called wounewood: therefore the third part of the waters became wounewood, & many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the sunne was burnt, and the third part of the moonne, and the third part of the stars, so that the third part of them was darkened: and the day was thirde, that the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I beheld, and heard one Angel flying thorow the middes of heauen, saying with a loud voyce, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the soundes to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpets.

14 And I beheld, and heard one Angel flying thorow the middes of heauen, saying with a loud voyce, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the soundes to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpets.

And the first Angel blew the trumpet, and I sawe a starre which was fallen from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the keye of the bottomlesse pitte.

2 And hee opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace, and the sunne, and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke Locusts vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen power, as the scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commanded them, that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but onely those men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheades.

5 And to them was commanded that they should not kill them, but that they should bee tormented five moneths, and that their paine should bee as the paine that cometh of a scorpion, when hee hath stung a man.

6 Therefore in those dayes shall men seeke death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the foune of the locusts was like vnto horses prepared vnto battell, and on their heads were as it were crownes like vnto golde, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had haire as the haire of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

18 Of these three was the third part of the men killed, that is, of the fire, & of the smoke, and of the brimstone which came out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their mouthes, and in their talles: for their talles were like unto serpents, and had heads, wherewith they hurt.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, repented not of the woekes of their hands that they should not worship devils, & idoles of gold and of silver, and of brasse, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, nor goe.

2 And he had in his hand a little booke open, and he put his right foot vpon the sea, and his left on the earth.

3 And cryed with a loude voyce, as when a Lyon roareth: and when he had cryed, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voyces, I was about to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen saying vnto me, ¶ Seal by those things which

5 And the Angel which I sawe stand vpon the sea, and vpon the earth, lit vp his hand to heauen,

8 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto me againe and saide, Doe and take the little booke which is open in the hand of the Angel, which standeth vpon the sea and vpon the earth.

9 So I went vnto the Angel, and saide to him, Give me ¶ little booke. And he said vnto me, Take it, and eate it vp, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall bee in thy mouth as sweete as honey.

10 Then I tooke the little booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as sweete as honey: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

God Almighty, which art, and which wast, and which art to come: for thou hast receiued thy great might, and hast obtained thy kingdom.

18 And the Gentiles were angrie, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they shoulde be iudged, and that thou shouldest giue reward vnto thy seruants the Prophets, and to the Saints, and to them that feare thy Name, to small and great, and shouldest destroy them, which destroy the earth.

19 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was lichte in his Temple the arke of his covenant: & there were lightnings, and voyces, and thundrings, and earthquakes, and much haile.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the sunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the Dragon, which persecuteth the woman. 11 The victory is gotten, to the comfort of the faithfull.

And there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A woman clothed with the sunne, and the moone was vnder his feete, and vpon her head a crowne of twelve starres.

2 And she was with childe, and cryed traunailing in birth, and was pained ready to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for behold, a great red Dragon hauing seven heads, and seven hornes, and seven crownes vpon his head.

4 And his taile swete the third part of the starres of heauen, and cast them to the earth. And the Dragon stood before the woman, which was ready to be deliuered, to deuoure her childe when she had brought it forth.

5 So she brought forth a man childe, which shoulde rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her sonne was taken vp vnto God and to his throne.

6 And the woman fledde into a wilderness, where shee hath a place prepared of God, that they shoulde feede her there a thousande, two hundred and thre score dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen, Michael and his Angels fought against the Dragon, and the Dragon fought and his Angels.

8 But they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heauen.

9 And y^e great Dragon that olde serpent, called the deuill and Satan, was cast out, which deceiuet all the worlde: hee was surie, and is red with the blood of the faithfull. f For hee is the prince of this worlde, and almost hath the vniuersall gouernement. g By his flatteries and promises hee gaineth many of the excellent ministers and honourable persons, and bringeth them to destruction. h Which is Iesus Christ the first borne among many brethren, who was borne of the Virgine Marie, as of a special member of the Church. Psalm 2.9. i The Church was removed from among the Iewes to the Gentiles, which were as a barren wilderness, and so it is persecuted to and fro. k Iesus Christ and his members, as Apostles, Martyrs, and the rest of the faithfull. l For the Dragon was deuiued of all his dignitie, and had no more place in the Church.

a Which signifie the destruction of the enemies.

a In this third vision is declared howe the Church, which is compassed about with Iesus Christ the sonne of righteousnes, is persecuted of Antichrist. b The Church treadeth vnder foote whatsoever is mutable and inconstant, with all corrupt affections and such like. c Which signifieth God and his word.

d The Church euer with a most feruent desire longed that Christ shoulde bee borne, and that the faithfull might be regenerate by his power.

10 Then I heard a loud voice, saying, Now is salvation in heaven, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the worde of their testimony, and they loved not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, and ye that dwell in them. Alloe to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuill is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, knowing that hee hath but a shorte time.

13 And when the dragon sawe that hee was cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which had brought forth the man child.

14 But to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might flee into the wilderness, into a place where shee is nourished for a time, and times, and halfe a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, that he might caule her to be carryed away of the flood.

16 But the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the remnant of his seede, which keepe the commandmentes of God, and haue the testimony of Iesus Christ.

18 And I stood on the sea sand.

1. 8. The beast deceieth the probate, 2. 4. 12. And is confirmed by another beast, 17 The priuiledge of the beastes markes.

And I sawe a beast rise out of the sea, hauing seven heads, and ten hornes, and vpon his hornes were ten crownes, and vpon his heads the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I sawe, was like a leopard, and his feete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gaue him his power, & his throne, and great authoritie.

3 And I sawe one of his heads as it were wounded to death, but his deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondered and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth, that spake great things and blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, to doe two and fourtie monethes.

6 And hee opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his Name and his tabernacle, and then that dwell in heauens.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saints, and to overcome them, and power was giuen him ouer euery kindred and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore al that dwell vpon the earth, shall worshippe him, whose names are not written in the booke of life of the Lamb, which was slaine from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If any leade into captiuitie, hee shall goe into captiuitie: if any kill with a sword, he must be killed by a sword: here is the patience, and the faith of the Saints.

11 And I behelde another beast, coming vp out of the earth, which had two hornes like the Lamb, but he spake like the dragon.

12 And hee did all that the first beast could doe before him, and he caused the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship him: and the beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And hee did great wonders, so that he made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men.

14 And deceiued them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to doe in the sight of the beast, laying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the image of the beast, which had the wound of a sword, and did liue.

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast should speake, and should cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

1 The notable companie of the Lambe. 6 One Angel announceth the Gospel, 8 Another the fall of Babylon, 9 And the third warneth to flee from the beast. 13 Of their blessednesse which die in the Lord. 18 Of the Lordes haruest.

a Iesus Christ ruleth in his Church to defend and comfort it, though the beast rage neuer so much: and seeing Christ is present euer with his Church, there can be no vicar: for where there is a vicar, there is no Church. b Meaning a great and ample Church. c Which was the marke of their election, to wit, their faith. d Signifying, that the number of the Church should be great, & that they should speake boldly, & aloud, and to glorifie the Lord. e None can prayse God, but the clea & whom he hath bought. f By whoredome: and vnder this vice he comprehendeth all other: but this is chiefly meant of Idolatrie, which is the spirituall whoredome. g For their whole delight is in the Lambe Iesus, and they loue none but him. h Which declareth that the faithfull ought to live iustly and holily, that they may be the first fruites, and an excellent offering of the Lord. i Forasmuch as their finnes are pardoned, and they are clad with the iustice of Christ. k By this Angel are meant the true ministers of Christ which preach the Gospel faithfully.

T Ven I looked, and loe, a * Lambe stood on mount Sion, and with him an * hundredeth, fourtie and foure thousand, hauing his fathers * Name written in their foreheades.

2 And I heard a voyce from heauen, as the sound of many * waters, & as the sound of a great thunder: and I heard the voyce of harpers harping with their harpes.

3 And they sing as it were a newe song before the throne & before the foure beastes, and the Elders, and no * man could learne that song, but the hundredeth fourtie and foure thousand, which were bought from the earth.

4 These are they which are not * defiled with women: for they are virgins: these followe the Lambe: & whithersoever he goeth: these are bought from men, being the * first fruites vnto God, and to the Lambe.

5 And in their mouthes was found no guile: for they are without * spot before the throne of God.

6 ¶ Then I saw another * Angel stie in the middes of heauen, hauing an euerslasting Gospel, to preach vnto them that dwell on the earth, and to euery nation, and kinned, and tongue, and people,

7 * Saying with a loud voice, I feare God, and giue glory to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made * heauen and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there followed another Angell, saying, * It is fallen, it is fallen, * Babylon the great citie: for shee made all nations to drinke of the wine of the * wrath of her fornication.

9 ¶ And the third Angel folowed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the * pure wine, which is poyred into the cup of his wrath, and hee shall be tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

11 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiueth the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of * Saints: here are they that keepe the commandments of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 Then I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto mee, Write, * Blessed are the dead, which hereafter die * in the * Lords. Then to saye the spirit: for they rest from their labours, & their workes followe them.

14 ¶ And I looked, and behold, a white * cloud, and vpon the cloud one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angel came out of the Temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, * Thust in thy sickle, & reape: for the tyme is come to reape: for the haruest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud, * thust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angel came out of the Temple which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from * altar, which had power ouer fire, and cryed with a loud crye to him that had the sharpe sickle, and sayd, Thust in the sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyarde of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

1 The Angels poure out their vials full of wrath, 6 And what plagues follow thereof. 15 Admonition to take heed and watch.

And I hearde a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seven Angels, Doe your waies, and poure out the seven vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

4 And the third Angel poured out his viall vpon the riuers & fountaines of waters, and they became blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the waters say, Loyde, thou art iust, (Which art, and which wast, and holy, because thou hast iudged these things).

6 For they shed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuary say, Cuen so, Loyde God almightie, true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel poured out his viall on the Sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with a heate of fire.

9 And men boyled in great heate, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to giue him glory.

12 And the sixt Angel poured out his viall vpon the great riuier Euphrates, and the water thereof dried vp, that the way of the Kings of the East shoulde bee prepared.

3 The description of the great whore, 8 Her sinnes & punishment. 14 The victory of the Lambe.

Then there came one of the seven Angels, which had the seven vials, & talked with me, saying vnto me, Come: I will shew thee the damnation of the great b whore that sitteth vpon many waters,

2 With whom haue committed fornication the kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are drunken with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he caried me away into the wilderness, & the Spirit, and I saw a woman sit vpon a scarlet coloured b beast, full of names of blasphemy, which had seven heads, and ten hornes.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and girded with golde, and precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of golde in her hand, full of abominations, and filthinesse of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, b A myserie, great Babylon, the mother of whoredomes, and abominations of the earth.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of Saints, and with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great maruaile.

7 When the Angel said vnto me, Wherefore marvellest thou? I will shew thee the myserie of the woman, and of the beast that beareth her, which hath seven heads, and ten hornes.

8 The beast that thou hast seene, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and shall goe into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder (whose names are not written in the Booke of life from the foundation of the worlde) when they beholde the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 Here is the minde that hath wisdom. The seven heads are b seven mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also seven kings.

10 Five are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when hee cometh, hee will continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the e eight, and is one of the seven, and shall goe into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdome, but shall receiue power as Kings at one hour with the beast.

13 These haue one minde, and shall giue their power and authoritie vnto the beast.

14 These shall fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall ouercome them: * for he is Lord of Lords, and king of kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithfull.

15 And he sayde vnto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the s teune hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eate her flesh, & burne her with fire.

17 For God hath s put in their hearts to fulfill his wil, and to do with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntill the words of God be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer the kings of the earth.

5 For her sinnes are come by vnto heauen, & God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her, euen as she hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes: and in the cup that shee hath filled to you, fill her the double.

7 In as much as shee glorified her selfe, and liued in pleasure, so much giue ye to her torment and sorowe: for shee saith in her heart, I sit being a Queene, and am no widow, and shall see no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death, and sorow, and famine, and shee shall be burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God which will condemn her.

9 And the Kings of the earth shall bewaile her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and liued in pleasure with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

10 And shall stand asafarre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mighty citie: for in one hour is shee iudged.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weepe and wail ouer her: for no man buyeth their ware any more.

17 For in one house so great riches are come to desolation. And every shipmaister, and all the people that occupy ships, and shipmen, and whosoever traualle on the sea, shall stand asafarre off,

18 And cry, when they see the smoke of her burning, saying, What citie was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shall cast dust on their heads, and cry weeping and wailing, and say, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherein were made riche all that had ships on the sea by her costlines: for in one houre shee is made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her, and ye holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath requiuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mighty Angel tooke by a stone like a great millstone, & cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall the great citie Babylon be cast, and shall be found no more.

22 And the voyce of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters shall be heard no more in thee, and no craftes man, of whatsoeuer craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more in thee: and the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride shall be heard no more in thee: for the merchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine enchantments were deceived all nations.

1 Traffes are giuen vnto God for iudging the whore, and for atting the blood of his seruants. 10 The Angel will not be worshipped. 17 The foules and birds are called to the slaughter.

After these things I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, Vassellu-iah, saluation, and glory, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God.

2 For true and righteous are his iudgements: for hee hath condemned the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath auenged the blood of his seruants shed by her hand.

3 And againe they sayd, Vassellu-iah: and her smoke rose by for euermore.

4 And the foure & twentie Elders, and the foure beasts fell downe, and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen, Vassellu-iah.

5 Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both smal and great.

THE PREFACE TO THE Christian Reader, touching the two Alphabets ensuing.

GOOD Christian Reader, because thou mayest enioy and reape the profite of these two Alphabets of directions vnto Common places hereafter following, which I haue in maner of a brieue Concordance, or large & ample Index, collected, digested, and caused to be imprinted for thy commoditie: I thought it not amisse to aduertise thee somewhat touching the principall contents, vse; and commoditie of them. Wherefore be it knowen vnto thee, that in the first of the sayde Alphabets, I haue together placed by themselves in a maner, all the strange names and wordes which are scatteringly to be founde here and there throughout the whole Bible, remayning written in the Hebrew, Chaldean, Syrian, Greeke, or Latine languages: to the ende thou mayst by that meanes, learne to be conduced vnto so much of the interpretation, Historie, Common places, and knowledge of them, and euery of them, as I trust thou shalt thinke needefull. And for that in diuers translations these strange names & wordes are written diuersly, I haue, in respect thereof, only in this Alphabet, folowed y Geneva translation, as most allowed in that behalfe, and yet haue placed in the Margent thereof, how in writing, other Translations differ from the same: to the ende not onely such corruptions as are found for want of the true Orthographie of them, may appeare vnto those that are skilfull in those languages, to be amended, when time shall minister occasion (as some of them are already) but also the vnskilfull Readers be not defrauded of such commodity, as might grow vnto them thereby, especially if they should haue occasion to looke for any worde in the same Alphabet, after the same maner of writing, that they had seene or read in other Copies, and not finde the same accordingly. Secondly, in the other of the saide Alphabets, I haue likewise by themselves placed all, and as many proper and vsuall English wordes, as are contained in the same Byble, conducing to the finding out of the most fittest sentences, and best common places, tending to the prouing or verifying of any article and doctrine, concerning our Christian fayth and Religion, or belonging to any other godly or necessarie instruction: so as if thou wouldest vnderstand what is to be learned in the Scriptures touching God or his power, his wisdom, or his loue, his mercie, or his trueth, his iustice, his promises, his plagues, or his punishments, &c. either else concerning Christ, or the holy Ghost, Angel, or Man, Nature, or Lawe, Sinne, or Grace, Faith, or Vnbeliefe, Predestination, or Reprobation, Iustification, Regeneration, Church or Sacraments, &c. or to be brieue, if thou wouldest vnderstande what is necessarily to be learned in the same Scriptures, touching the estate, authoritie, office or duetie of Kings or Princes, Iudges or Magistrates, Bishops and Pastors, Elders or Ministers, Fathers and Mothers, Masters and Mistresses, Subiects, and Parishioners, Husbands and Wiues, Children and seruants, and how euery one, of what degree, estate, condition, or profession soeuer, he, she, or they be of, ought to behaue themselves towards God, and one towards another, and what is to be spoken and not spoken, and what is to be done and left vndone of them or any of them, by the rule of Gods worde: thou art not voide of competent knowledge or directions in this Alphabet to ayde thee. Thirdly, to further thee to finde out in these two Alphabets, any thing whereof I haue before made mention, thou art to resort Alphabetically vnto the first of them, with the name of any Man, Woman, Countrey, Citie, Place, Riuer, Idole, &c. in the same conteyned: and also vnto the second of them, with the chiefe word of any sentence or common place therein mentioned, which thou art most affected vnto, or desirest to be satisfied of: and by that meanes, in euery of them shalt thou, by Gods grace, without fayle be conduced, and to thy great ease directed.

directed, and as it were, ledde by the hand, euen to the Booke, Chapter, and Verse, where the same, (or so much thereof, as for a godly, Christian, and necessarie knowledge shall be thought requisite) is to be found out most readily: alwayes remembering, that whatsoever convenient knowledge wanteth in these Alphabets, as touching the text wherunto it directeth thee, is there supplied by the Annotations, or quotations in the Margent. Moreover, good Christian Reader, thou hast also to obserue how that the first Figure, or Figures, which followe next after any Booke whereunto thou shalt be guided, signifyeth or signifie the Chapter, and the other the verse or verses of the same Chapter, where any of the foresaid things is to be sought for. Again, where as thou shalt after a Chapter, and otherwhiles after some verse or verses of a Chapter, finde this marke or Starre * quoted, thou art to vnderstand, how that the whole Chapter, or from the verse of that Chapter where the same Starre is placed forward vnto the end thereof, entreateth, or in some good respects chiefly belongeth, and may be applyed to the same Historie, matter, or common place thou seekest for, except there be any verses following the same *, for then the common place is to be vnderstoode, not to exceede those verses. Finally, whereas I haue sometimes in these Alphabets partly set downe the sense, and that which may properly be gathered of the text, which thou art directed vnto, & not the very wordes them selues, and otherwhiles repeated one thing in diuers places, but yet to diuers ends: I trust that will not offend thee, sith I haue so done for the vnlearneds sake, because the same coulde, ne can be made too plaine for them, and therefore haue vsed not so great a curiositie and abbreviacion in that behalfe, as perhaps some other would haue had me: and yet considering to what a great quantitie these two Alphabets are growen vnto, (ouer that I thought they would) I haue bin forced to leaue out somewhat, that otherwise I would haue added vnto them, which hereafter by Gods grace I will supply: thus much touching the principall contentes, commoditie, and vse of the aforesaid Alphabets, which with such other doubts as may trouble thee, I mistrust not, but by well perusing of the same, and practise (with the diuersitie of letter, which is vsed in them) will soone appeare very easie, plaine, and apparant vnto thee, albeit I particularly touch not euery of them. Now therefore to conclude, if my simple trauaile and paines taken herein shalbe well accepted of thee, I meane, of the more skilful and learned Readers, to be polished and amended of them (if they shall so deeme necessarie and conuenient) to the better edification of the Church of God, whereof they are or ought to be ioynt members, helpers, and furtherers, so farre forth as their Talents wil stretch vnto, and that in the spirit of meekenesse, sobrietie, and charitie: and of the lesse learned or vnlearned Reader, (vnto whome I confesse my selfe the greatest debtour) as a ayd and helpe to their godly studies, and honest trade of life, and withall Christianly to be construed of al men, as a means and furtherance, and not an hinderance vnto any, I shal for my part thinke my selfe wel requited, and more then sufficiently rewarded, in that I shal enioy my desire, & that which I longed for. And so beseeching Almighty God to giue vs his grace to be studious of vnitie, and bringing forth such fruites, as may declare our vndoubted election in Christ Iesus, I take my leaue of thee, this xxij. of December.

Anno Domini. 1678.
